OFFICE OF NY & SON, of the above
IES,

Wednesday, the Mayor held an inquest at the County Infirmary, on view of the body of John Nash, of the parish of Doone, who a few days before at a public house in the village of Cappamore, where he had been drinking, was struck on the head with stones by one of an opposite faction. Verdict of wilful murder against William Ryan.

Patrick Hanly, a carpenter, by some unfortunate accident was caught between two wheels of the machinery of a mill in this City on Thursday morning, and crushed to death instantly. When disentangled from the works, it was found that his head was broken, the features destroyed, his breast shockingly mangled, and the shoulder violently torn from its position. No person but himself was in the apartment when this dreadful accident took place.

The Lord and Lady Lieutenant of Ireland have no issue, nor even a brother or sister. His Excellency is in his 52d year, and her Excellency 51.

Mr. Joseph Devonsher Jackson has been elevated to the Coif, in the room of Solicitor-General Pennefather, of whom he is, in the capacity of first Sergeant the worthy successor. Mr. Perrin remains second, and Mr. Green third Sergeants.

Arthur Hamilton, Esq. has been appointed to the vacant Police Magistracy in the City of Dublin.

One of Mr. Lefroy's sons is appointed pursebearer to the Chancellor, and the other to the office of Filaser to the King's Bench.

There were 33 Roman Catholics in the Irish division of the last Parliament—there are 32 in the present. Five of those who were in the last Parliament are out, and four new ones in. Those who are out are Messrs. Callaghan, Galwey, O'Reilly, Lalor, Lambert, and Blackney; those who are in are Messrs. O'Loghlen, Brady, Bodkin, and Power.

The Hon. Mr. Vesey (one of the successful candidates for the Queen's County) was chaired on Wednesday in Abbey-leix. The chair was decorated with Orange ribands, and Orange banners were paraded through the town, amid shouts of triumph.

O'Brien Dillon, of Nenagh, proposes forming election committees in every barony of the County Tipperary, to collect a penny a month from every elector, and thus raise a competent fund to employ agents, and convey the voters to the poll at any vacancy in the representation.

Mr. John Denis Browne, the ex-Member for Mayo, is son of the late Right Hon. Denis Browne, who formerly represented that County, and first-cousin of the Marquess of Sligo. Mr. Browne ascribes his defeat to the illegal state of the registry, and undue influence at the election, which he undertakes to bring before a Committee of the House of
