

his wife and family. all the gaols in Ire- be put aboard the d by Messrs. Clarke, docks and quays of ing of bricks in the struck—not only for rease in the quantity mblend in considerable e un-united labourers, ages which they had ost cruel manner, and essrs. Read, Twomey, quantity of what are le amount in value. e in London has failed erpool on Tuesday.— were landed from a was discovered to be n case of about four op.

ding the Coast Guard onmahon, and is re- nd. Mr. Baker, late Ballymacow.

e is hardship in it, that service, when leave is given after severe cely ceases. Leave of labouring under severe Saturday.

general in the South of quite favourable to the e already received the ue show of horned cattle ndifferent. Sheep were also large, but inferior ither of horses or cattle.

st-on-Fergus, on Friday and pigs, was unprece- ad of a very superior n the Royal College of erday.

—The Comet yacht, of Cork; the Iris yacht, Kilmore House, county s, the Knight of Glin, of the Zephyr yacht of 19 of Brickitstown House, the Dunraven Tureen. yacht of 23 tons, Wm. following were admitted ant—Augustine Butler, — Patterson, Esq. of ; and James Morgan, (Portuguese service), of a daughter. At Cape Town, the Lady of William Elphinstone Underwood, Esq. of a daughter.

DEATHS.

At her father's house in Catherine-street, Grace, daughter of Henry Bindon Fitzgerald, Esq.—a young Lady whose premature death is a source of profound grief to her fond parents and of sincere regret to many respectable relatives and friends.

In Mallow, after a lingering indisposition, Mathew Carroll, Esq. Attorney, eldest son of the late John Carroll, Esq. of this City.

At his house at Cbarleville, on Wednesday, April 30, aged 79, Robert Maxwell, Esq. During a long life his attention to the interests of his tenantry and dependents, and his invariable integrity, secured to his memory the regard and regret of all who knew him.

On Saturday, in Bank-Place, after a long and tedious illness, which he bore with the most Christian resignation, William L. Fitzgerald, Esq. M.D. son of William Fitzgerald, Esq. of this City. He was a young Gentleman of high Professional attainments and much esteemed by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

In Dublin, John Crampton, Esq.

In North Earl-street, Dublin, in the 75th year of her age, Eleanor, widow of the late Mr. R. D. Meredith, apothecary.

At Merton, Dublin, Nannie, the wife of Benjamin Swan, Esq.

Mary Anne, wife of Mr. Nathaniel Cartland, of Stafford-st. Dublin.

In Dublin, Margaret, relict of W. Johnson Alloway, Esq. of the Derries, Queen's County.

At Richmond-barracks, Lieutenant and Quartermaster Andrew Connell, 2d battalion 1st or Royal Regiment.

In Dublin, Terence, second son of T. T. Magrath, of Upper Buckingham-street, Esq. in the 17th year of his age.

At Hall Craig, George Willis, Esq. Justice of the Peace and a Deputy Lieutenant of the county Fermanagh, and formerly a Captain in his Majesty's 6th Regiment of Foot.

At Tramore, James Maher, Esq.

At Juniper Cottage, county Meath, Richard Crawford, Esq. second son of the late John Crawford, Esq. of Lawrence Town, co. Meath.

At Barraghcore, in his 24th year, William Orme, fourth son of John Handy, Esq. of Barraghcore, county Kilkenny.

In Carlow, John Kilbride, Esq. M.D.

At his house, Exchange, Cork, John Kennedy, Esq.

In Kinsale, aged 72, Mrs. Sayer, relict of the late Martin Sayer, Captain 3d Royal Veteran Battalion, and daughter of the late Sir Emanuel Moore, Bart.

In Kilkenny, after a short illness, William Watters, Esq. eldest son of the late Clerk of the Peace for the county Kilkenny.

In Kilkenny, Mrs. M'Cheane, aged 77 years, relict of the late Jeremiah M'Cheane, Esq. of Clonmel.

Mr. John Gregsten, Printer and Proprietor of the Impartial Reporter, Enniskillen.

At Point House, Dundalk, the Lady of Captain Hanfield, R.N. after a short illness.

In Bangor, aged 30, Caroline Nugent, wife of Lieut. Joseph Wright, R.N. and daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel Porter, Campbeltown, Argyllshire, N.B.

At Beagh, county Galway, Robert Ffrench, Esq.

In Abbeigate-street, Galway, Mrs. Murray, wife of Mr. Timothy Murray.

In William-street, Galway, Mr. Patrick Flatley.

At Clonakilty, Anna Clarinda, wife of George Beamish, Esq.

In London, David, eldest son of the late John Lambert, Esq. Commander R.N. aged 23.

In London, Georgiana, eldest daughter of Sir G. and Lady Wombwell.

At Chelsea, in his 93d year, Captain James Wright, late of the 6th Royal Veteran Battalion.

At Leamington, Alexander Duke, Esq. late of Tiddington, near Stratford-Avon, and formerly a Major in the 8th Regiment of Foot, on service in Egypt, where he was severely wounded.

In Liverpool, aged 68 years, Captain James Atherton, Adjutant of the 2d Royal Lancashire Militia.

At Aberdeen, Erie Frances, eldest daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Clerk, 49th Regiment.

At Barcarres, Alice, second daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Lindsay, aged seven years.

At Marseilles, George Godfrey Gibbs, Esq. City of Dublin, Barrister-at-Law, second son of George Gibbs, of Stephen's-green, Esq.

At Halifax, N.S. Lieut.-Colonel J. Fullarton, 96th Regiment.

At Madeira, Ann Amelia Charlotte, the daughter of Lieut.-Colonel St. John Fancourt, who, when Commandant of Vellore in July, 1806, fell a victim to his gallant and unexampled courage in defence of that garrison in a mutiny of the native troops.

At Quebec, Mr. James Webb, late of the Royal Artillery, aged 72.

16 EFFERV

FOR BILIOUS AF
HABITUAL C
PILES AND F
AS A COOLING

IT is now an axio cumstance tends
the regularity of considered that on t bowels are depend support and prolong importance to corre
Many, however, fro
with aperient medi
and griping effects,
therefore, an aperie
desideratum in med was introduced to unprecedented pat Kingdom of Great South America, the
the world. Being has in all parts had classes, and the co

It is at once ag
stomach, uniting th
Purgatives with all WATER.

In Bo
* * Be careful Chemists, Hull,
without which it c
Sold wholesale
all the wholesale d
R. Raimes, Edinb

MESS
PROPRIETORS
132, GE

COMPOUN
Composed of Q
other Aromatics.
most efficacious
Complaints, Ague
of a tonic is indica

ALS
COMPO
SA

Sarsaparilla is purifier of the b
spring and fall of sary. In the Co Guaiacum, and T macopœia.