

In Cork, Mr. Phillip Crowe, printer, to Miss Catherine Price.
At Trinity church, St. Marylebone, Lieut. General Gosselin, to Miss Priscilla Dimsdale, of Brunswick-place, Regent's-Park.

In London, Charles E. Gadsden, of Waterford, Esq. to Amelia, daughter of the late John Field, of Oxford-street, Esq.

James T. Cracknoll, Esq. Royal Marines, to Lucy Atherton, widow of the late John Queely Fagan, Esq. of Montserrat.

DEATHS.

In the prime of life, Eliza, only daughter of the late Norcott Henry D'Esterre, Esq. of Meelick, county Clare. Possessed of many qualities which deservedly endeared her to her friends, she learned to account them as dross compared to the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus her Lord—a knowledge which gave her sweet resignation during her long illness, and perfect peace at its close.

At her sister's house in William-street, of consumption, which she bore for two years and eleven months with the greatest christian patience and resignation, Henrietta Cockburn, youngest daughter of Captain James Fitzgerald, late of Sixmilebridge House, co. Clare.

At Kilbarron, county Clare, Robert M'Grath, Esq. M.D. aged 84.

In Bath, aged 88 years, Mrs. Vereker, relict of the late Amos Vereker, Esq. By her demise a large property reverts to Lord Viscount Gort.

Anne, third daughter of John Chambers, Esq. of Upper Rutlandstreet, Dublin.

In Dame-street, Dublin, aged 10 years, William Anthony, son of Christopher Eiffe, Esq.

In Upper Charlemont-street, Dublin, George Hill, Esq.

In the 21st year of his age, Edward Callaghan, Esq. S.T.C.D.

In Lower Abbey-street, Mrs. Hodges, mother to Alderman Hodges, of Dublin, in her 67th year.

In Cork, George Dunscombe, Esq.

At Tralee, at an advanced age, Mr. James Fitzgerald, late of Cahervisheen.

John Leacock, Esq. of Westbrook, and Pondwell, Isle of Wight, and Principal of the firm of Leacock and Harris, at Madeira.

At Richhill, co. Armagh, William Crozier, Esq. in his 59th year.

At Castlecomer, Charlotte, wife of Captain Henry Hartford.

At Greenmount, Dundrum, in his 19th year, Robert John, fourth son of William Chaigneau Colvill, Esq. of Clontarf.

At Sunday's Well, Cork, Mrs. Berkeley, relict of the late Richard Berkeley, Esq. Captain in the Wexford Militia.

At Cove, Richard, eldest son of the late Mr. Rd. Wood, of Cork.
Doctor O'Connor of Lanesborough, for 42 years a practising physician in that town and neighbourhood. Doctor John O'Connell of Roscommon, has been nominated, by the subscribers of the Bal-yleague Dispensary, to take charge of that institution, of which the late Dr. O'Connor was several years Medical attendant.

At Collon, county Louth, suddenly, of apoplexy, Samuel M'Call, Esq. late Lieutenant of the 3d Royal Veteran Battalion;—and in two days after, his wife Harriet, last surviving child of Lionel Biggs, Esq.
late of the 3d Royal Veteran Battalion.

Of typhus fever, the Rev. George King, Curate of St. Peter's parish, Drogheda.

At Southampton-row, Russell-square, in his 82d year, the Rev.
Jas. Capper, M.A. more than 55 years Vicar of Wilmington, Sussex.

At Bransgore House, Hampshire, Geraldine, daughter of Sir
Francis Knowles, Bart.

At Cobham, Surrey, Mark Currie, Esq. in his 78th year.

At Watergate, Sussex, Frances, wife of General Crosbie.

At Pimlico, the Rev. Charles Sloman, in his 71st year.

At the house of John Ord, Esq. Aldwicke Lodge, near Bognor, John Tait Shields, Esq. in his 69th year.

At Grey's Court, Oxfordshire, Mary Dowager Lady Stapleton, relict of Sir Thomas Stapleton, in the 91st year of her age.

At Bitton, near Teignmouth, Devon, William Mackworth Praed, Sergeant-at-Law, in his 79th year.

At Calcutta, in his 19th year, John J. Shank, Esq. of the Civil Service, second son of H. Shank, Esq. of Gloucester-place, London.

At Montreal, Upper Canada, M. Mahay, Esq. Staff Surgeon to the Forces, and formerly of the 3d Buffs.

At Rochester, United States of America, John Higginbotham, Esq.
late a Lieutenant in his Majesty's 14th Foot.

MR. MEINY b ments to the County of Limeric
distinguished patron
the last seven years.
continues to teach t
according to the mo
—which Cities he a
ment.

Mr. M. may be the imputation of e
recognised by the s
his system of instru
that the former is n

Mr. M. continue
elegant art of FEN
Gymnastic exercise
only for promoting ment so essential to carriage.

He is always sup
the most fashionab
Mazourkes, as th
FOREIGN COU

which may be had Commands, add
—122, George's-s
attended to.

Newca

COUN

To come off

S WEEPSTAKE

the Stewards
castle, for all ho
Gentlemen—three chosen by the Stev
unless three start.

SECO

Sweepstakes of Stewards will add
tlemen, three mil
4 years old, 10st.
and aged, 12st.
ings. The winne
chases, to carry fi

Horses to be e
Courtenay Arms,
instant, with the
rider. One sove
and the winner o

There will be a
and a Ball and Tickets to be had