

asionally a mendi-
ch in a very feeble
on Saturday night,
the watch-house,
The Mayor held
by the visitation of
roker, tobacconist,
Insolvent Debtor's
re £2,194. and he
-law. The Court
the Roman Catho-
c of the chalice.
the fatal affray at t but justice to the ders of T. Pepper,
nce in his endea-
are now before the
making any obserluct of this Officer
up in the proceedpper and his Police
ken any part in this nuous exertions to
of an irritated and
ork, has subscribed
nilies of the Angels
Mate of the Sarah
Waterford, fell into Erne at Belturbert,
sea, last week, was
e frequently offered
City; which are of s a sure means of l from Ireland ere it climate. We need
ls to be doubly vigi-
species of destruc-
brought here at a
its scarcity merely
ad pleasure-grounds,
to remain, became a
nt to the sportsman.
in 22d Inst. Edward spital return thanks
ent Lady who sent ps, 12 binders, 12

DEATHS.

In King-street, Waterford, aged 69, Thomas Scott, Esq. President of the Waterford Chamber of Commerce, and Senior Agent of the Waterford Branch of the Bank of Ireland. Monday last he went to the City Election, made a short speech in proposing Mr. Wyse,— upon returning home he felt ill, took to his bed, and died.

At Cratloe, Mrs. Ryan, mother of the Rev. Mr. Ryan, Roman Catholic Curate of Thomondgate.

At his residence in Jervis-street, Dublin, Mr. George Halloran, son of Mr. Ralph Halloran, of the Queen's County. This gentleman had served in the British army, on the Continent, during the greater part of the Peninsular war, and was much esteemed by his relatives and friends.

Francis Cruise, of Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Esq. a highly respectable solicitor.

At Lower Abbey-street, Dublin, Mr. William Crean, aged 23 years. Mary Caroline, wife of John Daly, Esq. of Kilrush-mills, county Kildare, and formerly of Townsend-street, Dublin.

Mr. Michael Brangan, of North King street, Dublin, aged 74 years. In Marlborough-street, Cork, Lionel, son of H. B. Westropp, Esq.

At Woodbine Cottage, Blackrock, Cork, in his 62d year, James Roche, Esq. for many years a respectable wine merchant of Cork.

At Lackney Hill, county Waterford, Samuel John, only son of William Henry Barron, Esq.

Of paralysis, Charles Ward, Esq. late 14th Light Dragoons, of Hants, and Hollymount, Queen's County.

Mary, relict of the late Arthur Fleming, Esq. of Bellville, co. Cavan. At Westport, the wife of Charles S. Higgins, Esq.

Of scarletina, aged 17 years, Margaret Anne, youngest daughter of the Rev. Dr. Crawford, of St. Anne's, county Longford.

At his house in Great George's-street, Cork, in her 31st year, Eliza, the beloved wife of Mr. Eugene M'Swyny.

At Currabaha, parish of Inniscarra, Cork, at the advanced age of 102 years, Mr. Benjamin Kelly, a man of the strictest integrity.

At Lota Cottage, Cork, Mrs. Croker, at an advanced age. Of an attack of apoplexy, aged 47 years, Andrew D. Johnson, Esq. of Friarstown, county Leitrim.

At his residence in Balbriggan, Mr. Edward Murphy, aged 92 years. At Rathmines, Mrs. Margaret Dodd.

At Tomgrany, Mrs. Jane Carrick, daughter of the late Mrs. Molony, and relict of the late Dr. Carrick, of the Carnarvon Militia.

On board the Annandale, on his passage from Bombay to England, Captain Maclean, of his Majesty's 2d or Royals.

Captain G. B. O'Brien, H.M.'s 62d Regiment, aged 42. At Greenwich-road, London, Samuel Bromley, Esq. surgeon, R.N.

In Sloane-street, London, Edward Huntingdon, youngest son of Edward M'Mahon, Esq.

At Tenby, Lewis Bruce, Esq. late Major 59th Regiment, and Colonel in the Army, born 16th July, 1762, aged 72.

“Of sense refined,
Who felt each worth, for every worth he had,
Serene, yet warm,—humane, yet firm his mind,
As little touch'd as any man with bad.”

At Hookersbrook, near Chester, Elizabeth, third daughter by the second wife, of the late John Finlay, of Corkagh, co. Dublin, Esq.

At Hastings, Elizabeth, the relict of the late James De Burgh, of West Drayton, Middlesex, and Gaulstown, county Westmeath.

At Coombe Hoase, Surrey, Frances Ann, relict of the late Right Hon. Michael Angelo Taylor.

At Hastings, George Dorrien, Esq. aged 68, for many years a Director of the Bank of England.

In Bath, aged 76, Lieut.-Colonel Walter Caulfield Lennon. At Heavitree, John Whitlock, Esq.

In Bath, Mary Ann, wife of Captain Rowland Mainwaring, R.N. At Dunkirk, Rd. Gethin, Esq. Captain h.p. 96th Foot, and eldest son of Sir Percy Gethin, Bart. of Percy-mount, near Sligo, Ireland.

At Lausanne, Henry A. Cerjat, Esq. late Lieutenant-Colonel of the Inniskilling Dragoons.

In Calcutta, Captain G. K. Bathie (Hon. Company's Service), of St. Mary Abbott's-terrace, Kensington.

At Stony River, Lieutenant J. A. Erskine, 48th Regiment. At Madras, Ensign D. Johnson, 51st Regiment N.I.

R EQUEST a
PRICES CH
unprecedentedly
They flatter
that they sell C
From their
which, with their
whose interest t
The most in
with confidence,

Arrived this shape, now wo

23 Cheap
WITH BALLS O

WIL

W HO havin
which he cheap, to make Trees.

Is this day la
NEW GARDEN
second sowings
time to arrive
Turnip, Giant

days more d
WILSON con
able to offer sup
prices having m
A catalogue
lately chosen in

WILSON is
own propagatio
Scotch
Oak, 1
Dutch
Beech,
Terms