At Trincomalee, H. E. A. Glasgow, Esq. youngest son of the late Lieut.-General G. M. Glasgow, R.A. to Frances Christina, second daughter of T. Dawson, Esq. Ordnance Store-keeper.

DEATHS.

At Westham, Gloucestershire, the Hon. George Massy, formerly of this City, and a Burgess of its Corporation,—a Gentleman much lamented.

At Curragh, county Clare, Thomas Faircloth, Esq.

At Day-Place, Tralee, Mrs. Purdon, wife of Rowan Purdon, Esq. M.D. In Dublin, Hugh Kennedy, of Gorane, Tipperary, Esq. aged 84. In Molesworth-street, Dublin, Matthew Casey, Esq. In Synnott-place, Dublin, Mrs. O'Reilly, relict of T. O'Reilly, Esq. At Booterstown Avenue, Dublin, Catherine, youngest daughter of Captain Maurice Collis.

Of cholera, William Jameson, Esq. solicitor, of York-street, Dublin. Love Wise Hiatt, Esq. M.D. of Blackrock. In Blessington-street, Dublin, James Cooke, Esq. After a lingering illness, at Sussex Parade, Kingstown, Eliza, second daughter of Jas. Patterson, Esq. of Westmorland-st. Dublin. Captain Richard Moore, of Penzance, near Enniscorthy. Captain Moore joined the service early in life and was for a considerable time attached to the 43d Regiment, from which he joined the 28th, as Captain and Paymaster, and with which Regiment he continued until after the Battle of Waterloo, when he retired on half-pay.— Captain Moore served during the whole of the Peninsular campaign. He was most respectably connected, being a near relative of the Earls of Mountcashel and Kingston.

In Nelson-st. Tralee, Lucinda Anne, wife of Rice O'Connor, Esq. In Great Ship-street, Dublin, Mrs. Margaret Priestly. At his residence, Richmond-street, Dublin, John C. Tuthill, Esq. aged 77;—and on the following Saturday, his relict, Mary, aged 55. At Harcourt-street, Dublin, Robert Lanigan, Esq. At the house of her daughter, in Clare-street, Dublin, after a tedious illness, Mrs. Mary Affleck, aged 81 years. In Kinsale, after a short illness, Mr. Pat Collaghan, of Doneraile. At Hybla, Castleknock, Francis, fourth son of Henry Adair, Esq. of Mountjoy-squace, Dublin. Richard Delmege, second son of Captain Delmege, of Piercetown, county Meath, aged 11 years. At Newtownbarry, Mrs. Captain Jeffares. At Milltown, the Lady of Edward Allingham, Esq. At Lynn, co. Westmeath, aged 84, John Swift, Esq. late co. Clare. At his residence, Kilronan, the Rev. Charles Seymour. In Upper Mount-street, Dublin, Anna, second daughter of the late Peter Van Homrigh, Esq. In Great George's-street, Cork, Mrs. James Dwyer. In Bristol, after a short illness, much regretted by her numerous relatives and friends, Eliza, wife of William Wise, Esq. of Cork. At Sion-place, London, Mary Isabella, fourth daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Rind. In Somerset-street, London, General Sir John Doyle, Bart. G.C.B. K.C. Governor of Charlemont, Colonel of the 87th Regiment Royal Irish Fusileers. In Liverpool, Mrs. Magee, wife of Mr. Patrick Magee, of that town, and daughter of Mr. James Ferrigan, of Newry. At Maida-hill, Henry Chitty, Esq. of the Middle Temple, second son of Joseph Chitty, Esq. barrister-at-law. At Prospect-place, Finchley, Mrs. Catherine Elizabeth Molesworth, relict of the late Robert Molesworth, Esq. of Carisle. At East Barnet, Herts, Lieut.-Colonel Sir David Ogilby, of the Hon. East India Company's Service. The awful event was occasioned by the unfortuate Gentleman being precipitated from a four-wheeled chaise, which produced instant death. At Tenby, in his 70th year, Lieut.-Colonel Elliot Voyle, late of the Bengal Establishment. In her 82d year, in the Circus, Bath, Mrs. Bunbury, relict of William Bunbury, Esq. of Lisnevagh, county Carlow, one of the Representatives of that County in the Irish Parliament. At Brighton, Timothy Cooke, Esq. of the Foreign Post-office. Robinson Chippendale, Esq. banker, of Skipton, and Deputy Lieutenant of the West Riding, York. Diana, relict of Colonel Donald Macleod, of St. Kilda. At Clifton, Ann, eldest daughter of the late Samuel Roberts, Esq. of Leicester. At Littlethorpe, near Ripon, in his 31st year, James, second son of Major-General Maister. At Rye, aged 55, Hannah Lewis, relict of the late Robert Lewis, Esq. Ordnance Barrack-master. Francis Norman, second and youngest son of Major Edward Brackenbury, of Skendleby, Lincolnshire. [The death of Thomas F. Neligan, Esq. Denny-street, Tralee, copied into the "Chronicle" from a Kerry Paper, is untrue.]
