

their desire to be of the Western discovered on them has become of the gang for at Doonass and killed the sheep of the wool as tions have been
 and the delinquents
 as fortunate that an arrangement to grandfather turned where he was a reward for the anrahan church,
 ariaries who burnt
 , near Waterford.
 discovery of the velling-house and King's county.
 and suite, the ng, daughters of day, en route to ly remain a few
 nglish metropolis,
 ng the sitting of
 of Drogheda was requisition for the body to the Hon.
 air approbation of
 and disinterested
 he county Meath was requested to
 on Saturday and
 , Sheil, Martin,
 Ronayne, O'Fer-
 power, Chapman,
 y, Dublin, estab-
 ries, and sold in 75 years) who left er residence near ound in a state of
 —Verdict "Died

owledges to have Mayor, 11s. 3d.
 tal acknowledges
 ain Sabine, R. A.
 f Blankets for the

At Caledon, the Lady of Henry Leshe Prentice, Esq. of a daughter.
 At Belmont, the Right Hon. Lady Harris, of a son.
 In Belgrave-square, London, the Lady of Richard Sanderson, Esq.
 M.P. of a son.
 In London, the Lady of C. Phillips, Esq. barrister-at-law, of a son.
 In Dover-street, London, the Lady Jemima Eliot, of a son.
 At Hinton House, near Crewkerne, the Countess Poulett, of a son.
 At Westbrook, Herts, Lady Georgiana Ryder, of a son.
 At Windsor, the Lady of John Bowling, Esq. Scots Fusilier Guards, of a daughter.
 At Chatham, the Lady of G. M. Harkness, Esq. 61st Regt. of a son.
 At Government House, St. Vincent's, the Lady of his Excellency Captain Geo. Tyler, R.N. of a son.

DEATHS.

At Retreat Cottage, Cove, aged 15 years, Maria, second daughter of the late Thomas O'Grady, Esq. Surveyor General of Excise in this district,—a lovely and interesting creature.
 At Lloydsborough, on the 13th instant, Emma, eldest daughter of John Lloyd, Esq. whose remarkably amiable accomplishments have rendered her the object of universal regret.
 Miss Jane Weldon, daughter of J. Weldon, of Baggot-street, Esq.
 In Windmill-street, Mrs. Cusack, wife of Mr. J. Cusack, gardener.
 In Leeson-street, Dublin, Richard Nesbitt, son of James Dombain, Esq. Inspector-General of the Coast Guard.
 At Goresbridge, Mary Ann, wife of Ephraim Burroughs, Esq.
 John Jellico, Esq. of Flemingstown, Clogheen.
 At Cootehall, of a severe paralytic attack, the Rev. Thomas Conry, in his 64th year, for many years Parish Priest of Cootehall.
 At Inagh, county Clare, Mr. John Cotter.
 At Dromedrehid, within a few miles of Ennis, John Meere, at the advanced age of 110.
 In her 20th year, Maria, eldest daughter of the Rev. John Jones, Vicar of Dunany.
 In her 66th year, Mrs. Mary Joseph Flyn, Foundress of the Presentation Convent, Doneraile.
 At the Palace of Ferns, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with unvarying patience and resignation, Mrs. Elrington, wife to the Lord Bishop of Ferns.
 At CloghJordan, Newport White, Esq.
 At Kinsale, Anne, widow of the late Hugh O'Brien, Dublin, Esq.
 In Clonmel, Miss Mary Ward.
 At New Ross, Mary Anne, wife of the Rev. James Morgan, Rector of that town.
 In Bandon, Mary, daughter of William Foster, Esq.
 In Stradbally, Mrs. Harpur.
 At Brecknock Terrace, Camden Town, London, aged 24, Frederick W. Drennan, second son of F. Drennan, Esq. late Commissary-General.
 In Grove-lane, Camberwell, Colonel Wm. C. Oliver, of the Hon.
 East India Company's Madras Establishment, in his 51st year.
 At East Sheen, in her 80th year, Elizabeth, relict of the late John Marriott, Esq. magistrate of the Thames Police.
 In Grosvenor-square, the Hon. Mrs. Lucy Manners, of Bloxholmhall, Lincoln, aged 74.
 At Woolwich, of apoplexy, Miss Elizabeth Unett, sister of the late Major Unett.
 At Gravesend, Sarah Russell, widow of the late Robert Russell, Esq. Zillah, surgeon in Canara, East Indies.
 Sir Charles M. Schomberg, K.C.H. R.N. Governor of the Island of Dominica.
 On his passage to the Cape of Good Hope, on the fifth day after leaving Portsmouth, George, the youngest son of Major Longmore.
 At Masulipatam, in the East Indies, Mary Jane Boyes, youngest daughter of the late Captain James Boyes, of the 76th Regiment.

WANTED

A STEWARD and GARDENER of first-rate abilities and character, that will bear the strictest investigation.
 None but a Protestant need apply. Application to be made to Mr. LEDGER, Bookseller, George's-street; or at the CHRONICLE OFFICE (if by letter post-paid.)

February 18.

Hearth Rugs,
 Fenders and Fire
 Chimney Ornan
 great variety; E
 Hangings; Fea
 Chests of Draw
 Stands; Comm
 with a variety of
 —3 Four-Whee
 Horses; son
 Utensils, &c. &
 Sale to comm

13

Limerick, Fe
 100 Tons Ma
 100 Tons Ca
 300 Tons be 50 Tons Or
 160 Bags Sh
 300 Tons Ir
 20 Tons M
 50 Tons Sa
 Apply to W
 Denmark-stree
 HOUSE, at cor
 by George Ben
 KNAPSACK-LO

14

FROM the FOUT OFF
 P. Scanlan no
 of Parlour, Dr
 Kitchen and S
 House, with fr
 fully laid out Evergreens, a Meadow and
 A Lease of 90
 Application
 Limerick.

15

FROM the
 a good Sh Yard, suitable three young l
 Immediate Stamp-Office, attended to.

16