Thomas Hartigan, returning from a funeral on Sunday, towards his abode near Ballyneety, was attacked by some drunken fellows outside a public house on the road side, and died in an hour after of the injuries he received. Three of the aggressors were in custody after the Coroner's inquest.

A poor woman was found in a dying state on the road side of Ballysimon on Saturday night by the Police, who promptly brought her to the City Infirmary, where, however, she died at an early hour on Sunday morning. Her name was supposed to be Peggy Prendergast. The Mayor held an inquest upon the body next day—Verdict, Died by the Visitation of God. There was no sign of injury on her person.

Monday evening Thomas Rubie, a very fine boy, son of Captain Rubie of the Waterlily schooner, at Russell's-quay, fell overboard out of a small boat near that vessell, and was drowned. The body was raised a few minutes after the accident had occurred, but all efforts failed to restore animation.

We are gratified to learn that Colonel the Hon. Standish O'Grady, M.P. for this County, who was much indisposed at his residence, Caherguillamore, is considerably better this morning.

Lord Adare has returned to Adare House, in this County, from Darrinane, Kery, in company with Daniel O'Connell, jun. Esq.

The following were on Monday elected additional Commissioners under the Wellesley Bridge Amendment Act:—Jos. Harvey, Richard Russell, William Randall, John Russell, Joseph Matterson, Charles O'Hara, Thomas Worrall, John M'Donnell, John Mullock, Robt. Gunson, Horatio Seymour, C. O'Brien. Michael Quin, Wm. H. Hall, John Edwards.— Only 68 electors voted.

The Lords Commissioners for managing the office of Lord High Admiral, on Thursday afternoon took contracts for the supply of the navy with beef and pork for the ensuing year. The quantity required by the Commissioners was 8,500 navy tierces of pork, and 6,500 navy tierces of beef. A great deal of competition existed to obtain the contract, and many offers were sent into the Board on behalf of the influential persons in the trade. The Commissioners, having considered all the offers, declared that they had accepted the terms of Messrs. Bell. Brothers, of London, Messrs. M'Donnell and Co. of Limerick, and other parties, the contractors, at an average price for beef and pork, not exceed-
