DEATHS.

On Sunday, at his seat, Sallow Glen, Kerry, Thomas William Sandes, Esq. Deputy Lieutenant of that County. This estimable Gentleman was suddenly snatched from the bosom of an amiable and happy family, by a stroke of apoplexy which carried him off in a few hours, leaving that family involved in the deepest affliction. Mr. Sandes was a gentleman of ample fortune, and most benevolent disposition: in him the poor have lost a truly generous and humane friend and protector; he sedulously promoted and liberally contributed to every public charity in the county. His principles were truly independent, and guided by the strictest integrity and honour, as a landlord, as a Magistrate, as a Grand Juror, and a country Gentleman. He was brother to the respected Fellow T.C.D.

On Thursday evening, in Clare-street, after a long and painful illness, which she sustained with Christian firmness and pious resignation, trusting alone in the merits of a crucified Redeemer, Elizabeth, the dearly beloved wife of Mr. William Thetford.—“O tarry thou the Lord's leisure; be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart, and put thou thy trust in the Lord.” “The ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joys upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.”
