

the Peace for the City Cork, £317—red on each Assize the junior at two itor will be placed d Government for a bill, will get no vereigns reward for rickmacross, on the rief account of the which appeared in fell in, part of the ion of three lofts. o learn is not con- with the unforseen a labourer in the ne ruins.
 Carlow, about 12 n a jaunting-car, on the town, and while ch she sat came into the leading one of ublic roads, lay fast he jaunting car was Mrs. Cox was a most ility to the poor was to deplore her loss. ed in the murder of d are at present in ast Sunday, in great shed if not murder, e of Mr. Brew, with lision between those of Judge Torrens, s Lordship sustained nd Master of Mun- asters and Wardens f Cork, for the 5th his claim to vote for t has been appointed his Grace the Arch- haplain, resigned, e service, the mem- egation of Dromore e of plate to their ssembled at the Rev. arliament in support
 ely engraved portrait

Miss Eleonora Byde.
 At Alverstoke, Hants, M. F. Ryan, Esq. M.D. 51st Regiment, to Sophia, only daughter of Gay Shute, Esq. of Gosport.
 At Clifton Church, Richard Woodward, Esq. of the Bengal Civil Service, eldest son of the late Rev. Richard Woodward, D.D. of Glanworth, to Julia, second daughter of James Lean, Esq. of Clifton Hill, Gloucestershire.
 At Neston, Gambier Charles Becher, Esq. second son of the late Captain Alexander Becher, R.N. to Louisa, daughter of the late William Seller, Esq. of Chester.
 At Bordeaux, Thos. Brown, Esq. to Louisa Wilhelmina, daughter of H. N. Flovy, Esq. Consul for the Netherlands.
 At Bordeaux, Edwards Brown, Esq. to Mary, eldest daughter of Edwards Southard, Esq. Sardinian Consul.
 At Kurnaul, C. Raikes, Esq. of the Civil Service, to Sophia Mary, daughter of S. M. Matthews, Esq. Paymaster his Majesty's 31st Regt.
 At Cawnpore, E. B. Bere, Esq. of his Majesty's 16th Lancers, to Elizabeth Arabella, daughter of H. Pigou, late 3d Dragoon Guards.
 At Madras, the Rev. J. T. Jones, to Anne, eldest daughter of G. P. Tyler, of the Madras Civil Service.
DEATHS.
 At Granard, Adare, in this County, in the bloom of life. aged 19 years, to the deep affliction of her sorrowing family and friends, Letitia, only daughter of William Lindsay, Esq.—charitable, amiable, and gentle in her manner, her memory will be long regretted by the poor of that neighbourhood.
 At his residence, Sylvan Lodge, Rathgar, aged 85 years, the Rev. Henry Torrens, D.D. brother to the late General Torrens, and uncle to the present Adjutant General of the Forces in India, Robt. Torrens, and cousin to the Judge, and the late Sir Henry Torrens.
 At Parsonstown, after a short illness, Lieut. Brown, 81st Regiment.
 At Donnybrook, Dublin, Edward G. Armstrong, Esq.
 On the 21st instant, at Ballintemple, Cork, Mrs. Corbett, relict of the late Phillip Corbett, Esq. of Tipperary.
 In Cork, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, daughter of Mr. Chris. Johnson.
 Mr. William Lloyd, of Coothall, Roscommon.
 In Tuam, Marcella, wife of John Egan, Esq.
 At Clonliffe, Henry Andrew, only son of Henry D'Anvers, Esq. 62d Regiment.
 In Waterford, Alicia Catherine, youngest daughter of Thomas Meagher, jun. Esq.
 At Newmarket, Sarah Letitia, daughter of the Rev. F. Aldworth.
 Suddenly, at his residence, Prussia-street, Dublin, Mr. John Murray, proprietor of the iron and metal foundry, Hammond-lane.
 Eugene, eldest son of David Condon, Esq. of Waterford.
 In French-street, Dublin, of malignant scarletina, aged 14 years, Capel, fourth son of William M'Dermott, Esq.
 In Waterford, Lydia, eldest daughter of the late Mr. John Rice, merchant of that city.
 In Maryborough, Catherine, daughter of the late Rev. S. Fletcher.
 In Portarlinton, William Hill, Esq. Attorney-at-Law.
 In Clarges-street, after ten days' illness, Lord James Fitz-Roy, youngest son of the Duke of Grafton, aged 30.
 In Upper Harley-street, London, William Tucker, Esq. late of the 65th Regiment.
 In Park-lane, London, after a short illness, the Marchioness of Headfort, daughter of the late Sir John Stevenson.
 At Bath, Susan, daughter of the late Rev. Edward Synge Townsend, of Kinsale.
 At Union-place, Gosport, Mrs. Ann Incedon, widow of the late Commander Richard Incedon, R.N.
 Mary Hester, the beloved wife of Lieut.-General Slater Rebow, of Wivenhoe Park, Essex.
 At Cheltenham, Colonel Carey, Royal Artillery.
 At Marlborough, Derbyshire, Sir Robert Wilmot, Bart.
 At Bologne, Mrs. Creagh, wife of Major G. V. Creagh, 81st Regiment, and daughter of the late Colonel Creagh, late 81st, formerly 93d Highlanders.
 At Cincinnatti, William Luke, Esq. formerly of Liverpool.
 At Trinidad, Frederick James Gordon Hammet, aged 29, second son of the Viscountess de Rosmordue, and nephew to his Excellency the late Sir Ralph Woodford, Bart. formerly Governor of that island.
 At Madras, John Mitchell, Esq. of the Hon. Company's Civil Service, aged 24.

Glass Works they pany, whom they and the friends of the perfect convic equal any in the Orders for ROBI to them at the W and Couper's Chi or Mr. R. Lerin be promptly atten
 Robert Alexand intimate that the Limerick, as carr and Co. will be c CHINA, and EAR an excellent assor up, both from the manufacturing Ho Being manufac R. A. K. & Co. a able terms, both

E N
 FIRST DAY
S WEEPSTAK added by the name on Thursda —weights to be those they may Meeting—two mi
 Clare Gold Cu
 SEC
 Sweepstakes of Ennis for hunters for a Racing Plat old, 12st—six ye Blue Post once r hunter's plate or 5lb—any horse t 3lb—to be rode Stakes of 3 sov sovs. for Horses before at eight o' by the Stewards, bers or no race.
 TH
 Sweepstakes o the Stewards fo handicapped the they may appoint Horses for this r eight o'Clock.

RATHKEALE.—CAUTION.

WE, the undersigned persons, who are entitled to the greater part of the profit rents arising from the