

DEATHS.

At Timoline, in this County, Oliver Marshall, Esq. aged 70 years, —a truly upright and honourable man.

At Prospect-Row, Stephen Cole Bowen, Esq. son of the late Henry Cole Bowen, Esq. of Bowen's-court, county Cork, originally of the Royal Irish Artillery, and late of the Royal Veteran Battalion.— This lamented Gentleman served with credit in America and the Peninsular war, and held commissions successively in the 39th and 90th Regiments.

At his house in Fitzwilliam-square, of fever, John Crosbie Graves, Esq. barrister-at-law, and Magistrate of the Head Office of Police, Dublin.

In Anne-street, Dublin, Capt. Holebrooke, late of the 1st Royals. At her residence Charlemont-street, Dublin, Mrs. Mary Sprole, aged fifty-two years.

William Cooper, youngest son of Andrew Crawford, of Leeson-street, Dublin, Esq.

At Merrion-avenue, Dublin, Ellen, wife of Thomas Crawford Butler, Esq. Roseville, Carlow.

Eliza, daughter of Mr. Joseph Irwin, of Dublin.

At Rathmines, Mr. Æneas Clarke, aged 21 years.

At Rusk, county Meath, Richard Wilson, Esq. in his 81st year.

Of apoplexy, at his residence, Silverfield, county Roscommon, Henry Clifford, Esq. aged 60 years.

At Cushindall, Daniel M'Gillicuddy, Esq. of the Royal Navy. chief officer of the coast guard of that station—one of the family of M'Gillicuddy of the Reeks, Kerry.

Sophia Olivia, wife of Mr. John Green, Postmaster of Wexford.

At Pope's-Quay, Cork, Mrs. Anne Casey, relict of the late Mr. Thomas Casey, of Mallow-lane.

Mr. T. Murray, of the North Main-street, Cork.

On the 13th instant, at the Glanmire-road, Cork, Major Francis Creagh, late of the 83d Regiment, son of Francis Creagh, Esq. formerly a respectable merchant of this City.

William Biggs, of Bandon, Esq.

At his seat, Newtown Park, county Dublin, on Saturday last, in the 77th year of his age, John Armit, Esq. Mr. Armit, who was head of the firm of Armit, Borough, and Edington, Army Agents, of Dublin, was a native of Scotland, who in early life settled in this kingdom.

Patrick Newman, Esq. of Cardiff's-Bridge.

Lucy, wife of Js. Wright, Esq. of Butterfield House, Rathfarnham.

In the Harleyford-road, Mary, relict of the late Thomas Yeakell, Esq. chief draughtsman to the Royal Military Corps of Surveyors and Draughtsmen, Ordnance-office, Tower.

In Warren-street, Fitzroy-square, Edward Buckingham, Esq.

John Bastard, Esq. Captain in the Royal Navy, and late M.P. for Dartmouth.

Mr. A. W. Hill Cramer, Professor of Music, husband of Mrs. H. Cramer, of Drury-lane and Covent-garden Theatres.

In the Close, Salisbury. the Rev. Edmund Benson, in his 81st year.

At Brighton, Henrietta Elizabeth, relict of Henry Bowles, Esq. of Cuckfield, Sussex.

At Spitchwick Park, Devonshire, Eliza, wife of Major M'Dougall, late of the 25th Regiment.

At Woodmans, Herts, Robert Haldane Bradshaw, Esq. aged 76.

In Cheltenham, aged 90 years, Mary, widow of the late Thomas Ryves, of Rathsallagh, county Wicklow.

At Milan, Harriet, the Lady of Sir H. Panlet St. John Mildmay, Bart.

At Kingston, Canada, aged 17, Bethea Elizabeth, daughter of Paymaster Ross, 66th Regiment.

At Quebec, Mr. Thomas Bassett.

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—JAN. 16.

Bank Stock	221½
Irish Three per Cent. Consols	90½

GOV

34 GEN

DAVI

AGENT

Fire

WILL rece

GOVER

and SHARES in

Interest payal

Office.

All transaction

fidential, and see

109, GE

35

WILLIAM

HAS arrived

Captain D

of Garden and P

and approved k

variety of beaut

in respectfully

flatters himself i

who have hereto

His Nursery,

well stocked with

and Ornamental

which advantages

by the experienc

WILLIAM AB

Trees, as consist particular attent

selection as to va

any establishmen

range of walling

trained Trees at tisements being

tion from those

ing &c