

... particularly distin-emium in his tlebar County
 t 12, and Dr.
 blew a furious
 at the quays
 e houses were in Grand Jury
 n the 3d Oct.
 ing and pub-
 and counterfeit bert Johnston,
 o, with intent
 at of Ireland, affecting the nditional order
 Cunningham, Magistrate of
 , K.C. moved
 blaintiff, to set
 in this cause ;
 other Counsel,
 rder that said
 shewn to the rfully acknow-
 he above, £3, ur advertising
 rite Comedian, r distinguished n of time been edly gained the ain that he will
 Puppy Stakes
 T. G. French's
 Friday ; Mr. T.
 W. B. Victoria ;
 Leahy's B. B.
 T. G. French's
 beat Brocarde,
 e stakes. Dart
 French's Dart

Wensley Bond, Esq. to Sarah, youngest daughter of John Hodson, of Twyford, county Meath, Esq.
 At Shanagolden. Mr. John Hennessy, late of this City, pawnbroker, to Margaret, only daughter of Mr. J. Ginnane, of that town.
 James Burke, jun. Esq. of Grafton-street, Dublin, to Ellen, youngest daughter of Cornelius Callaghan, Esq. of Clare-street.
 At Marylebone Church, by the Rev. Mr. Burgess, Sydney Cosby, Esq. of Stradbally Hall, Queen's County, to Emily, eldest daughter of Robert Ashworth, Esq.
 Thornton Leigh, eldest son of Leigh Hunt, Esq. to Catherine, daughter of the late J. Gliddon, Esq. formerly of Highgate, London
 In Stoke Newington. Herbert Mayo, Esq. of Mincing-lane, London, to Mary Anne Grace, daughter of the late Thomas Quin, Esq. of Hull.
 S. Brabazon Madden, Esq. to Adelaide Antoinette, youngest daughter of Edward Montmorency, Esq. R.N. of Deptford Dockyard.

DEATHS.

At her father's house, Abbeyville, Ennis. Miss Mary Crowe, eldest daughter of Thomas Crowe, Esq. She bore a tedious illness with the resignation of a Christian, and in the full assurance of an interest in a Saviour's blood.
 At Sir Harry's Mall. Martha, wife of Mr. Henry Blackwell.
 In Stephen's-green, Dublin, Margaret, relict of the late Thomas Edmund Byrne, Esq. M.D. Carlow.
 In Great Longford street, Dublin, Mr. John Hatrick.
 At the advanced age of 73, Benjamin Bunn, Esq. many years Paymaster of his Majesty's 39th Regiment.
 At Derry, aged 65 years, Miss M'Donagh, sister of Peter M'Donagh, Esq. solicitor.
 Suddenly, of apoplexy, in the 67th year of his age, at Killynon, county Westmeath, Richard Reynell, Esq.
 The wife of Captain Thomas King, of Wexford.
 In Gaol-street, Ennis, Mr. Stephen Rice.
 At Sunday's-Well, Cork, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. William Dowden.
 At Knocksteige, county Kildare, Arthur Garry, Esq. M.D.
 After a very few days' illness, Mr. Denis E. Higgins, of George's-street, woollen-draper and mercer,—a young gentleman of great private worth, whose death is most deservedly and generally regretted by all classes of his fellow-citizens.
 In Johnson-street, Clonmel, Eliza, second daughter of Surgeon D. Phelan, in the 16th year of her age.
 In Morton-street, Clonmel, Mr. James Kelter, a respectable architect.
 In Dublin, aged 24 years, Joseph Howard, Esq. M.D. late of Ballibay, son of the Rev. Mr. Howard, formerly Presbyterian Minister of Ahoghil.
 In Lower Gloster-street, Dublin, Mrs. Read.
 At Duleek, county Meath, Edward Fogarty, Esq. M.D.
 At Exmouth House, Hastings, in his 69th year, Vincent Francis Rivaz, Esq. for many years partner of the late John Julius Angerstein, Esq. of Lloyd's Coffee-house.
 Suddenly, at Major Farrand's, The Grange, near Bingley, York, Thomas Athorpe, Esq. of The Hatch, near Windsor, Berks, late a Lieutenant-Colonel of the Royal Horse Guards (Blue), aged 65.
 At Appleshaw, Lieut.-Colonel Geo. Duke, in his 79th year.
 At Whitehaven, John Littledale, Esq. Collector of Customs, gentleman, of Clapton, Middlesex, aged 91.
 At Wellingborough, Mrs. Sargeant, widow of Joseph Sargeant, gentleman, of Clapton, Middlesex, aged 91.
 At Plymouth, Mr. Thomas Besley, sen. printer.
 At Quebec, John M'Loughlen, Esq. late Ensign 4th Royal Veteran Battalion, and many years in the Military Secretary Office at Quebec. Travelling from Albany to Cleveland, United States, America, William Fox, Esq. late of Fox Mount, Waterford.
 On passage home from the Ionian Islands, Hubert Hutchinson, Esq. eldest son of Mrs. Hutchinson, of Ballina, and Lieutenant in the 66th regiment of foot.
 At Brussels, Magnus Morton Herbers, Esq. of the Island of Nevis.
 At Par, South of France, of consumption, Marianne, wife of Lee McKinstry, Esq. of Armagh.

Cure, and this is demand for it in a where ; and its substance it has failed without any of the ment, with the n it is not a Blister heal without blem have found the a stables of the mo IT CURES BR LENDERS SIT speedily, without curl or change of injury. It also marks of the act Ring-bone, Spavi treatment for the the " Application of the injury or d In all cases it be recent, nothing blemish, it must is under and dur excited. In Bott

FO

Foot Rot, is such—astringent disease which can possessing at th antiseptic qualiti nent degree in th

This disease also been as badly an Cattle: charms o for their antiquity

Be careful to OLD

MESS

THE LIM
 132,
WHOLE
 Wholesale Age
BARCLAY and S
R. RAIMES, Edi