DEATHS.

At his father's house in George's-street, Frederick, youngest son of the Hon. John Massy.

In Gaol-street, Ennis, Mrs. M'Namara, relict of John M'Namara, Esq. of Arranview, county Clare, aged 83 years.

At Rathkeale, on Wednesday last, Richard Murray, Esq. late Surgeon 2d Irish Brigade, and for many years Apothecary and Inspector of Apothecaries for the City and County of Limerick. His many endearing qualities render his death a blank in a numerous and highly respectable circle. The poor, to whom his advice and medicine were gratuitously afforded, will for a long time feel the loss of a Gentleman of kindred feelings. He was principally instrumental in raising the 2d Irish Brigade in the year 1794 under Anthony Count Walsh De Surrant. His widow and family must long deplore his loss.

At Grove, Roscommon, Thomas Corr, Esq.

Mr. Joseph O'Flanagan, at his house in Mary-street, Dublin, in the 24th year of his age, son of the late Andrew O'Flanagan, Esq. of Tullamore, King's County.
