

was "Capital purposes." and to set the
 in every parti-any connexion iginally confined and since they stablishments of hich latter were ) neither directly n a "mercantile carriers, nor did ounds, or for the act, they are ex-20, from being s." I have furmpany applying for national pur-by your Corres-ital from Govern-and never had or the entire of their bed by their own ital, that by this ained, not public Capital by subscri-capital of 74,800l.
 for the promotion of the Company.
 used to give insermay otherwise be jects and manage-ware of the alterprinciples on which ducted, and which the letter of "A long as the Inland ne business of car-the public; they a right to complain as the facts are as n Company never ers, having always and this established by a public Com-nt, and prohibited
 re, on the very prinis one with which rather than to comtle the Company to they now confer in rriers.
 servant,
 , pro Secretary.

Esq. of the Circus, and grand daughter of Richard G. Long, Esq.
 of Rood Ashton, many years Representative in Parliament for Wilts.
 At Ann's, Jamaica, Lieut. Paget, R.N. commanding his Majesty's ship Magnificent, to Anna, daughter of James Lawrence Hilton, Esq.
DEATHS.
 At Bucks-hill, Isle of Man, John Ormsby, Esq. late Major Limerick City Regiment, formerly of Ballygrehan, near this City.
 At Deckwith, near Kilmallock, after a few days illness, in the 22d year of her age, Miss Eliza M'Connell. In this young Lady were centered all those endearing qualities which constitute the affectionate daughter and fond sister. Suavity of manners, kindness of disposition, and elegance of person, were most happily possessed by this young Lady; having borne her illness with Christian resignation and confiding in the mercy of her Redeemer, she breathed without a sigh her pure spirit to him who made it. Her memory and elevated virtue will ever live green in the recollection of those friends who now mourn her premature end.
 At Kingstown, Miss Harriet Burne, sister of the late Counsellor Burne, of Merrion-square, Dublin.
 In Charlemont-street, of cholera, Mrs. Jane Tinkler, relict of the late George Tinkler, of Jane Ville, county Dublin, Esq.
 At Rockview, county Westmeath, Richard Steele Fetherston, Esq.
 in the 30th year of his age, deeply lamented.
 At Tramore, at the age of 24 years, Mr. John Fogarty, second son of Richard Fogarty, Esq. of Waterford.
 At her house in Milltown, Kerry, at the age of 73 years, deeply regretted by a large circle of relations and friends, and particularly by the poor, Lady Catherine Godfrey, relict of the late Sir William Godfrey, of Kilcoleman Abbey, Bart.
 At his residence at the Little Island, Cork, Mr. Denis Cantillon.
 In Upper Baggot-street, Dublin, Mrs. Burgess.
 Charles Allen, of Ballyvackey, Esq. county Cork.
 Mary, wife of Dominick Sarsfield, Esq. of Doughcloyne, aged 63.
 In Armagh, of cholera, the Rev. Dr. Byrne, P.P. Rev. Mr. Corry, his curate, and Mrs. Quin, wife of Mr. J. Quin, attorney.
 In King-street, Kilkenny, of water on the chest, Mrs. Jane Wall, relict of the late Joseph Wall, Esq. of Ballanikill, Queen's County.
 Mrs. Gilfoyle, wife to Mr. John Gilfoyle, of Kilkenny, grocer.
 In Ballina, Mr. Pots, and his second daughter, both of a few hours' illness.
 Tuesday night, to the great regret of her family and friends, Mrs.
 Phelps, wife of James Phelps, Esq.
 In Castle-street, Mr. George O'Halloran, nailor.
 At Cappahard, county Clare, Mrs. Margaret Harley, at the advanced age of 100 years.
 Mr. William Mosley, jeweller, Quay, Waterford, formerly of Dublin.
 At the residence of her mother, Newtown Road, Waterford, Charlotte, third daughter of the late Chas. Langley, Esq. of Cole-brook, county Tipperary.
 At Tranquilla, Rathmines, the residence of her brother, William Howard Lee, Esq. Miss Susanna Lee, third daughter of the late Edward Lee, Esq. of Dublin.
 At Kingstown, Captain Hewson, of the Argo, from Liverpool, after eight hours' illness.
 George Henry, the only child of Dr. Clendining, of Wimpolestreet, London.
 At Gloucester, John de Wilton Roche, youngest son of Lieut.- Colonel Thackwell, late 15th or King's Hussars.
 At Mobberly, Lancashire, aged 62 years, Samuel Hardy, Esq.
 formerly of the 71st Light Infantry.
 At Hodnet Rectory, Salop, Edward Tayler, Cornet in the 6th Regiment of Light Cavalry, Bengal.
 Mrs. Reid, widow of the late Thomas Ranby Reid, Esq. surgeon, Chelsea.
 At Greenwich, Major James Franklin, of the 1st Regiment of Bengal Light Cavalry.
 At Sandhurst, in his 18th year, James, son of the late Major-General Hare, a Student in the Royal Military College.
 At Kildale, Yorkshire, the Rev. John Cleaver, LL.D. Vicar of Edwinstowe, Notts.
 At Lausanne, Emma, only child of Sir T. Charles Style, Bart.
 At St. Andrew's, Jamaica, Mr. Patrick James M'Laughlan.
 At Port Royal, Jamaica, Mr. John Burke, saddler.
 At Sydney, New South Wales, Mr. Arthur Hill, printer.

The Misses
 Boarders is lim
 Day Pupils

Agriculture
 AT a highly Traders, Court-house,
 advertisement.
 Captain BA
 Chair.
 It was then Pierce Carrick
 Resolved—Ennis is such a Bank, or Br Moved by J
 Cullinan, Esq
 Resolved—
 bers to the A IRELAND, be making the establishment corresponding

The Chairm
 Pierce Carr
 John Macn
 Pat. M. Cu
 John D'Ar Moved by and Resolved—
 by the meetin
 of One Shilli
 also the insta Company, to mittee until f

Moved by Resolved—
 that John M
 It was th marked than Captain Bag
 as also, for the town of

It was al
 thanks of th
 Central Cor
 also for the enquiries m lishment,