

are happy
 land, and in spacious room
 e Society.
 mmon Coun-
 erman Knapp.
 street, Dublin,
 and embraced
 are all of the
 al gentleman,
 ange.
 ed to allow the
 and the Rev.
 f his Churches.
 he Consistory
 r names are—
 ; Monsignor
 onsignor Della
 nd Monsignor
 a.
 ick is appealed y orphans,) at stry, in conse-
 amongst them.
 udity those poor
 —and grievous
 ution, are only edented number hoped that the procure covering
 really appalling.
 by Mr. John Bench were the
 M. Gavin, Esq.
 Mr. Devitt, was a carriage which itt's carriage.—
 John Hanly, for his fowl; a war-
 within 24 hours.
 y Gorman, John
 John Donoghue;
 lf from a bailiff.
 ing and Anthony colt," and using £5 each, or two iven to Gibbs.—
 a dog which had d.

piece of the late John Griffin, Esq. of Beaks-min, Sussex.
 At Winscombe, Edward, fifth son of Major Clerk, of Wistholme-house, Somersetshire, to Anna Maria, third daughter of Colonel Stafford, of the 98th Regiment.
 Edward Lionel Wolley, Esq. of the 11th Regiment of Foot, to Susannah Sophia, third daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Raitt, late Deputy Adjutant-General of the Mediterranean.
 At Florence, by the Rev. E. Peacock, Demetrio Corrialego, a Noble of Cephalonia, to Louisa Harriet, fourth daughter of C.
 Scott, Esq. residing at Pisa.

DEATHS.

In William-street, Betty, daughter of the late Reuben Fisher,
 of Youghal, Esq.
 At Knockinglass, county Tipperary, Catherine, wife of James
 H. Ryall, Esq.
 On Thursday, John Thomas Quill, Esq. of Tralee.
 At Midleton, Mary, relict of the late John Wright, Esq. of Glandore, and sister of the late Alderman Kingston, of Cork.
 In Harcourt-street, Dublin, aged 24 years, Margaret, daughter of the late W. J. Alloway, Esq. of the Derries, Queen's County.
 In Upper Rutland-street, Dublin, Eliza Ann, and Paul Alexander, the children of Paul Sterling, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.
 Of fever, Joseph Hagarty, Esq. of Dublin.
 In Harcourt-road, Dublin, Mrs. Mulock, aged 73 years.
 In College-Green, Mr. B. Clancy, aged 73 years.
 In Grenville-street, Dublin, Honoria, the Lady of Edward O'Connor, Esq. (brother to O'Connor Don, M.P.)
 At Rockview, county Westmeath, James Fetherston, Esq.
 Aged 75 years, James Blanchfield, of Clifden, co. Kilkenny, Esq.
 At Drunconra Glebe, the Rev. George Tronson.
 Louisa, daughter of John Power, Esq. Churchtown, co. Waterford.
 William, son of the Rev. W. Hill, of Mothill-glebe, co. Waterford.
 In Waterford, Ellen, wife of Dr. Delahunty.
 At the residence of her brother, Doctor Kernan, Roman Catholic Bishop of Clogher, Mrs. Ann M'Hugh, aged 90 years.
 In Dominick-street, Cork, Mr. Arthur O'Leary.
 At Ballyslatten, Tipperary, John, eldest son of Richard Butler, Esq.
 At Seaville, Tramore, of decline, George Weston Grace, Esq.
 Near Highgate, George Bateman, Esq. of Watling-street, London.
 At the Bridge-house, Southwark, Eliza Frances, wife of John Newman, Esq. and only daughter of the late Rev. B. Middleton, Sub-Dean of Chichester Cathedral.
 At Bryanston-square, John Elphinston, Esq. formerly Member of Council at Bombay, aged 64.
 Charles Edward Dodd, Esq. of the Inner Temple, barrister-at-law.
 At Montagu-square, London, Ann, relict of Thomas Dobbins, Esq.
 At Milford House, near Lymington, in his 82d year, John Hyde, Esq. of Montague-square, London.
 - In Greenwich Hospital, Lieut. Wm. Taylor, R.N. many years of that establishment,—a brave, humane, and zealous Officer, a correct and most honourable man. He was one of the few survivors of the glorious action of the 1st of June, 1794.
 At Bristol, John Roberts, Esq. son of the late Colonel Roberts, of Taunton, and nephew to the late General Roberts, M.P.
 The Rev. J. Hubbard. This unfortunate gentleman had long been subject to an occasional depression of spirits, which had latterly oppressed him to such a degree, that he was discovered hanging in his school at Antingham.
 At All Cannings, Wilts, Fanny, youngest daughter of the Rev.
 T. A. Methuen.
 At Ockbrook, in his 75th year, the Rev. Frederick William Foster, Bishop of the Church of the United Brethren, commonly called Moravians.
 At Mere, in Wiltshire, John Chafin Morris, Esq. Captain R.N.
 formerly commander of the Richmond revenue cruiser, on the Waterford station.
 At Dalmahoy, near Edinburgh, John Thomas Hope, Esq. eldest son of General the Hon. Sir Alexander Hope.

act of opening
 screwing and fix
 assistance of ba
 The very seri
 of leakage, sepa
 bowels, &c. is
 NEW MEDICAL
 This Instrum
 monials of the Kingdom. Co
 and description
 STEVENSON &
 be sent as a sing
 J. & S. MA
 description of &c. embracing
 EYE, LITHOTO
 TOOTH, DISSE
 STETHOSCOPES
 PUMPS, INHA
 GES, &c. &c. &
 the LIMERICK
 low with those in the Kingdo
 sale of their A those therefore supplied at the Messrs. STE
 INVENTED

which is part
 MEDICAL PRA
 Bandage yet t
 quiring a regul
 will be found t
 Stocking gene
 N. B.—Obs
MESS
 WHOLE
 CO
TH
 Medi
 Public Hospi
 Hall, Descrip
 Pharmaceutic
 & S. MAW,