

mael Guerin,
 at the fair of
 whose body
 ry. Horan
 s eventually ceman.
 Botany Bay,
 ily made an en attacked
 ar Patrick's
 , to plunder
 d not effect
 ere inside.—
 After shooting
 habitation of
 near Adare,
 displeasure,
 the property
 their throats
 mpt to break
 with an intent
 arles G. Fair-£50 for his helmed in a bank falling ndiary author
 mas Gollock,
 persons in this
 of the Stamp
 as made in the
 nder sentence
 their escape.
 £20 salvage,
 ick ran ashore
 nis' Heart of
 ces.
 month.
 en the Galway
 rs. Wood, are
 e next season.
 action in Cork.
 5.
 urpose of get-ovement of the
 on Navigation

Army, to Charlotte, only daughter of the late JOHN DONALDSON, Esq.
 of Brighton.
 At Edinburgh, George William Denys, Esq. of the 68th Light Infantry, eldest son of Sir George Denys, Bart. to Catherine Eliza, eldest daughter of the late Michael Henry Perceval, Esq.
 At Kurnaul, East Indies, Captain P. F. Story, of the 9th Light Cavalry, to Anne, only daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Robert Rich, of the 23d Native Infantry.

DEATHS.

At Kilrush, on Monday, after a painful and protracted illness,
 which he bore with pious resignation and Christian fortitude, Arthur Brew, Esq. aged 28, eldest son of the late Geo. Brew, of Dunmore, Esq.
 At Graigue, near Adare, aged 76 years, Mr. Philip Sparling.
 He was upwards of 60 years a very faithful member of the Methodist Society. His walk through life was uniform and consistent with the Christian character, and his death was eminently marked with Divine peace and support, and the joyful anticipation of eternal life.
 At Streamstown, on Thursday last, Mrs. Ievers, widow of the late John Ievers, Esq. of Mount Prospect, county Clare.
 Of scarletina, in Cork, William Waggett Webb, third son of the Rev. Dr. Webb.
 In Leinster-street, Dublin, James S. Goslin, Esq.
 In Henrietta-street, Dublin, Lucius Stock, Esq.
 In Boyle, aged 28 years, the Rev. Thomas Hackett, jun. Curate of Boyle.
 At Ballyellis, county Wexford, the residence of his father, Richard Benjamin Dowse, late of Dublin, solicitor.
 Richard, only son of Richard Hudson, Esq. of Springfarm, county Wicklow.
 At Fermoy, aged 80, Mrs. Ellen Dennehy.
 In Castlebar, Mr. Thomas Martin, goldsmith and jeweller.
 Aged 84, James Brett, Esq. of Ballinakillin, county Wexford, the oldest Officer in the Reyvenue, and for thirty years commanding the Enniscorthy Yeomanry.
 On Friday, aged 20 years, at the house of her father, Richard O'Shaughnessy, Esq. of Friarstown, in this County, Catherine, the esteemed wife of Thomas Ryan, Esq. of Baggott street, Dublin.—
 This event has awakened in all within the circle of her acquaintance a feeling of the most painful regret for the loss of one so truly estimable.
 At her brother-in-law's, B. B. Hill, Esq. Armagh, after a few days' illness, Mary, sister of Richard Parsons, Esq. Cragbeg, co. Limerick.
 William Barton, Esq. of Clonelly, county Fermanagh, second son of the late William Barton, Esq. of Grove, county Tipperary, and father to the late High Sheriff, W. F. Barton, Esq.
 Of a lingering decline, in her 28th year, Eliza, eldest daughter of Luke Ferrall, Esq. of Killiney.
 Mr. Edmond Flynn, of Waterford, brewer.
 At Naas, Dorothea, daughter of the late Rev. Thomas Sutton, Vicar of the parishes of Clonard and Killyon, county Meath.
 Mr. Thomas Lyster, of Rathdowney, Queen's County.
 In London, Robert Stearne Tighe, Esq. of Mitchelstown, county
 Westmeath, aged 75 years.
 At Haslar Hospital, aged 45, Captain G. Strangways, R.N.
 On the Continent, Sir Samuel Watken, formerly High Sheriff of Gloucestershire, in his 37th year.
 At Bath, aged 28, Theresa Eliza, only daughter of the Rev.
 Henry Brereton.
 In his 89th year, Mr. William Savory, the oldest member of the Corporation of Calne.
 At Challoch, near Stranraer, Mr. David Ritchie, sen. aged 85.
 In Edinburgh, John Heggie, Esq. Secretary to the Caledonian Insurance Company.
 At Greenock, Mr. Thomas John Lynch, many years an actor of celebrity in the Theatres Royal, Dublin, Edinburgh, and Glasgow.
 In Jamaica, in the prime of life, Alexander Francis Tannachie Tulloch, Esq. son of Francis Tulloch, late Major of the 10th or Inverness Militia. He was burned to death in a still-house.
 At the Hotel De Princess, Rue Richelieu, Paris, the son of Colonel Sir Archibald Maclaine.
 At Paris, Charles Brackers De Hugo, Captain Commandant of the 4th Regiment of (French) Hussars.

Parent one of will Woollen Manufac
 be assured that th
 power to serve the last eight years P
 The lowest Cas
 article.

The Navy
 Is allowed by I surpass every lustre, which do
 water; possessing preserving, and being free from any climate. It military and merc
 Sold wholesale and NICOLAS, I
 Limerick by W
 George's-street;
 Mr. JOSEPH W
 and the principa
 WESTON, No. 3

Rose,
 a.
 Galway,
 and others.

One o'Clock in Quay, Dublin, s and fairest bid Liberties of the
 gaged premises i
 April, 1835.

The above Sa
 4th day of June
 Dated this 19

For particula
 to JAS. ROSE, I
 and Meeklinbu
 and Worrall, I

Creed, }
 a. } Creed. } bearing on M hour of One Chambers on t