

er)—“How can vernment, when of Wellington.”
in I should not this affair; but apology I wrote for I deny the unless it was the

on or apology.

ose who accosted asking me (as I d these words or y unpleasant, but

rs,
COCKBURN.

t the conduct of
e, County Kerry,
been most praise-st disposition to ious wish to save on shore. The Hickey, have been hemselves at all in their power,
ny remuneration
rested conduct is ne preservation of s likely to be all ate of the City of Ballybunnion, a
The quantity of
y 44 quarter bales
t on board surrepin custody. The atter, and has not he is at the wreck, essrs. Dexter and h their men, have nce in their power.
e amount of fines
etty Sessions, and County Limerick
the 4th, chap. 44.
for the use of the
'Grady, Esq. the
ll Petty Sessions.
Treasurer.

ankfully acknow-
the above, the fol-
sq. £2—Collected

George W. Bennett,
the property of Bolton Waller,

At Purniah, Thomas Chapman, M.D. of the East India Company
Civil Service, and late of New Ross, county Wexford, to M. A.
Palmer, daughter of Charles Palmer, Esq. of Purniah.
At Malpas, the Rev. J. Macaulay, Vicar of Loppington, Shropshire, to Miss Large, of Malpas.

DEATHS.

After a few days' illness, at Killeneure House, county Westmeath, in his 52d year, Major-General J. P. Murray, C.B. only son of the late Hon. General Jas. Murray, formerly Governor of Quebec and Minorca, and father-in-law of Lieutenant-Colonel R. O'Donnell, of this City, late 15th Hussars.
At Sholapore, on the Bombay station, on the 6th of July last, Catherine, wife of Mr. James P. Buchanan, Hon. Company's Service, and eldest daughter of Mr. Joseph Parker, of this City.
In Grafton-street, Dublin, in his 51st year, after a painful and protracted illness, Richard Milliken, Esq.
In Baggot-street, Dublin, Rebecca, daughter of Philips Cosby
Lovett, Esq. formerly of this City,—a sweet interesting young Lady.
In Mountjoy-square, Dublin, aged 70 years, Jane Eleanor Bell, relict of the late Henry Gonne Bell, Esq.
At Killeshandra, where he was on professional duty, John G.
Dalton, Esq. of Cavan, surgeon.
Dorothea Gason, wife of Samuel Gason, of Donoughmore, county
Tyrone, Esq.
At Rivermount, Finglass-bridge, Mrs. Agnes Rooney.
At Ferryquay-street, Londonderry, aged 46, Mr. John Dennison.
At Samur, on the Loire, France, Oliver Latham, Esq. late of Fethard, county Tipperary, and brother to Doctor Latham, Antrim.
In Killarney, Mrs. Mary Warlock.
Mary, relict of the late William Orr, of Innoshannon.
At the Deanery-house, Cork, the Lady of the Very Rev. Dean Burrows, universally regretted.
In Galway, Dr. Whistler.
In Kinsale, William Lander, Esq.
At Petersfield, near Cork, Mrs. Maziere, aged 77 years.
In Harcourt-street, Dublin, Miss Eleanor Wilkinson.
In Brunswick-street, Dublin, Mary, widow of the late Rev.
Joseph Fitzpatrick, aged 76.
Mary, daughter of George Newton, Danaghville, co. Wicklow, Esq.
Mary Ann, relict of the late Mr. William Casey, of the Old Market-Place, Cork, aged 86 years.
In South-street, Park-lane, the Right Hon. Eliz. Lady Kilmaine.
In Baker street, Portman-square, Fanny, wife of S.T. Partridge, M.D. and daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Moore, of Park-hill, Wood-chester, Gloucestershire.
* Sarah Bloomfield, wife of Richard Pope, Esq. of Camberwellterrace North.
At Beckenham, Kent, Major-General the Hon. Granville Anson Chetwynd Stapylton, in his 77th year.
At Bath, Mrs. Margaret Taylor, aged 62, widow of the late Ray Taylor, Esq. of Cannonbury, Islington, Captain in the Hon. East India Company's Service.
At Ardeley Bury, Herts, John Murray, Esq. Commissary-General to the Forces, and late chief of that department of the army serving with the Duke of Wellington in Spain and Portugal.
At Twickenham, Eliza, wife of Dr. Probyn, M.D.
At Everton, near Liverpool, in the 77th year of her age, Martha, widow of the late John March, Esq. formerly of Lisbon.
At Southend, Kent, John Forster, Esq. in his 83d year.
At Ipswich, Eliza Herbert, wife of Vice-Admiral Page, and only child of Governor John Herbert, of the East India Company's Service.
At Ipswich, Priscilla Maria, youngest daughter of the late Joshua Head, Esq.
At Humeerpore, East Indies, Richard Milbanke Tilghman, Esq.
Commissioner of Revenue and Circuit, and Agent to the Governor-General in Bundelcund.
The Countess Maria Theresa Macnamara. Canoness of the Royal Chapter of St. Anne of Bavaria, daughter of James Macnamara, Esq. and niece of General Harold, late in the Bavarian service.
At Trinidad, Capt. Lewis Jas. Hay, youngest son of the late Lewis
Hay, Esq. of Edinburgh, and chief magistrate of the Port of Spain.

The share allow Bonus to the S future annual P

FI
Persons insu entitled to a Department.

ANNUITIE
Company.

 In ca always ready

No

December 10

COU
WE, the Meeting
County Court-
inst. at Twelv
certain circum
which we feel alone almost s infinitely less Dunraven,
Clarina,
O'Grady, D
G. E. Mass
John Walle
D. O'Grady
James D. L
Henry Lyon
C. P. Coot
R. H. Iever

MR. M.
MI Theoph
the announce where after th education of Boarders.

Affording t
of a General particular at Entrance, as assistance.

The high c
for eleven yea collectively a that town, in will, perhaps system will