

post brings me your
nt. in which, as Chair-erick, on the day before, rough Mr. Rice, to my ill "for amending the g the several additions eting.

resolution expressing the ould not be forwarded anner than that which the first step was to proceed you are aware, officially but was disappointed by then arrived. Probably ned to the Private Bill postponing any further y fortnight, in order to ontingency. I need only structions of my consti-st respectful and anxious my colleague fully and a second time, but that y, as you are aware, the urpose of the measure, arrying them into effect consideration in "Come I deemed it advisable the honor of receiving a Piercy, Secretary to the Parish, and from Mr. nittee of the Commercial h you presided, embraced dies, as well those of the Bridge Commissioners, having the kindness to tion, with my colleague's persede the necessity of ct reply, which, indeed, ould also, for this day, nefit which my fellow-tive co-operation on every ve me to be, My dear Sir,

d obedient servant,
WILLIAM ROCHE.

London, May 26, 1834. ay received your esteemed
g a copy of resolutions, the rooms of the Comhael's, on the 21st of this imerick Bridge Bill, with fied by you as chairman so kind as to assure the eeting, and who take an ave my utmost attention do in the necessity of the the Rev. Rev. Robert C. D. Robinson, of a son.

At Hollywell, near Ennis, the Lady of Thomas F. Comyn, Esq. of a daughter.
In Ellen-street, the Lady of James Webb Benn, Esq. of a daughter.
At Wexford, the Lady of Lieut. Light, of a son.
At Stephen's-green North, the Lady of Francis M'Clean, Esq. of a daughter.
At Bellevue, the Lady of Walter Laurence, Esq. of a son.
In Kildare-street, Dublin, the Lady of John Keatinge Taylor, Esq. of Timmon Castle, of a daughter,
In Wellesley-place, co. Dublin, Mrs. Barns, of a son.
At Bellaghy, co. Londonderry, the Lady of Wm. Hunter, Esq. of a son.
In London, the Lady of J. H. Lloyd, Esq. M.P. of a daughter.
In Mount-street, Grosvenor square, the Lady of M. Blood, Esq. of a son.
In Baker-street, London, the Lady of G. S. Harcourt, of Ankerwycke House, Buckinghamshire, Esq. of a son and heir.
At Molesworth-place, Camden-town, the Lady of Captain Richard Morison (Madras Army), of a daughter.
At Farmington Lodge, the Lady of H. E. Waller, Esq. of a daughter.
At Brighton, the Hon. Mrs. Anderson, of a son.
At Boulogne-sur-Mer, the Lady of Captain Skipsey, R.N. of a son, which did not long survive its birth.

DEATHS.

At Castle-Connell, Richard Wilkinson, Esq.
In Cork, Mrs. Davenport, relict of the late Thomas Davenport, Esq. of Ballinacourty, a Magistrate of this county. Mrs. Davenport was a truly good and amiable pattern of all that is excellent in private life, pious, charitable, and kind, in every duty of the domestic circle, her contributions to alleviate the wants of others were liberal as they were pure and disinterested.
At Grenville Place, Cork, Elizabeth, relict of the Rev. Frederick Neligan, late Rector of the united parishes of Kilmastulla and Temlekelly, in the Diocese of Cashel.
In Rutland-street, at an early age, William, son of T. Abbott, Esq.
In Ardnaree, on Tuesday, Dr. Waldron, Roman Catholic Bishop of Killalla. In the neighbourhood of Ballina, and through the whole extent of his diocese, the death of this Prelate will be sincerely lamented. He was ever esteemed by all classes and persuasions, as a charitable and benevolent man—as one always unwilling to provocate or excite party quarrels or dissensions—as one averse to agitation, and wholly devoted to the duties of his office.
In Caroline-row, Dublin, Theobald Forrester, Esq.
In Aungier-street, at an advanced age, Mr. Robert Gibson, printer.
In Dublin, Edward, youngest son of John Knapp, Esq. of Bath.
John Davis, of Clohila, county Kilkenny, Esq.
At Spear Vale, county Cavan, in the 43d year of his age, Hugh S.
Spear, Lieutenant on half-pay, late of the 95th regiment, fourth son of the late Captain Spear.
At Westport, of cholera, James Gibbons, Esq. an intelligent and respectable merchant.
At Wicklow, Dorathea, wife of Nicholas Kempston, Esq. of "the Meeting of the Waters."
At Dumville, Cullenswood, Eleanor Jessie, wife of Edward B.
Stephens, Esq. in her 26th year.
At Corville Glebe, co. Meath, the Rev. Thomas Frederick Knipe, aged 79, thirty-two years Rector of the parishes of Oldcastle and Mount Nugent.
At the Glebe-house of Ferns, the Rev. Mark Charters, in the 73d year of his age, and 42d of his Ministry. He was Rector of the union of Ferns for 36 years.
At her mother's, Ballintemple, in her 17th year, Miss Margaret Murphy, daughter of the late Mr. Michael Murphy, of Cork.
At Caher Abbey, Miss Sarah Fennell, one of the Society of Friends,
At Highlands, Taunton, the Rev. Richard Francis Follett, aged 37.
Lady Watson, wife of Sir Charles Watson, Bart. Wratting Park, Cambridgeshire.
Aged 77, Charles Wesley, Esq. many years organist to their late Majesties Kings George the Third and Fourth.
The Rev Mr Weeks, formerly a Baptist Minister at Barton, near Torquay,

AUCTION.
TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION AT BEDFORD-ROW,
On MONDAY next, the 2d of June,
AT ONE O'CLOCK.

FR
M. them to Manche
The g and just MONAR
admired and put
The A submit genuine greater
N. B of the unprinc
Bottle,
AU
CA
AT
TO M
house,
Drawin
Tables
Sidebo
and K
Sugar
upright
Stool;
Ware
Drawe
niture,
Also
Dublin
CAR,
Harne
Mare,
condit
Steers trained attent
bred S
Pur
BRUR
of Br