

At Abergaby church, North Wales, the Right Hon. Viscount Frankfort de Montmorency, to Georgiana Frederica, daughter of P. Fitzgibbon Henchy, K.C. Esq.

At Cawnpore, East Indies, John D. Loch, Esq. Aide-de camp to the King of Oude, and second son of the late James Loch, Esq. to Miss Eliza Adelaide Clarkson Carr.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday morning, after a short illness, at Bruff Cottage, the residence of her son, aged 98, Catherine, relict of the late Thomas Bennett, of Bruff, Esq.

In Patrick-street, to the deep regret of his very interesting wife and young family, Edward Sargent, Esq. Lieutenant half-pay Royal Lanarkshire Regiment of Militia,—a gentleman possessed of many amiable traits of character, frank, manly, and generous, of most captivating social qualities and agreeable manners.

In Charlemont-street, Dublin, Mary, wife of John Mansfield, Esq. Supervisor of Excise.

In Dublin, after a long and severe illness, Harriette, wife of J. R. Byrne, Esq. solicitor.

At her house in Granby-row, Dublin, Mary, second daughter of the late Wm. Paisley Vaughan, Esq. of Goldengrove, King's County.

At Emerville, sincerely and deservedly regretted, Henry Sands, Esq. Under-Treasurer of the Hon. Society of King's Inns.

In Church-street, Ennis, Mr. O'Flynn, coach-builder.

In Jail-street, Ennis, of decline, James, son of Mr. John Flanagan.

In Jail-street, Ennis, Mrs. Hehir, wife of Mr. James Hehir, publican. Her death was occasioned by her clothes taking fire from the accidental igniting of spirits.

Mary, wife of John Kearney, of Miltown House, co. Meath, Esq.

In the Newtown, Moate, Mary Anne, wife of Nichs. O'Connor, Esq.

Of a decline, in his 27th year, in Athlone, George, fourth son of James Sproule, of Longfield, Esq.

Of consumption, Mr. James Coffey, of Athlone.

At Dublin Royal Barracks, Mary, wife of Serjeant Major Bunney, of the 3d Dragoon Guard.

In Dublin, Mr. Charles Moulang, formerly of the 18th Hussars, and late of the 7th.

Thomas, youngest son of the late Thomas Purcell, Esq. of Sunday's Well, Cork.

At the Cove of Cork, after a lingering illness, sincerely regretted by his family and friends, Robert Langford, Esq. late of Greenpark, near this City.

At his lodgings, Nile-street, Cork, Mr. Thos. Duck, aged 64 years.

At her residence, Clarence-street, Cork, Mrs. Moorhead.

In Waterford, Jane, wife of Jas. Ormsby, Esq. Surveyor of Excise.

At the Chapel-house, aged 54 years, the Rev. Charles Reynolds, Parish Priest of Carrickedmond, county Longford.

At his residence, Upper Norton-street, London, Captain John Betham, of the India Navy, son of the Rev. William Betham, Rector of Stoke Lacy, and brother to Sir William Betham, of Dublin.

In Euston-square, London, at the age of 23, P. M. Hilliard, Esq.

In Finsbury-circus, London, Mary, widow of Philip Van Cortlanet, Deputy Barrack-Master General in the Canadas.

At Chepstow, John Odell Travers Hill, Esq. son of Lieut. Boyle Hill, formerly of the 32d regiment, and of Ballycurreen, co. Cork.

At Surrey, Lieut.-Colonel Hugh Sutherland, formerly Captain of his Majesty's 73d Regiment, and afterwards in the service of Dowjut Row, Schindia, aged 69 years.

At Plymouth, of a few hours' illness, John Pennycuick, eldest son of Major Pennycuick, of Bellarie, Perthshire.

At Windsor, near Liverpool, Mr. John Wilson, upwards of 40 years a shipbuilder at Liverpool.

At Chilton Lodge, Berkshire, Isabella Anne Kemeys, only child of the present, and grand daughter of the late Sir Wm. Cooper, Bart.

At Maize-hill, Greenwich-Park, Mrs. Elizabeth Palmer, aged 80.

At Walton Priory, near Liverpool, aged 74, Mary, wife of George Case, Esq.

In a caravan at Colne, "the Yorkshire youth," known as "Fat Dan," his weight was thirty-one stone!

At Yelwall, near Mysore, Major Henry Wiggins, of the 36th Madras Native Infantry.

At Elsbrock, near Haarlem, Charles Louis, Baron de Tuyll.

the Sessions
Civil or Cri
be entertain
cisely, on th
Grand Jury
heard, and
The Mag
Information
eight days a Division, an
attend on th
place, other

The Proc
of the Sessi
upon which
of the Pea
second mor
Peace shall mitted to r
tion shall b
The Baro
ceeded with

Kenry, 1
Lower Con

Costlea,
william, 4th
7th; and la

For the c
paper will b
taining the
which the C
ing the Cou
names calle
meet with neglecting
are often o
the Police.
the parties
parties will forward at

The Pro
to their Pri
entered int
otherwise t
duty in the
and on no
bring befor
duct them
duty will obeyed.

County Pe