

scenery of the
 and the Shannon
 think, any such
 d, or Scotland,
 mill in the island,
 Coney Island,
 with two backs.
 'river scenery,'
 ing element of
 n the summit of
 antique ruined
 is about four
 island M'Grath,
 s coursetowards
 in that direction
 elve miles from Limerick shore.
 have described is
 habited islands ;
 ins of an abbey
 Beeves Rocks,
 passing to and
 on the verge of
 ly improved and Waller are seen
 ty Tipperary—
 tains are on the
 from Paradise,
 steamers shall be
 ick and Kilrush,
 furniture can be
 is lovely island
 ment of a good
 er recreation.
 AS STEELE.

re were 339,852
 l Survey officers
 The total num-
 2,947,252.
 generally shot in
 from their pro-
 le but that new
 pidly proceeding
 in Athlone and

yor, Ellen Fitz-
 l Massy, William
 William Hassett,
 Esq. Timothy
 Henry Devanny
 with loss of life

DEATHS.

On Wednesday last, at his seat Chapelizod, county Kilkenny, Dorcas, wife of Major Izod, and daughter of the late Thomas Hemsworth, Esq. a Lady very generally lamented.

At her residence, Lower Fitzwilliam-street, Dublin, the Hon. Harriet Sewell, daughter of the late Lord Decies, Archbishop of Tuam.

Sarah Porter, youngest daughter of F. T. Porter, Esq. Fitzwilliam-street, Dublin.

In Mary-street, Mrs. Deane, relict of the late Richard Deane, Esq. of this City.

In Dominick-street, Cork, Mr. Daniel Curtin, Butter-Inspector.

Suddenly, James Kelly, Esq. Sub-Inspector of Police in Cork. He had only for a short period exercised that duty in the district, but during it he conducted himself with the utmost efficiency, and at the same time with such moderation and urbanity as to meet general approbation. On leaving Thurles, from whence he had been appointed to Cork, he received the thanks of the inhabitants of that town for the firmness, blended with consideration, with which he frequently discharged his duties. Mr. Kelly has left a widow and a numerous family of little children to lament their truly irreparable loss, whose state would, indeed, be worthy of the humanity of Government.

Mr. Edmond Cooke, son of Mr. John Cooke, Patrick-street, boot and shoe-maker.

In Dublin, William Searight, Esq. of the Board of Works, nephew of the late Rev. Mr. Searight of this City.

At his residence, Roebuck, county Dublin, William M'Caskey, Esq.

At Kingstown, of spasmodic cholera, John Alcock, Esq. son of the late Alderman Thomas Alcock, of the city of Waterford.

Mrs. Margaret Falvey, of Sackville-street, Dublin.

In Westmorland-street, Dublin, the Rev. Thomas Gore, Rector of Mulranken, county Wexford.

At Roseville, Wexford, Isabella, youngest daughter of Major Wilson.

At Castletownroche, aged 60 years, Elizabeth, the wife of Mr. George Smith.

At Sion, county Kildare, after giving birth to her first child, Alicia, wife of Charles M'Gohie, Esq. and only daughter of the late William St. John, of Carton, Esq.

Aged 77, the Rev. Michael Flood, P.P. of Kilskyre, co. Meath.

In Castlebar, Miss Deane, sister of Coll Deane, Esq.

At Rockdale, Charlotte, second daughter of James Lowry, Esq. county Tyrone.

At Carrickbeg, Mr. Edmond Hahessy. He bequeathed large sums to the poor, and has founded a poor-house in Carrickbeg.

At Tandragee, county Armagh, Mr. David Dobinson, father of Mr. Thomas Robinson, of Athlone.

In Privy-gardens, London, in her 85th year, the Hon. Catherine Gertrude Robinson, widow of the late Hon. Frederic Robinson, and aunt to the Earls of Malmesbury, Morley, De Grey, and Ripon.

In Wilton-crescent, London, Mrs. Pigot, wife of General Pigot.

At Marine-parade, Brighton, Ann Brummell, widow of Benjamin Brummell, Esq. late of his Majesty's Treasury.

At Fromer Lodge, Herts, Isabel Georgina, eldest daughter of Sir David and Lady Ogilby, aged 16.

At Southampton, Mrs. Hamilton, relict of Major General Digby Hamilton.

At Chichester, Penelope, relict of James Fynes Clinton, Esq. and second daughter of Sir William Earl Welby, Bart.

At Uddens House, Dorsetshire, Sir James John Fraser, Bart. in his 45th year.

At New Abbey, near Dumfries, (N.B.), Captain James Murray, R.N.

At Nantes, in his 65th year, Francis Evans, Esq. late of Robinstown, Westmeath.

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—JUNE 13.

Bank Stock	219½
Irish Three per Cent. Consols	90½
Government Stock, 3½ per Cent.	97½
Government New, 3½ per Cent.	98½
Government Debentures, 3½ per Cent.	90½
Grand Canal Loan, 4 per Cent.	60½
Ditto, do. 6 per Cent.	90½
Royal Canal Stock	88½

15 De
 THE Interest
 Tipperary,
 given. It is he
 small yearly re
 beautifully plan
 the Lawn, and Shrubs. The e
 been newly buil
 choicest fruit t
 beautiful scener viewed. It is Anglesea road,
 completed. A
 of the premises.

All Letters to
 MOORE, Rockv
 to Mr. EDWA
 If the
 to be let to a ye

WE, the M
 Limerick
 public peace, an
 hereby caution
 making Fires
 Monday, the 23
 aforesaid idle p
 gers, and frequ
 do therefore by Police Constabl
 aiding and assist
 offenders there

Limerick, Ju

THE present
 can be draw
 is, therefore,
 OPPORTUNITY
 ADVENTURE.
 DAY, 22d NE