

to prove that it loading the flues too
 coats at Cork bar-King and Queen's
 suing year.
 re by the sea, near suit of the King.
 rd, of Cork, have re called a meeting
 month, Inns-quay,
 on, entitled "An landed securities
 with great danger
 e have arrived at state of the Poor,
 tant Barrister for Sessions, in that
 l, and who retires
 for black cattle,
 lot of 25 bullocks
 fair under twenty.
 exhibited at that land has seriously vening, since our
 the Member for each evening was ced that he would vening, when the
 ous that he would
 e edifice named,
 t was announced
 er place would be e Political Union
 ture, a Reporter
 ned that William at he had quitted
 ervant, Marshall,
 writes:—"I hope man of you will ur gardens or be e bring a potato
 or a fat sucking
 at person directly.
 ot without which
 its present state,
 ourer's house—if you shall go elsen the service (in d friend, William

Mr. Denis Buckley, to Miss Maria Good, both of Richard Harkin, Esq. of the Royal Engineer Department, to Isabella Matilda, daughter of P. Byrne, Esq. Architect, Mabbot-street, Dublin.
 Lord George A. Hill to Miss Knight.
 At St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, John Frederick, son of Frederick Bowman, Esq. to Caroline, daughter of the late John Green, Esq.
 At St. Sidwell's church, Exeter, George Wilson Grove, Esq. eldest son of Captain Henry Leslie Grove, R.N. Collector of Customs at Exeter, to Maria, eldest daughter of John Williams Dunsterville, Esq.
 of Lockyer-street, Plymouth.
 At Philadelphia, Mr. Arthur F. Keene, of Dublin, to Elizabeth Lewes, daughter of Mr. Aaron Clement.

DEATHS.

At Frogmore Lodge, on Thursday, Major John M'Namara, late of Moyriesk, county Clare.
 George, youngest son of Carr Osborne Boyse, Esq. of Graigue-House, county Wexford.
 At Charleville, Richard Russell Maume, Esq.
 Suddenly, on his arrival at Bristol from Limerick, with live stock, Richard Williams, Esq. of Rose Hill, near Kanturk, aged 45.
 At Ballinacally, co. Clare, Margaret, relict of Mr. John E. Doherty.
 At Rathkeale, in the prime of life, James Ferguson, Esq. M.D. late Assistant Surgeon of the 5th Regiment.
 At Dingle, Mary, eldest daughter of Lieut. Matson, R.N. Chief Officer of the Coast Guard Service.
 At the house of her brother, Wm. Hall, Esq. in Upper Gloucester-street, Dublin, Miss Mary Hall, after a long and severe illness.
 At Rathmines Castle, Margaret, relict of the late Hugh MacMahon, Esq. of Dartry, county Dublin.
 At Rathmines, of Asiatic cholera, Dawson Church, Esq. Filazer to the Court of King's Bench, a situation filled by him and previously by his father for above a century, with credit to themselves and satisfaction to the public.
 On Summer-hill, Dublin, Miss Elizabeth Carroll, formerly of Ardagh, county Galway.
 Suddenly, Mrs. Fairtlough, wife of John Fairtlough, Esq. late Sheriff of Drogheda.
 Mary Ann, wife of George Houston, of Heartfort, in the county Down, Esq. and daughter of the Rev. J. Ferguson, of Drogheda.
 Mary Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Edward Bouverie, Esq. of Delapre Abbey, Northampton, and sister to Captain Bouverie, of Castledawson, county Derry.
 At the Mall, Tralee, Mary, daughter of Mr. D. O'Sullivan, grocer.
 In Carlow, at an advanced age, John Coffey, Esq.
 Of consumption, on Sunday last, at Brook House (the residence of her father), in Gloucestershire, aged 29 years, Laura Anna Matilda, the beloved wife of Robert Ker D'Esterre, Esq. of this City, and only surviving child of Leonard Vassall, Esq.
 At Churchfield, near Shanagolden, Anne, wife of Mr. John Dempsey.
 In Waterford, William White, Esq. a highly respectable member of the Society of Friends.
 At Heavitree, Adam Chadwick, Esq. formerly of Manchester.
 In Sloane-street, aged 29, Amelia, wife of Edmund Bowden, Esq.
 At Hull, aged 57, the Rev. John Scott, nearly 18 years Incumbent of St. Mary's, Hull.
 Mr. Kent, of the Royal Sandrock Hotel, Undercliff, Isle of Wight.
 At Stromness, John Rae, Esq. Agent for the Hudson's Bay Company.
 In Ipswich, the Rev. Edward Davies, aged 79, Minister of the Bethesda Chapel.
 Louisa, eldest daughter of the Rev. W. Thorpe, of Stechworth, Cambridgeshire.
 At Coteau du Lac, Canada, Mary Ann Craig, an emigrant from Cavan, Ireland.
 At Toronto, Upper Canada, of cholera, Mr. Patrick Gannon, a native of Galway, Ireland;—M. Walton, Esq. Chamberlain of Toronto;—Mr. William Deighan, printer, a native of Downpatrick.
 At Halifax, Nova Scotia, Elizabeth, daughter of Dr. Hume.
 At the river St. Clair, Canada, the Rev. King Barton, formerly of the Irish Conference.
 At Halifax, Nova Scotia, Mr. Michael Donovan,—and Mr. John Kerwick.

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—OCT. 24.

Bank Stock	225 1/2
Irish Three per Cent. Consols	90 1/4
Government Stock, 3 1/2 per Cent.	98 1/2
Government New, 3 1/2 per Cent.	98 1/2
Government Debentures, 3 1/2 per Cent.	91
	92 1/2

WILLIAMS
 Proposed by Esq.
 Resolved—T
 the exertions o
 period of five a and also of the manifested dur
 his Countryme him entitled to further conscio
 the emolument ourselves as Iri operation with collection of t
 senator.
 Proposed by Connolly, Esq.
 Resolved—T
 object, the foll lectors of the A arrangement.
 ST. MICHAEL
 C. M'Mahon,
 James Cussen,
 Henry O'Sull
 C. M'Mahon,
 Patrick Halpin.
 DOMINICAN
 nell, John Fitzg
 mond Harte, H
 Surgeon Kane,
 AUGUSTINIAN
 Holohan, John
 Tobias Potter, I
 Robert Fitzgera
 M'Mahon, John
 FRANCISCAN
 Hogan, Patrick
 J. Dallas, John
 Philip M'Ardell,
 Proposed by F
 John F. Raleigh,
 Resolved—Th
 requested to act
 this (St. Michael
 Mr. Roche be Devitt, Esq. call Proposed by Dallas, Esq.
 Resolved—Th
 William Roche,
 Chair, and also f
 forward on this o
 the object of our October 25