

married another
ages.

as promised his Parliament, to chap. 71, into Privy Council on rates, from any most convenient great advantage

the late Election
of informality.
rd on Saturday,
The Reform
Waterford. The
ned the writ to writ was received
ed on that day,
o received it on amation for the January.

moreland-street,
ing in this City,
e Lord Bishop
lly drawn, every uring so natural us friends have y of the portrait
en, of London, rofession. The art, and reflects
of his happiest ot object to the
ct. The copy is raving, and upon

Bench were, the informations were
and Ellen and
wearing apparel,
arnard O'Farrell.
Shea, for assault-ched urchin, was
. John O'Brien,
d for stealing a fortnight's hard
e got to repair.
a Hennessy and possession, sworn e lands of Cun-
t of combination
To sustain this aken an appren-oved that Barron
some difference
in a few days since return.—

At Leamington Spa, the Rev. Edward Lewis, of Llambeder, Brecon, to Charlotte Auriol, youngest daughter of the late Edward Auriol Hay Drummond, D.D. Dean of Bocking, and brother of the late Earl of Kinnoul.

At Jersey, Vallancy England, Esq. Captain of the Royal Artillery, to Catherine Lutwych Parry, daughter of Major General Parry, of the Artillery.

DEATHS.

In the prime of life, at the Rectory of Templemore, the Rev. Henry Armstrong, Curate of Thurles.

At the Augustine Friary, in George-street, after a very few days illness, the Rev. John A. Cronin, a native of this City, and a Clergyman whose unpretending manners and sincere piety rendered him an object of very general esteem and regard

Mr. James M'Carthy, of this port, Revenue Officer.

At her house in Molesworth-street, Dublin, Mary, only daughter of the late Richard Lalor, of Shanakill, county Tipperary, Esq.

At his house in William-street, Dublin, after an illness of twelve days, Charles Bewley, Esq. one of the Society of Friends, and of the firm of Samuel Bewley and Sons. He married in 1816, Eliza, daughter of the Hon. Cochrane Johnstone, by whom he has left several children, the eldest son is in his 16th year.

In Baggot-street, Dublin, at the residence of his brother, Dr. George Barker, of Athy. He was surgeon to the 11th Regiment, and for 20 years connected with the Army.

At Mallow, Constance Maria Hume, relict of the late Clement Hume, Esq.

At Tivoli Terrace, near Cork, Mrs. Cashel, wife of George Cashel, Esq. Kerry, and sister of Professor Wilson, of Edinburgh.

In her 37th year, a few hours after giving birth to twins, Jane, wife of John Fowler, Esq. of Middle Gardiner-street, Dublin, Deputy-Grand-Secretary to the Masonic Grand Lodge of Ireland.

The highly-talented and justly-esteemed popular actress, of the Dublin Theatre, Miss Barry. She possessed talents of no ordinary rank, and in no place were those talents more warmly appreciated than in Dublin, where it will be no easy task to fill up the blank which her death has occasioned:

At his house in Merrion-row, Dublin, Thomas Nugent, Esq.

At Donnybrook, Mr. Richard Greene, aged 96.

In Richmond-st. Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Joseph Chapman, Esq.

In Hume-street, Dublin, Walter Saunders Frayne, Esq. of Bormount, county Wexford.

At Cullinhue-lodge, Westmeath, Lieutenant Dunwoody, late 7th Dragoon Guards.

Aged 86 years, Henry Delap, Esq, who had been long one of the most talented and respectable merchants of Derry. He was Adjutant of the first Derry corps of Volunteers in 1777, and afterwards filled the same rank in the Volunteers of 1800.

At Ballymena, co. Antrim, aged 74, Samuel Brien, Esq. surgeon.

Harriet, daughter of Mr. Robert Creenham, of Maryborough.

In Tralee, Mr. W. O'Sullivan, flour factor and livery stable keeper.

In Tralee, Mrs. Turner, wife of Mr. John Turner.

At Moorstown, Tipperary, Mr. John Mackin.

At Drogheda, Mr. Henry Smith, formerly of Waterford, corn-merchant.

In Edward-street, Portman-square, London, in her 97th year, Catherine, relict of the Hon. General Simon Fraser, eldest son of the last Lord Lovat.

At Flaxley Abbey, Mary Albinia, the wife of Sir Thomas Crawley Boevey, Bart.

At Winchester, in her 86th year, Lady Rivers, widow of the late Sir Peter Rivers.

At Alkham, in his 79th year, the Rev. A. J. Smith, Rector of Carlton, in Lincolnshire, and for 55 years Curate and Vicar of Alkham and Capel Le Ferne.

At Lieut.-Colonel Fanshawe's, in the Regent's Park, the Dowager Lady Dalrymple, aged 82.

At Montpellier, France, David James Skene, Esq. Lieutenant on half-pay of the 4th Royal Irish Dragoon Guards.

At the Jesuit College, of Navarre, Piedmont, George, son of the late James Ryan, Esq. M.D. of Listowel.

not charge to
to almost ev collection of terms. LIFE
Prospectus
COMMERCIAL
STEAM COAC
SMITH'S Of
No. 42, So
Dublin.

WILL ser
the Fi
Mare, and H
Dunkellin, wh
got by Whit
Mother Bunch
De Clare's
Castle-Hacket
sister to Pipes De Clare is and those who Freeholders' E
Though he re
inches from t fetlock joint.
great bone and
To be see
DEACON'S
Good Grass
as I am accou

February 2
THE

HAS arriv
at ELM Rathkeale (the Full bred Ma
5s. to the Gro
DERT's Padd
No Mare will coming to re
can be remove Race Horse, i known, that i was winner
Horses of his
He has been following sup
in Ireland), P at Elm-Hill, and won in E &c. &c. beati
country. RC