

before moved that the Moore conceived that sises—mean the next sessions, and directed
till the next assizes,
of going before the next against the four men dead one of General
on Lodge.
jected Mr. William S.
the number of Repre-
n Ireland. The Grand
nder the present system
entation of its powers.
as, a labourer in the
was found guilty of gentleman's property.
man, for having solem-
mony of the established named Grey, a Protes-
an Catholic, was found
nce of death recorded ;
ony.
the Carlow grand jury.
d guilty for taking bank perty of the King ; and notes to the amount of ersby, Esq. C.C. Mrs.
ere found guilty for the
the female prisoner, in cessary before the fact.
second husband of the 60 years of age. It a servant, was her para-sed on both, and they preman of the Kildare
he commission at Naas nshire Grand Jury, last he usual oath, perhaps and.
y evening at the fair of en a young man named blow of a stone on the
who were by far the
of life to all appearance, arent insensibility until n he expired. A man of the perpetrators of t pigs were bought up larly the small or Ber-
e demesne of Dangan,
up by night, last week.
any has offered £100
e to the premises of Mr.

St. George's-hill, Somersetshire, to second daughter of Philip John Miles, Esq. of Leigh Court, Somersetshire, M.P. for Bristol.
At St. Margaret's, Westminster, Captain Leblanc, of the French Royal Engineers, and of the Legion of Honour, to Sarah Jane, youngest daughter of the late General Sir Samuel Bentham.
DEATHS.
In Kilrush, Mary, youngest daughter of the late Rev. John Butler, of Kilmurry Glebe, county Clare,—a Lady very sincerely regretted for her many amiable qualities.
In Harcourt street, Dublin, after a painful and protracted illness, John Barclay Scriven, Esq. many years Father of the Irish Bar.
At Kilmallock, in her 54th year, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with Christian resignation, Catherine, wife of Robert Berry, and relict of the late Lieut. Richard Croker, 5th Regt.
At the seat of her uncle, John Colpoys, Esq. Ballycar, county Clare, on the 24th ult. Miss Kitty Joice Abbott, third daughter of Alderman Abbott, of Dublin.
At his residence, in Great Charles-street, Dublin, William Bellew, Esq. K.C.
At her residence, Primrose-hill, of a few days' illness, Elizabeth, wife of George Ewing, Esq. barrister-at-law.
In Grattan-street, Cork, Mrs. Eliza Keays, relict of the late Mr. James Keays.
Mary, wife of Mr. John Fitzsimons, of Queen-street, Waterford.
At New Ross, Thomas Carr, Esq.
At Booterstown-Avenue, Doctor William Field.
In Enniskillen, Mrs. Macpherson, wife of Lieutenant Macpherson, formerly of the 75th Regiment.
At Grange, near Waterford, the residence of her son, Thomas M'Grath, Esq. Mrs. Jane M'Grath, aged 66 years.
At Galway, at the advanced age of 90 years, Miss Judith Skerritt.
At Costello Bay, county Galway, of malignant fever, caught in the performance of his very arduous duties, the Rev. Mr. Deane, Roman Catholic Curate.
Margaret, wife of James Taylor, Esq. of Stranorlar, Donegal.
At New Ross, Miss Anne Frizell.
At Newport, rather suddenly, Mr. Robert M'Cutchen.
In Anne street, Mr. William Hannan.
In London, Daniel Hailes, Esq. aged 84 years. By his demise a pension of a thousand a-year reverts to the Crown.
In London, the wife of John Humphrey, Esq. M.P.
In Ely-place, London, Sir Charles Gordon, aged 81.
In Park-street, Grosvenor-square, Mr. D'Oyly, relict of Lieut.- General D'Oyly, 1st Foot Guards.
In Bloomsbury-square, Philip Tattersall, Esq. barrister-at-law, of the Middle Temple.
In Chapel-place, Cavendish square, Captain John Cruickshank, late Commander of the East India Company's ship Farquharson.
In Wimpole-street, Cavendish-square, Sarah Clinton, wife of William Wood, Esq. Royal Marines.
At Kemptown, Louisa Margaret, second daughter of Lieut.- Colonel the Hon. George Cathcart and the Lady Georgiana Cathcart, in her 8th year.
In Stamford, aged 83, Mrs. Bunyon, a descendant of the Author of Pilgrim's Progress.
Frances Alicia, youngest daughter of Joseph Fox, of Dooliston House, Esq.
At Brighton, Lady Cornwall, relict of the late and mother of the present Sir George Cornwall, in her 83d year.
At the Spa, near Gloucester, aged 80, Major George Ball, of the 3d division of the Royal Marines, and brother to Sir Alex. Ball, Bart. late Governor of Malta.
Maria Lousia, youngest daughter of Lieutenant George White, Royal Navy, Kingsdown, Bristol, aged 15.
At Cheltenham, aged 73, Lady George, relict of the late Sir Rupert George, Bart.
In Liverpool, William, youngest son of the late Rev. John Sherrard, Presbyterian Minister of Tullylish, county Down.
At Edinburgh, Sergeant Bishop, formerly of the 71st Light Infantry, who interred his remains with military honours.
At Berlin, the Hon. Sevilla Howard, wife of Henry F. Howard, of Corby Castle, Esq. daughter of Lord Eskiue.
At St. Petersburg, in his 17th year, Prince George Lieven, third son of Prince and Princess Lieven. He was born in England, and baptised before his late Majesty George IV. who stood sponsor at his baptism.
At the Hague, Lieut.-General A. D. Trip, of the Netherlands Army.

Our Cellar
genuine as im

33, Patrick

WITH F
for a SON, to who used, is perfe
given.

THE COM
on SAT
upon such P
his Worship

April 1.

CAP
AN ELE
the Cap
Dispensary H at the hour of

April 1.

REQUE
Estate, w
sale of my E
on SUNDAY,
at half-past
bringing the postponing s

31st Marc

GRANTED

20 AN V

IN all cas
of the
has decided similar purp
act of open screwing an assistance of The very
of leakage,
bowels, &c.
NEW MEDI
This Inst
monials of Kingdom.