respected and regretted by thousands. In Wednesday, at the Rectory, Nenaghe residence of her son, ark, Northamp-MeRev. James Hill Poe, in the 86th year of her age, Mrs. Poe, relict last, and visited the late James Poe, of Solsborough, in the county Tipperary, Esq. that district, by in Upper Glentworth-street, John, eldest son of Mr. T. Murnane. Brien, of Nenagh, It Sir-mile-Bridge, county Clare, Mary, relict of the late James of joy and good Miller, Esq. M.D. It Kilcullen, William Gaffrey Billing, Esq. eldest son of the late nd humane and-Castain Billing, Royal Scots. y. Mr. Stifford M Jame's Town, Joseph Gray, Esq. formerly Captain of the shments for his Wesford Militia, after a short illness. on Thursday, at Shepperton, near Newmarket-on-Fergus, Mr. William Reedy. He was through life a loving husband, a tender nmercial Bank of mafectionate parent, and a benevolent and obliging landlord. Mr. Michael Cullen, of Ennis, medical student. k the emble as of M Kilrush, Henry W. Daly, Esq. M.D. in one cerner, It his father's house at Bushmount, county Kerry, in the 15th autifully engraved swofhis age, Dominick, third son of Dominick Rice, Esq. Mizabeth, daughter of William N. Holton, Esq. of Athlone. it and handsome At the factory near Killarney, Jeremiah Cronin, Esq. tive measures to Ather residence, Carysfort Avenue, Blackrock, Mary, widow of t' interesting inthe late John Carr, Esq. of Great Britain-street, Dublin. the great Manat Court Devenish, Athlone, Marianne, only daughter of Mr. William Carson, of Corkhill, Dublin. re Agricultural is Ofdecline, at Cookstown, Enniskerry, aged 27 years, John Smith, In of Upper Temple-street, Dublin, Barrister-at-Law. John Moore, Esq. 1. Scott, Esq. Newport, co. Dublin, Captain in the Dragoon Guards. In Galway, Captain Jeffers, of his Majesty's cutter Dolphin. of 74 over Henry Atherresidence, Monkstown, Miss Harriet Mulock, aged 70 years. In Hanover-street, Cork, Mr. Richard Warrell. eless riots at the At Sunday's well, Cork, of consumption, aged 20, Susan Varian. Suddenly, in Cork, Mr. Michael Sweeney, tide-waiter. erely beaten that At Tivoli, near Rome, after a short illness, produced by the vere taken against inplace of a blood-vessel, Mr. David M'O'Boy, second son of Mr. e friends of the Wo'llow of Patrick-street, Cork. At Cove, Eliza, wife of Robert Briscoe, Esq. of Fermoy. day last to Pallace, In Abbey-street, Dublin, Mr. Samuel Brooks, of Bristol. ime the opposite Baggot-street, Mrs. George, relict of the late Rev. Luke George, st, and assembled Assexford, county Louth. Atlathmines, Dublin, William Davy, Esq. of Gould-square, London. ged between both Mr. T. Kavanagh, Thomas-street, Dublin. deceased, named In Rathmines, after a long and painful illness, Mrs. Leech, relict of the late George Leech, Esq. Kilkenny. In her 60th year, Jane, the wife William Jesser Coope, Esq. of nt to the residence near Tipper ry but Hyde Park-place, and of Edmonton, Middlesex. At Hammersmith, aged 61, Sophia Charlotte, widów of Lord police came up, on Robert Fitzgerald, having survived her husband a year and a half. t a party rent to At Dorfold, Cheshire, in her 19th year, Frances, daughter of the q. but the were Key. J. Tomkinson. At Windsor-terrace, City-road, Mr. Joseph Gritton, of the Bank of Logland, in his 73d year. ast, at Holy Cross, At Edmonton, Charles Wright, Esq. of the Old Jewry, aged 79. person of the name At West Brixton, Elizabeth, relict of the late R. Strong, Esq. aged 78. At East Hill, Wandsworth, Mrs. Mary Winter, in her 81st year. there, respecting a Charles Hannau, eldest son of C. Stephenson, M.D. Esher, Surrey. e been very serious At Liverpool, Caroline, relict of the late John Leigh Philips, Esq. arles Clark, Esq. of Manchester. Mr. David Scot, late Minister of Corstorphine, and Professor of Hebrew and Oriental Languages in the University of St. Andrews. the Bench, John At Esher Cottage, Vauxhall, Mary Sophia Tucker, the Lady of Iahony, A derman lewis Small Tucker, Esq. Collector and Receiver of his Majesty's I.P. and M Gavin, Revenues in the Garrison of Gibraltar. At Bridport, Dr. Roberts, the celebrated proprietor of the Medicine Office, on Monday, called the "Poor Man's Friend." onfirmed. Patrick At York, Upper Canada, of cholera, Michael Nugent, Patrick J. T. Baylee; and Gannon, Thomas Corbett, and Patrick Butler, natives of Ireland. At Quebec, of cholera, James Prendergast, Esq. on half-pay, 99th man, was a so fined regiment. Magrath's e cape. At Kingston, Canada, Mr. J. H. Jackson, shoemaker, late of M'Carthy, (or steal-Dublin,-Mr. J. C. Collins. Rev. Mr. Firzgerald, the 91st Regiment, PRIMITIVE WESLEYAN METHODIST HOME and their agsistants, he Roman Cement, MISSIONARY SOCIETY. s house in George's-THE ANNUAL SERMON on behalf of this Society, their regre at what will be preached in the Methodist Preaching-House, it was merely acci-Medford-Row, on SUNDAY Evening next, by Mr. WILLIAM satisfied with this in their favor, who C. Rice, of Dublin. Service to commence at six o'clock. ted until the work is On MONDAY Evening the ANNUAL MEETING of the of the Knight of occety will be held in the same place, the Chair to be taken runk and neglecting half-past six o'clock. A Deputation from the Parent mitigated penalties of Society will attend, in order to detail the plans and success of efore two o'clock on the Missionaries' labours.

at Edinburgh, William Turnbull, Esq. Muirdean, son of the late parid Turnbull, Esq. of Mirzapore, East Indies, to Sarah, youngest at the Hotel of his Excellency Earl Granville in Paris, Henry de friqueti, son of the Baronne de Salis de Triqueti, to Julia Philippina, roungest daughter of the late Rev. Edward Foster, Chaplain of the Thursday morning, at his house, in Thomas-street, in very avanced age, after a short illness, John Connell, Esq. brewer, many years principal in the eminent trading concern which bore is name. Mr. Connell was a gentleman of quiet and unobtrusive highter of the late Alex. Marjoribanks, Esq. of Marjoribanks hitish Embassy at the Court of France.

ne vehicle appa-

d descended to the horse away,

ver his body.—

ment by John

ing surgery and

ssing in his gig, unity assisted in n, having found

ent symptoms of

in bleeding the r precautioa ia

ae kindest atten-

or left him with allow, that those Bulbs are imported direct from Haarl Holland. THE TRADE CAN BE SUPPLIED REASONAB LODGINGS. The entire of his house, comfortably furnished, conve in an airy situation, and suited to accomodate a large F -Wine and Coal Cellars, Coach-House with Stable for Horses, in the yard—a Pump with good Water, will b particularly recommended—the invoices will be sufficient bits, not mingling in the bustle of this world, its politics or its by the Year or Month, and a term of years wou unies, -but from his private funds dispensing most bounteously Limerick Seed Ware-House, Sept. 2 preferred. the relief of the necessitous widow and orphan, the impoverished misman and artisan, including those whose parents enjoyed TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONIC inviness and comfort, when the woollen and linen trade of Ireland burshed under better auspices. His name was for years identified IR-Your last Paper contained an Advertisement ca with the local interests of Limerick, and he descends into his grave Diating the proceedings of the Committee of RATIKEALE AND COUNTY OF LIMERICK CENTRAL FI HOSPITAL AND INFIRMARY, signed Gerald Fitz-Ge M.B. and Surgeon. From the manifest absurdity o production, the Gentlemen whose actions it libels tr with too much contempt to notice it on their own acco but lest a public Charity should suffer, which ought supported without reference to private considerations, l

> Mr. Fitzgerald was elected one of the Medical attendar the Rathkeale Fever Hospital and Dispensary; and a annual election for the present year, the Governors of Institutions thought fit to dispense with his services, an candidate being preferred. Hence the gentleman obtrudes himself on the public, and reviles all respectable and benevolent individuals, who, actuate conscientious motives, did not support his pretensio Hence he endeavours to deter the affluent from contrib to the support of one of the most useful and best cond institutions of the kind in Ireland. Now, Sir, in answer to his unfounded insinuations, state, that in the last eight months one hundred and fou intern patients have been admitted into the Rath

> Hospital. In the corresponding period of last year admissions were sixty-five. Of the above one hundred fourteen patients, sixty-one were from this town and r bourhood, and fifty-three from the central districts be permitted to occupy a portion of your space with

The short history of the matter is this :- In the year observations.

county. There are at this moment patients in the Ho from Ballingarry and Askeaton. Extern patients, in siderable numbers, attend and obtain advice and me (from a particular fund) every second day. The Com have been able, this season, to expend a considerable s improvements and in advancing the plan of the hospital to completion. The establishment is not in debt. Thes not the signs of a "tottering Institution." But, e our Charity were to fall into as much decay as Mr. gerald wishes, who should be the sufferers? The poor.

they to be abandoned to gratify his enmity and soot disappointment? I cannot conceive how the gentleman could have foolish hardihood, in the face of the advertisement wantonly vilifies, to utter the gross statement that resident gentry have totally withdrawn their subscripti an advertisement containing the names of four residen tlemen, as Chairman, Secretary, and Treasurers, wh at least should respect. How totally destitute of ve must his assertion appear, when the fact is, that, those contributors who reside elsewhere, eight re Magistrates, six resident Clergymen, four of the Estal Church and two Roman Catholic, twenty-three reside vate gentlemen of independant fortune, and sixteen re able individuals engaged in mercantile or agricultural tions, are this year, and have been since its origin scribers to the Institution. There is no contradictin I appeal to the presentment list lodged in the Treasurer's office. in which may be found the nar Blennerhasset, Bateman, Waller, Hewson; Massy, St. Maunsell, Hunt, Coply, Royse, Smith, Brown, Finc and three cousins, two also non-resident, of Mr, Fitz

But what does that prove? That those gentleme scribed, not through charitable motives, but to re public Institution subservient to their private interest.

not content with traducing the mos

&c. &c. Are not these the gentry of the country? not in the above enumerated five or six gentlemen scriberst his year, who, not being able to carry his el returned their tickets; two of them brothers, non-re

September 27.