

High Sheriff waiting any homicides.
 es this day,
 ing is the t persons, ministering
 ep-stealing,
 g, 3; house
 possession 7; taking odily harm,
 arms, 10;
 ning cattle,
 e coin, 2;
 disorderly,
 resentment
 ord between the sum of as raised to on made by £343 was ent for the
 for the ex-
 or the same
 at Roscomg refused to he Board of having been the Court-on the ille-that it was but that he
 of the road, rhaps would granted the ents.
 Galway for l.
 ave voted a rmination to royal prero-
 n have pre-
 of Gowran,
 his removal entation of a appointed a daughter of the late Thomas Dawson Atkinson, of Dublin, to Amelia, At Stoke church, Lieut. S. Wells, 25th Regiment, to Amelia, second daughter of the late Thomas Billing, Esq. of Plymouth.

 At Clapham church, the Rev. Henry Dawson, Rector of Hopton, in Suffolk, to Susan Rebecca, eldest daughter of the late Rev. J.
 Jackman, Rector of Ashley-cum-Silverley, and Vicar of Kirtling, in Cambridgeshire.
 At Jamaica, the Rev. Joseph Stoney, to Sarah, widow of the late William Stewart, Esq.

DEATHS.

Michael Egan, Esq. of Thomond-Gate,
 In North Earl-street, Dublin, Miss Jane Bradford.
 At Templemore, county Tipperary, on Saturday last, the Lady of Thomas Hargraft, Esq. The death of this young, interesting, and amiable Lady has involved a large and respectable circle of relatives and friends in the deepest affliction. Beloved for her feminine virtues, and the endearing qualities of her mind and her heart, her loss leaves a chasm in the society which she adorned; while to her affectionate husband and immediate family, her premature decease is an irreparable deprivation, and a source of lasting and most poignant sorrow.
 At Bansa Glebe, Lady Blackall, aged 101 years, relict of the late Sir Thomas Blackall, Knight, of the city of Dublin.
 Catherine, widow of J. Hitchcock, Esq. formerly of Dublin, solicitor.
 At Blackburn, aged 43. Reginald Orton, Esq. surgeon 12th Regt.
 At Woodstock, county Waterford, at a very advanced age, Mrs.
 Mary Greene, relict of the late John Greene, Esq.
 At Cove-street, Cork, Miss Jane Woodward.
 In Rathcormac, Mr. Richard Godson.
 At Rosscarbery, county Cork, Mary, widow of the late Richard Hungerford, Esq.
 At the Grand Parade, Cork, Nanno, widow of the late Martin
 Hayes, Esq.
 Mr. William Ryan, of Oranmore-hotel, Galway.
 Mrs. James Murphy, of Leitrim-street, Cork.
 Of apoplexy, Archibald Fleming, Esq. of Carrowkeel, co. Sligo.
 At the Presentation Convent, Clonmel, at an advanced age,
 Mrs. Ronayne.
 At Carrick-on-Suir, Miss Mary O'Neil, second daughter of John O'Neil, Esq.
 At Mount Melleray, near Cappoquin, county Waterford, Mr.
 James Flood, one of the order of La Trappe.
 At Collooney, Mrs. Benson.
 Captain Jackson, Inspecting Commander of Milford haven district.
 At Skibbereen, Mr. George Levis, many years Postmaster of that town.
 At Elphin, aged 70, the Rev. William Smith, Vicar-General of the Diocese.
 The Rev. Robert Staples Jacob, of Mortlestown, county Tipperary, and Rector of Templecarne, in the Diocese of Clogher.
 At Youghal, Miss Meagher.
 In Store-street, London, in his 73d year, Alexander Pope, Esq.
 late of Covent-garden and Drury-lane Theatres.
 At Woolwich, Frances Charlotte Romer, second daughter of Captain Romer, Royal Artillery, aged 17.
 At the Grove, Hackney, Eliza, wife of Mr. John W. Scott, of the Stock Exchange.
 The Rev. Henry Longueville Mansel, M.A. Rector of Cosgrove, Northamptonshire, and for many years past an active Magistrate for the counties of Northampton and Buckingham.
 In Queen-square, Bath, Charles Kegan, Esq. late of the Hon.
 East India Company's Bengal Medical Establishment.
 Of apoplexy, while dancing at a ball given by the Grand Duke of Tuscany, in the Pitti Palace, at Florence, the Hon. Lieut.-Colonel Forbes, of the Coldstream Guards, eldest son of General Lord Forbes.
 At Rochester, United States of America, John Higginbotham, Esq.
 late a Lieutenant in the 14th Foot.

Tables, Beds, and
 and a Sofa Bedste
 Eight-Day Clock;
 Ware, with Glass a with 20 volumes
 other valuable Boo
 Limerick, March 23 Teas by
 SAMUEL BEV
 Auction, at t
 the 20th of March,
 just landed ex Hill
 120 Ches
 100 Half
 65 Quar
 1,465 Che
 344 Box
 102 Do.
 100 Do.
 Catalogues will
 MONDAY the 16
 The TEAS may t
 inspected in the K
 samples taken.
 March 14.
 AGRICULTURE
 24 THE Consultin
 LIMERICK
 the 10th Instant,
 as at other Branc
 From which Bra on London, and be given, as is us
 Dated 12th
 William Bailey
 Solicitors o
 12, North Great
 * * * * *
 and otherwise qu
 be treated with,
 as above.

18 NEGLECTED NAVIGATION OF THE SHANNON, AND ITS TRIBUTARIES.

REQUISITION OF THE MAYOR.

ate the docks
 have declared
 es finding the

the City Grand Jury