

11, Dublin, com-
 penty Guineas to come a Governor
 nnell towards a
 hurch at Kilkee,
 ations, that sau-
 y making up a ounting to one-
 the completion
 will grant the
 scriptions is as
 d Massy, £5;
 ger Lady Chat-
 t, £2; Doctor
 W. Pennefather,
 £1; J. Fisher,
 Miss Jane Gab-
 r donations will
 k, and gratefully
 from Edmond J.
 ire, £10 towards
 cknowledges the
 for the Poor of
 sq. £1; J. B.
 atson, and Wm.
 Dee, 2 months'
 ladigan, Michael
 nnell, 2 months'
 nment; Thomas James Shea and
 nent. These 12
 Petty Sessions,
 or, John Liston,
 athew Fleming,
 ty of Limerick,
 ledges £8 10s.
 ollected by Rev.
 eceased Minister
 ame benevolent
 y T. H. Justice,

This letter will not only have the effect I hope of the monopoly of the millers, but I trust it will instruct those who may be inclined to embark into the milling trade, how they can and ought to get on in that department.
 I remain, Mr. Editor, your obedient, humble servant,
 P. C. LYONS,
 An old Miller and Baker.

Limerick, October 18.

* I have allowed at the rate of £4 10s. a-week for rent of mill and store; four guineas a-week for clerks and miller;
 £4 10s. a-week for 15 labourers; 10s. a-week for support of two horses, and £1 a-week, casualties—Total, £18 per week. It averages exactly 3s. per barrel.

DEATHS.

- At Kinsale, suddenly, John Hopkins, Esq.
- At Bawn James, county Kilkenny, of apoplexy, John Magrath, Esq.
late of the Royal Dublin City Regiment.
- In Bandon, Mr. Timothy Callanan.
- Mr. J. A. O'Leary, son of the late Jeremiah O'Leary, of Cork, Esq.
- In Tralee, Margaret, daughter of Mr. Henry Rattle.
- In Hardwick-street, Mary, relict of the late William Heron, Esq.
aged 65 years,—and on the following day, after a lingering illness.
- Julia Louisa, wife of John Stokes, Esq. of Harcourt-street, and daughter of the late William Heron, Esq. of Hardwicke-street.
- At Lucan, Peter Nesbitt, Esq.
- At Round Town, Mr. Rooke, aged 64 years.
- At his house in Granard, James Baker, Esq. J.P.
- In Dorset-street, Dublin, after a few hours illness, J. Grogan, Esq.
- In Exchange-street, Dublin, in the 81st year of his age, Mr.
Bernard Courtney.
- In Tullamore, Margaret, relict of the late George Peine, Esq. and mother of G. Peine, Esq. M.D. of that town.
- Mrs. Sullivan, Mother Abbess of the Presentation Convent, Clonmel.
- At Outragh Glebe, county Tipperary, after a long illness, Elizabeth, wife of the Rev. Wm. Hughes, Rector of Outragh and Mordantown, in the Diocese of Lismore.
- At the house of his father, Charleville, county Westmeath, William Meares Kelly, Esq. of Glencara.
- At New Ross, aged 81, Elizabeth Elmes Kough, relict of the late Thomas Kough, Esq.
- At his residence in the Strand, John Stanton, Esq. Member of the Royal College of Surgeons in London.
- At Dover, aged 82 years, Samuel Latham, Esq. Lieutenant Governor of Dover Castle.
- At Wickwar Castle, Gloucester, aged 24, Clotworthy Latham,
second son of the Dowager Countess Massarane.
- Lady Lynch Blossie, at Cardiff. She was the second wife of the late Sir Robert Lynch Blossie.
- At Appledore, Sir Charles Chalmers, Bart. Commander R.N. aged 54.
- Captain Wilcock, R.N. on his way from Bushire to Mincat.
- At Bombay, James Seton, Esq. of the Civil Service, and son of the late Sir Alexander Seton, Bart. of Abercorn, N.B.
- At Quebec, of cholera, Corporal M'Cartney, 32d Regiment.
- At the city of York, of cholera, the Right Hon. William Dunning Powell, formerly Chief Justice of Upper Canada.
- At Mons, in Belgium, Miss Isabella E. Tomb, of Temple-street, Dublin.

No medicine is better calculated to speedily remove

ESSE

It allays irritations, cleanses the bowels, and removes feverish symptoms from the sensitive organs. If persevered in, it cures the Gout, Piles, Heartburn, obstructions of the stomach, and Gravel, &c.

In *** Be careful of the "Aperient, and the 'Hull,' is engraving it cannot be gotten Wholesale agent tailed by

MES

THE LI 132,

The N

Composed of the most efficacious other Aromatic Complaints, Ag of a tonic is in

CONCEI Deco

Sarsaparilla is purifier of the spring and fall necessary. In the Guaiacum, an Pharmacopoeia.