

on Monday, there brought good prices. Illinasloe. No price the evening, when six part of Oak, 1; Mr. 3; Mr. Quinlevan's r. O'Brien's mare

Westenra's Freney and on Saturday a Clashbane, in the this week, and the flour and provision ns, the Magistrates arrangement with the y which escorts are Tuesdays, Thursdays,

Cork county gaol in s, Adams and Jones, with a brush, who fell, the above implement nes lost his life. has scarcely passed, unnatural mother by at Ballyshannon! e prevalent in Leitrim ere received into the raised the salary of £250 a-year for life,

ed on John Conner at een commuted to one jail:—Debtors, 28: prisoners, 57; untried prisoners, 19; total e, the Clonmel Magis- tigated penalty of 5s. nets.

ecution of the Revenue n two penalties of £6, £12 or six months im- asion illicit spirits in n informations against g a loaded pistol at a Galway for some weeks. nstant, for the county have given notice to have given notice of ford this day.

the Rev. Langrishe Banks, second Colonial Chaplain, to Leana, eldest daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Fyers.

At Kingston, Upper Canada, George Robert Collins, Esq. late of Drogheda, to Sarah Ann, only daughter of Henry Cassady, sen. Esq. of that town.

DEATHS.

At Upper William-street, on Friday, John Godfrey Green, Esq. James, son of Mr. Michael O'Farrell, of Shannon Park, near this City, aged 16 years.

In Francis-street, Mr. John Keane, hair-dresser.

At Richmond hill, near Rathmines, Elizabeth Cole Bagot, relict of D. Bagot, Esq. and daughter of the late Capt. Ponsonby Molesworth.

In Cork-barracks, E. Lawless, Esq. Quartermaster 4th Drag. Guards.

At Kinsale, the Lady of Lieut.-Colonel White, commanding the 96th Regiment, after a painful illness of three months, which she bore with the most exemplary patience and resignation, with every virtue that could adorn the female character.

In Castlebar, Mrs. Kelly, wife of Mr. Kelly, Inspector of National Schools.

In Dungannon, Mrs. Margaret Clement, aged 87 years, niece to the late Dr. William Clement, Vice Provost Trinity College, Dublin.

In Dublin, Mrs. O'Gorman, wife of Mr. James O'Gorman.

In Dublin, Mr. John Bryan, printer, aged 24 years.

At Williamstown Avenue, Henry, son of Christopher Eiffe, Esq.

At Cullenswood, George Hargrave, Esq.

At Rochdale House, Tyrone, Charlotte, daughter of J. Lowry, Esq.

At New Ross, aged 97, Mr. George Thornton, a member of the Society of Friends.

At school in Kilkenny, Boyle, eldest son of John S. Vandeleur, Esq.

At Nun's Island, Galway, Richard Joyes, Esq.

At Cooleigh-house, Tipperary, James Augustin Crean, Esq.

In Cashel, Mr. Michael Lonergan.

In Waterford, the Rev. Richard Delahunty, late Roman Catholic Curate of Caher.

In Tullamore, Jane, wife of Wesley Handy, Esq. of Tennessee, King's County.

Of decline, in the 16th year of his age, P. Ryan, second son of Thomas Ryan, Esq. of Cottage, in the county Tipperary.

Anne Jane, wife William G. Lades, of Boden Park, co. Dublin, Esq.

At Carysfort Avenue, aged 33 years, Eliza, relict of the late John Cooper, Lieut. of the 78th Highlanders, and at same place, her aunt, Jane, relict of the late George Walsh, Esq. formerly of Abbey-street, Dublin.

At Viewmount, county Kilkenny, Warden Flood, Esq. eldest son of John Flood, Esq.

In London, William Watson, Esq. army agent, aged 75.

In London, Anne, the beloved wife of the Rev. Gilbert King.

Caused by a carriage going over him immediately upon falling from his horse, John Cottrell Powell, Esq. eldest son of Saml. Powell, Esq. of Upper Harley-street, and Brandlesome Hall, Lancashire.

In Great Ormond-street, London, Lieut.-Colonel Charles Stonor.

In London, Miss Henrietta Poole, in her 79th year.

In his 76th year, John Richards, Esq. Secretary to the Sun Fire Office, in which establishment he had served 47 years.

Richard Wilson, Esq. at his seat in Suffolk. Mr. Wilson, better known as "Dick Wilson," was for many years an eminent solicitor in Lincoln's Inn-fields, and Secretary to Lord Eldon, whose old and intimate friend he was.

Mr. S. Griffin, of Datchet, Bucks, aged 86.

At Quarry Bank, near Manchester, Samuel Gregg, Esq. aged 77.

At Winchester, Lady Caroline Knollys, eldest sister of the late Earl of Banbury.

In Edinburgh, Mary, widow of Captain W. C. Clarke, of the 6th Regiment of Foot.

At Aberdeen, Captain Wm. Gordon, late of the Queen's Regiment, half-pay, unattached.

At Montreal, Charles Bancroft, Esq. nephew of the late Hon. Horatio Gates, Esq.

At Boston, Miss Adelaide De Camp, sister of Mr. Charles Kemble, and aunt of Miss Fanny Kemble.

At Hull, Lower Canada, Elizabeth, wife of Ralph Smith, Esq. formerly of Shinrone, King's County.

In Montreal, Mrs. Martha Whitney, wife of Mr. Thomas Whitney, of Old Ross, county Wexford, aged 65 years.

At Leixlip, the Mr. L. Woods, Chief Constable, 2d class, from over fatigue in execution of his duty.

At St. Germain-en-Laye, aged 63, the Marquis de Thuisy.

of the first Cla more than ord surate with the

ALL LOSSES

IMMEDIATELY

can with conf which has hit upon the Com

LII

A variety o accommodate desirous of par and a reduced wish to secure

Part

TWO-THIRD

the insured, wi of Management January, 1842 the Incorporat whole expense by their Capita

The profit w in the proporti to the Profit F

A reversion be added to t reduction will

The genera the Insured, held as strictly

Redu

To facilitat has been adop to the Insured

Moderate r contingencies and voyages t above the ag with gout, ast

Each Polic on the Direct to submit al while, for the Ireland, it s Corporation i the Company effected.

Prospectus tages offered Tables of the be obtained b

DAVI

June 14.