

na, Waterford, Savage's has also when his mother held his annual merry, on the 9th very large attendance queries of their several parishes, con, and others were much too Palliser, Joseph Lockwells, Esqrs. tenants. Lord payment of the s. Commissioner of the ng and Malachy ers of Counties. l, arrived here riment, and pro- rt is in port to names are, Anne anon, Margaret an. ty Down is fixed e 30th inst. tor of Carrigro- relief under the 0 reward for the person of Mary a few nights past. , was on Monday £5 for deserting another in which of the City of n for answer to n, that "he has ssioners." tion, have been e of Surgeons of ndance upon the sophy Classes in d them, to appear ge, ses in the town of r which appeared ave been answered ant of the writer it would tend to productions on allowed to drop chors.

At Edinburgh, John N. O'Halloran, Esq. Bengal Army, son of Brigadier-General O'Halloran, C. B. to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Major-General James Pringle, Hon. East Company's Service.
 At Philadelphia, Mr. Arthur F. Keene, of Dublin, to Elizabeth Lewis, daughter of Mr. Aaron Clement.
DEATHS.
 At Dromore House, county Cork, Mrs. Newman, wife of Adam Newman, Esq.
 At the Pigeon-House Fort, Dublin, Mary, relict of the late Lieut.-General Charles Reynolds.
 At his residence Henry-street, after a short illness, T. Lawless, Esq.
 At Dawson Park, county Dublin, aged 70 years, Helen, wife of John More, Esq. late of Glasgow.
 In Fermoy, Mr. J. Bible.
 In Galway, Mrs. Kirwan, wife of Antonia Kirwan, Esq. of that county, and daughter of the late Thomas Kirwan, of Dublin, Esq.
 In Tuam, John Bodkin, Esq. aged 70 years.
 Barbara, relict of the late Roger North, of Kilduff, in the King's County, Esq.
 In Upper Catherine-street, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with Christian patience, Mr. Richard Rourke, son of Mr. John Rourke, many years a respectable citizen of Dublin, and grandson of Richard Rourke, Esq. of Moortown, county Kildare.
 In the 83d year of his age, Mr. Creighton, a respectable inhabitant of Strabane.
 James, son of the late Mr. William Rutherford, of Strabane, tanner.
 Mr. Charles Dunn, of Springhill, near Strabane.
 At Dalton Cottage, near Taghmon, Joseph Arthur, son of the Rev. Edward Bayly.
 Mary Martha Anna, wife of Thos. Phillips, of Drumbraine-House, co. Monaghan, Esq. and daughter of the late Sir Samuel Whitcombe.
 At Tullybriland, the residence of his uncle, Thomas Major, Esq. William Gregory, Esq. aged 23 years, only son of the late Doctor Gregory, of Coleraine.
 In Cashel, Mrs. Dollard, widow of the late Mr. John Dollard, Postmaster of Clonmel.
 At Nicholastown, county Kilkenny, Miss Ronayne, sister of the late William Ronayne, Esq. Ballindud, county Waterford.
 Mr. Peter Laney, of Drogheda, corn-merchant.
 At Upleatham, of apoplexy, Rear-Admiral the Hon. George Heneage Dundas, aged 57, one of the Lords of the Admiralty. He was brother to the present Lord Dundas.
 In Hans-place, Sloane-street, the Rev. Wm. Augustus Cane.
 At Osnabruck, near Cornwall, Canada, of cholera, Mr. Francis Maxwell, only brother of Thomas H. Maxwell, Esq. a native of Fermanagh.
 After a lingering illness, at the house of her father, Mary Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Edward Bouverie, Esq. of Delapre Abbey, in the county of Northampton, England, and sister to Captain Bouverie, of Castledawson, county Derry.
 At the Queen's Head Inn, Newcastle, on her return from Cheltenham to Coldstream, aged 62, Lady Marjoribanks, relict of Sir John Marjoribanks, Bart. of Lees, and mother of Sir Wm. Marjoribanks, Bart. who died at Cheltenham only a week before, aged 42.
 At Tunbridge Wells, deeply and sincerely regretted, Mrs. Lascelles Iremonger,—mother to Lady Chatterton, Lady of Sir William Chatterton, of Castle Mahon, Bart.
 At Brighton, the Rev. James Stanier Clarke, LL.D. Canon of Windsor, and Deputy Clerk of the Closet to the King.
 At Bath, aged 89, Sir Joseph Dacre Appleby Gilpin, M.D. Inspector General of Hospitals.
 At Glasgow, aged 89 years, James Rodger, Esq. merchant, and Andrew Buchanan, Esq. merchant.
 At Camisky, Inverness-shire, Captain William Cameron, late of the 79th Regiment, aged 55 years.
 At Kingston, Canada, suddenly, aged 73, Mr. Henry Cassidy, father of Henry Cassidy, jun. Esq. Barrister-at-Law.
 At Sydney, New South Wales, the Rev. George Erskine, superintendent of the Wesleyan Missions in those Colonies.
 At Toronto, Upper Canada, of cholera, a few hours after his wife, Robert W. Prentice, Esq. brother of Henry S. Prentice, Esq. Agent to the Earl of Caledon, Ireland.
 At Toronto, of cholera, Mr. Sydney Smith, apothecary.

Persons insured entitled to a Department.
ANNUITIES Company.
 In case always ready
 No.
 October 15.
 12
RICHMOND H
THESE premises house, a thorough repair garden, and pl desirable residence be accommodated 30 acres) conveyed is modern, may Application WILLINGTON, Timber
 13
MARTIN Gentleman above line, he of those duties. tleman, if nece inconvenience are most essent worthy of notice from the Gentlemands directed street, Limerick TERMS MO
 14
LATELY who subscribe believe it to ha being Feminine are Just ; but clusions are u must have spru judging of the would favour n
 Castle-Park

Auction of Sugars

15