

n? (hear and
 ion of the Shanblished between
 of Great Britain.
 es and Commerit is more than
 and the great n, which would ricultural inter-
 and every indi-
 have to say that e common calls of an outrage on that he was of neighbourhood of ns to bring the
 ue. Was it not nmmence the work
 ly ask, will you
 ed his own opi-
 dwelt in the immptoms of prac-
 e much censured,
 ent measure with ectable and influessageing.
 ow called to the men present were his zeal in cont, Esq. the Sub-
 the Chair.
 s for Mr. Steele,
 ral and commerrreat Britain and
 r summer—City,
 to.
 lay and Saturday
 's Rollicker, and
 k from Scotland.
 to try the Tralee
 t article just now,
 e Orphan Society
 , Falkner's Lane,
 room was filled by ter of the County
 then introduced,
 le clothing, gave nd guardians. A conformity with ns, a number of the formation of education of the Buckinghamshire, to Fanny Sophia, seventh surviving daughter of the late Rev. S. Langston, Rector of Little Horwood, same county.

 At Montreal, Upper Canada, Sergeant Thomas Gray, 24th Regiment, to Miss Ellen Fitzmaurice, of Tralee.
DEATHS.
 In Newenham-street, on Monday last, after a long season of meek and patient endurance, Richard Rose, Esq. late of Castle Matrix, in this Country.
 Mr. Joseph Crosbie, proprietor of the Globe Hotel, William-street, and late of the Limerick Club-House, George's-street.
 On the 26th inst. at Park House, CloghJordan, in the 29th year of his age, Delapere A. J. Robinson, Esq. (second son of the late Robert D. Robinson, of Ballynavin Castle, county Tipperary, Esq.)
 He has left to his afflicted family and friends the assured consolation that he is now numbered with the Redeemed in glory, as he died rejoicing in the blessed hope of a glorious immortality through the merits of a crucified Saviour.
 At the North Strand, after a tedious illness, to the deep regret of her husband and family, Margaret, wife of Mr. James Guerin, George's-street, Perfumer and Haberdasher.
 In Upper Glentworth-street, Mrs. O'Neill.
 On Thursday, the 28th ult. at her brother's residence in Nenagh, Miss Margaret O'Meara, only sister of James O'Meara, Esq. of that town. The demise of this amiable Lady is universally and sincerely regretted; her affability endeared to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, and her many but unostentatious charities had deservedly gained the affection of the poor.
 In Preston-square, Dublin, in the 92d year of her age, Mrs.
 Mabella O'Fallon, relict of Lieut.-Colonel Redmond O'Fallon, of the Modenese Service.
 In Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Mrs. Scott, relict of the Rev. John Scott, late Dean of Lismore.
 In Baggot-street, Dublin, Miss Hannah Pim, aged 78 years.
 At Julianstown, county Meath, Joseph, youngest son of Simon Owens, Esq. aged 20 years.
 At Verdant-hill, county Tipperary, the residence of her father, the Rev. Joseph Townsend, Maria, wife of the Rev. Thomas H.
 Montgomery, in the 20th year of her age.
 In Prussia-street, Dublin, William Connolly, Esq.
 In Queen-street, Dublin, Denis Lenehan, Esq.
 In her 13th year, Eliza, daughter of John Smyth, Esq. of Halston-street, Dublin.
 At his residence, Moatfield, Queen's County, Samuel Greene, Esq.
 At Marble-hill, Cork, Martha, wife of John V. Thompson, Esq.
 Deputy Inspector of Hospitals.
 At Sullivan's-Quay, Cork, Mr. Peter Murphy, veterinary surgeon.
 At his mother's house, near the South Terrace, Mr. Peter Ford.
 At Blackpool, Cork, Mr. Denis M'Carthy.
 At Mallow, Mrs. Dora Ryan.
 John Berkeley Deane, of Berkeley, county Waterford, Esq.
 In Tralee, Daniel, eldest son of Mr. Morrice M'Carthy, merchant.
 At the house of his sister, Mrs. Henry Wyndham, near Ripley, in the 35th year of his age, Lieut.-Colonel Charles Henry Somerset, second son of the late Lord Charles Henry Somerset, nephew of the Duke of Beaufort, and Lieut.-Colonel of the 1st Royal Dragoons.
 Elizabeth, daughter of G. S. Rutherford, M.D. surgeon, of Welbeck-street, London.
 At Woolwich, the Lady of J. M. Savage, Esq. Royal Horse Artillery.
 In the Marine-square, Brighton, Charlotte, wife of R. Bevan, Esq.
 At Vine House, Milborne Port, Somerset, Sir William Coles Medlycott, Bart. aged 68.
 At Bruntsfield-House, the seat of his brother-in-law, Major-General Sir John Dalrymple, Bart. of North Berwick.
 In Liverpool, Mr. Peter Regan, late of Whitechapel, aged 75 years.
 In Edinburgh, aged 82, Mrs. Gowdie, widow of Major General Francis Gowdie, of Prior Bank, Melrose.
 In Edinburgh, David George Sandeman, Esq. of Springfield, Perthshire, aged 78.
 At Cowes, Isle of Wight, the Baroness Kircudbright, wife of Robert Davies Esq. R.N.

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—JUNE 2.

Bank Stock, .....	226
Irish Three per cent Consols .....	90½
Government Stock, 3½ per Cent. ....	97½

William B
 London : and June 3:

This day is pu 23
 ron Color morocco clo

THE NAT
 by Sir V
 with numer
 Lizars.
 ICHTHYOLO
 Perch Kind,
 numerous W
 of Sir Joseph

- I. The Nat
- illustrated by
- Memoirs and
- II. The Na
- of the Game
- with Portraits
- Stamford Raf
- III. The I
- Thirty-one co
- Memoir of B
- IV. The N
- &c. illustrat
- and Portrait

" North.—
 by Sir William
 " How the
 ing, and sple
 gine."—Star Printed for don ; WILL Sold by all B

Distres
A T a Me
 A other this day in
 of taking int
 The Rev
 Thomas O
 to act as Sec
 Hickie, Esq
 Esq. Ahanag
 Resolved—
 Parish, am demands the viate it ; an the purchase Poor in such a Committe