 of Longueville, county Cork, and daughter of John M'Clintock, Esq.
 of Drumcar, and of Lady Elizabeth M'Clintock.
 Mr. James Wall, formerly Clerk of the Peace for this County, a worthy honest man.
 After a long illness, originating in a cold caught in the exercise of his sacred ministry, the Rev. Thomas Cleary, nephew of the Rev.
 Philip Cleary, P.P. of Ballybricken, in this County. The deep regret occasioned by the death of this most exemplary divine is as extensive as the admiration of his many amiable virtues was unbounded.

 Solicitor-General, Mrs. Sydney Browne, widow of the late Cuffe Browne, Esq. eldest daughter of David Jones, Esq. formerly of Bensfort, county Meath, deceased.
 Tuesday, in Upper Mallow-street, of lingering illness, which she bore with meekness and resignation, Blanche, the beloved wife of John Berkeley Westropp, Esq. of this City. In a conscientious adherence to the relative duties of wife, parent, and friend, she endeared herself to her afflicted family. But they may not mourn as those without hope, having witnessed the triumph of that Faith which, in her most trying moments, robbed Death of its sting, and enabled her to look with confidence to a glorious resurrection through the merits of a Crucified Redeemer.
 In Clonmel, Sarah, daughter of the late Michael Lowe, of Mallardstown, county Kilkenny, Esq.
