

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

TS TRIBUTARIES
 above alluded to, is
 and although some
 its importance on
 many as hopeless,
 he has, notwith-
 perseverance in ceeded. A motion
 by Lord Kerry, the
 ling on the House
 instructions to the
 those improvements
 important body, the
 a petition to the Lord John Russell.
 se few days, from
 ts who memorialled
 ly ready to form a th Ireland, but that
 o do in addition
 with our wishes. A ounty Tipperary on
 resident, and a re-
 n, calling on him to
 Mr. Steele was com-
 and invited by Lord
 anent Committee of
 t it is the intention Navigation question
 as a Member of the
 ciety of London, to
 a National Monu-
 r existed, Sir Isaac
 r in the Metropolis
 ting this day, held
 connected with the

ed the Debts of the

0,921	0	0
1,725	2	9
2,646	2	9

and Bonds far ex-
 supposed would be ad, that Mr. Dela-

DEATHS.

At Howth Castle, Almerica Isabella Maria, fourth daughter of the Right Hon. the Earl and Countess of Howth.
 In Cork, Anne, wife of Captain Cotter, Waterloo steamer.
 On Merchant's-Quay, of typhus fever, in the prime of life, Miss Catherine Walsh, daughter of the late Mr. Reddy Walsh, architect.
 In Eccles-street, Dublin, aged 21 years, Joseph, youngest son of the late Colonel Donaldson.
 At Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, Robert Hebden, A.M. after a painful and protracted illness.
 In Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin, the relict of the Rev. W. Whiteside.
 At the Surgeon-General's in Dublin, the infant son of the Rev. J. Crampton, jun.
 At Clontarf, in the 53d year of his age, Hugh Wallace Watson, formerly of Portaferry, county Down, Esq.
 At Maryborough, where she had been for a few days, Frances, the beloved wife of the Rev. George Borrow, Wesleyan Missionary at Tarbert.
 In Wexford, Mrs. Mary Mulligan, aged 89 years.
 At Roscrea, Mr. Isaac Fawcett, merchant, aged 64 years.
 At Youghal, William Morgan, Esq.
 In Clonmel, at an advanced age, the Rev. A. Guilfoyle, O.S.F. formerly of this City. His remains were interred in the Franciscan Convent, Clonmel.
 In Clonmel, William Chaytor, Esq. formerly Mayor of that town.
 John, eldest son of Mr. James Daly, printer, of Dublin.
 At Mountjoy-place, Dublin, Maria, wife of Rowley Heyland, Esq.
 At Rathmines, aged 13 years, Nicholas Murray, second son of Mr. Nicholas Murray Mansfield, of Stephen's-Green.
 Rather suddenly, at his house on the Mall, Waterford, Mr. William Clarke, for many years Assaye Master of that city.
 At Lymington, in his 68th year, James Brown, Esq. Collector of Customs at that place.
 Mary Ann, wife of the Rev. W. Bacon, superintendent Preacher of the Wesleyans in Nottingham.
 At Buckingham, in his 35th year, Edward Bartlett, Esq. banker.
 At Hedley House, Surrey, the Lady of Felix Calvert Ladbroke, Esq.
 At Clare Hall, Herts, in his 77th year, the Rev. Andrew Sharp, 43 years the incumbent of Rambah, Northumberland.
 At Clapham, Mr. William Franks, aged 65.
 Suddenly, at Cheltenham, Miss Sarah Jackson, daughter of the late Colonel Jackson, of Ennisco, county Mayo.
 At Over Norton, Oxford, Henry Thomas, eldest son of Lieut.-Colonel Dawkins, aged 11.
 At Glasgow, Margaret, only daughter of the late Colonel MacDougall, of Pollquhairn,
 In Edinburgh, in the 71st year, Hannah, mother of Sir Joshua Rowe, Chief Justice of Jamaica.
 At Bussora, Captain O. A. Woodhouse, 3d Light Cavalry, Bombay.

14 To be Sold cheap.
A GOOD SECOND-HAND GIG.

Has not run more than eighty miles since built.
 To be seen at Mr. RYAN'S Coach Factory, Bedford-Row.
 Limerick, May 9.

15 TO THE ARMY,

OFFICERS can be supplied with all the necessary

20
 LARGE,
 at HC Buildings,

50
 Jus

N. B.—P

21 FOR S

CONTA
 House
 Liberties,
 Bridge. T
 the requisit
 Immedia
 THOMAS
 N.B.—I
 land.

DI
 AT a M
 A conve
 of establish
 nient to th
 JOSEPH RESOLV
 that it is h
 pital in or Second-
 Subscriptio
 for the pu
 suitable ho
 Third—

the time b
 Attendant
 Fourthmittee of
 object of th
 numbers,
 The Cha
 Maunsell,
 Rev. Patri