

At Youngstown, N.Y. Mr. William Small Falls, to Ann, second daughter of Mr. Dennis Fitzgerald, late Adjutant in his Majesty's 41st Regiment, all of Toronto, York, Upper Canada.

DEATHS.

On Lord's Day morning, Anna Hallowell, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hallowell, of this City. The sudden removal of this dear young person, at the early age of 15 and a few months, is an affecting, and, oh! that it may prove an awakening, illustration, of the vanity and uncertainty of human life! Painful, however, as this visitation must be to a circle of attached relatives and friends, yet they are not called to sorrow as those who have no hope. For, if dutiful conduct to Parents, a meek and Christian deportment towards all, a great regard for the Scriptures of Truth, and a lively interest in the work of communicating instruction at a Sabbath School, rendered this young follower of the Saviour lovely and pleasant in life, she was doubly so on the bed of death, her views of eternal things becoming then increasingly vivid and powerful. She longed for Heaven as a holy, happy, and everlasting rest,—and sought it where it could only be obtained, through faith in the finished and glorious salvation of the Divine Redeemer. Her remains were yesterday morning deposited in St. Munchin's Church-yard,—and her death is to be improved next Lord's Day morning by the Rev. Dr. Townley.
