

common pro-
essed the inmate senseless intoxi-underrate the ntirely to intem-
any a man went grievous sin of y a poor family
cause the money
ance was wasted
now linger out a would dwell in a
same detestable mechanics of Ire-employment, were en in this country of England, but n consequence of that state of com-
t to enable them was one of the ploy his energies, xample from that sery and crime in good cause and he ey would have the he words of their cement of national Ireland (cheers.)
the most anxious on, and he did not d embrace a large
k, and extend its f which Limerick
its duties would py time arrived, it will have been so Society will be no
ee, moved the fifth at force on the evil
air and William S.
Surgeon Franklin
s of the meeting to Colonel O'Donnell,
ry occasion which n affording his best
y. It was indeed
ellow-citizens, after his country, after y returned amongst

a daughter.
In London, the Hon. Mrs. Kenyon, of a daughter.
At Hamstead, the Lady of Thos. Havilan Burke, Esq. of a daughter.
At Sunbury, the Lady of Captain Watkins, of a son.
At Denby Grange, Yorkshire, the Lady of Sir John L. L. Kaye, Bart. of a son.
At Perth, the Lady of Captain W. A. Riach, 79th Highlanders, of a daughter.
At Herring Court, Richmond, Surrey, the Right Hon. Lady Louth, of a daughter.

DEATHS.

At the house of the Rev. W. Cornwall, Ballyshannon, at an advanced age; Martha, relict of the late Richard Langford, of Mount Langford, in the County Limerick, Esq. daughter of the late Giles Rea, of Derrymore, in the County Kerry, Esq. and first cousin to the late Hon. Robert Day of the Irish Bench.

At Tarbert, on Wednesday last, the 14th inst. in the bloom of life, after a long and protracted illness, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Ellen Maria, third daughter of James Fitzgerald, Esq. A young lady possessed of the most amiable disposition, and every virtue and accomplishment which can adorn the female mind.

In Dublin, Margaret M'Keogh, relict of Luke M'Keogh, late of Gardiner-street, Esq. deceased.

At Mutton Island Lighthouse, Galway, Mrs. Eleanor Weldon, at the advanced age of 94 years.

At Mount Pleasant, county Tipperary, George, eldest son of George Jackson, Esq.

After some hours' painful suffering, in consequence of his horse falling with him, David Baldwin, Esq. of Raheenduff, Queen's County.

Suddenly, in Wexford, Thomas Parker, Esq.

At the residence of her son, Corolanty Castle, in the King's County, Mrs. Hammersley, aged 76 years.

At the South Mall, Cork, Harriett, relict of the late Thos. Miller, Esq.

At Castletownroche, county Cork, Francis, son of Thomas Elie, native of Granville, Normandy, in the 45th year of his age.

At Cashel, on Monday, Mrs. White, relict of the late Newport White, Esq. of Lisowen, County Limerick, aged 77 years.

At Tramore, on Thursday, Jonathan Willington Kyffin, Esq. of the County Tipperary, many years Captain of the Grenadier Company of the Royal Tyrone Regiment of Militia.

In consequence of a fall from his horse, David Baldwin, Esq. of Raheenduff, Queen's County.

In Clonmel, Mr. Stephen Acheson, aged 66 years.

At Ballyshannon, the wife of Surgeon Erien.

At Point House, Dundalk, the Lady of Captain Handfield, of the Royal Navy.

In London, Antoine, youngest daughter of Capt. Grenow, M.P.

At Petersfield, Com. Robert Bruce, R.N. Commander of his Majesty's ship Revenge for upwards of three years.

Mr. Thomas Gibbons, principal tipstaff of the Court of King's Bench.

The Rev. Thomas Foley, of Ridgway, Pembrokeshire.

Miss Sarah Keily, at the house of her brother, the Rev. William Keily, R.C. Rector of Stockport.

At Kirkdale, in the 53d year of his age, Captain and Adjutant Wm.
Anderson, half-pay 71st Highlanders.

On his passage from Ireland Island to St. George's, Bermuda, by the upsetting, during a squall, of a small sailing boat, in the 21st year of his age, Alexander Charles Orlebar, of the Royal Engineers, 4th son of the late Richard Orlebar, of Hinwick House, Bedfordshire, Esq. a most promising young officer, of great professional talent.

At the Naval Depot, Grand River, Lake Erie, Canada, the wife of Serjeant Woods, 65th Regiment.

At Montreal, the Hon. Hcratio Gates, member of the Legislative Council.

At Madeira, Caroline, second daughter of the late Major James Winter, of the Royal Artillery,

At Quebec, at the early age of 23 years, Sophia, wife of Henry Pemberton, Esq. of Dublin.

At Rome, aged 18, Philip, only son of Walter Nolan, Esq. Linen Hall.

the cheapest.
Price of the Pat
it even below u
that the BEST always been in PRICED.

IMPROVE

In addition
Messrs. H. ha
improvements,
very superior to these Instru particulars of circulars, whic containing des Professional T
the following :
Dr. PERRY
quently used says :—

“ SIR—In a
of your enema elastic tube n
hesitation in s construction, a
to be more dur stuffing box, a apt to pass the “ From exp
to the superior
fail to recom
tried.

“ To Harv
A number
be seen at Me

ME

THE

132

HILLIA

Me
STEVENSON
ENEMA P
MEDICAL H