

under weight, by the Market Jury, to be sent to the Widows Alms-house.

INSOLVENT DEBTOR to be heard at 3, Lower Ormond-quay, Dublin, 4th July next, Sir John Judkin Fitzgerald, Bart. of Lisheen, county Tipperary.

HUMANITAS has been sent to the proper quarter, where, no doubt, his complaint will receive due attention.

Committed to the County Gaol, by T. P. Vokes, Esq. Timothy Donovan, a deserter from 49th Regiment—by D. O'Grady, Esq. James Ryan, female violation—by J. W. Shelton, Esq. Simon Toohill, to pay £1 4s. or one month's imprisonment and hard labour, for having ash timber unlawfully in his possession.

(The following appeared in part of our last impression—)
APPREHENSION OF THE MURDERERS OF THE REV. MR. DAWSON.

Justice may be tardy, but in general it is sure to fasten upon that criminal who imbrues his guilty hands in the blood of his fellow man. In the above instance, however, the finger of an all-wise Providence was not slow to mark the sanguinary perpetrators, and with feelings of unaffected exultation, we have to announce that this morning, at the early hour of one o'clock, a party of Mr. Vokes's Police, in charge of Lieut. Pinchin and Mr. Franklin, Secretary to the above Chief Magistrate, arrested, upon private information, three men, John Hogan, Patrick Dillon, and David Fitzgerald, who are charged upon oath as the murderers of the Rev. Charles Dawson. They were severally taken by a combined movement of the Police force, in their beds at Ballinacarrig, the farm upon which Mr. Dawson was butchered, and within a short distance of the fatal spot on which his blood is yet fresh! This has been a signal manifestation of the unerring hand of Providence. These men were labourers in the employ of the tenants on Mr. Dawson's estate, and doubtless instruments of the formidable conspiracy which planned his murder. The reward has had already its effect, and retribution is at hand. They were fully committed this day to the County Gaol, after a preparatory examination by Thos. P. Vokes, at the Police-Office, where Dillon, overcome by his feelings, it is thought, at the critical situation in which he stood, absolutely fainted with exhaustion.

The 5th, 7th, 53d, and 60th, enjoyed good health at Malta, the 21st ult.

Lieut. Fairtlough, 16th regiment, stationed at Kilkenny for the last twelve months on the Recruiting Service, on being relieved by Lieut. West, of the 12th foot, is ordered to proceed to Enniskillen, to take charge of that sub-division, vice Lieut. Johnston, of the 33d, ordered to join his regt. in Dublin.

The Lord Lieutenant offers £100 reward for the murderers of William Johnston, Mr. O'Hara's bailiff, near Gort.

At the Curragh meeting on Thursday, Mr. Beere's colt, by Wrangler, won the King's plate of 100gs. for 4, 5, 6 yrs. old, and aged horses. Colonel Westenra's Whim, won the Northumberland handicap; and Lord Howth's Stiff, who first introduced the

At Springfield, near Palmer, Esq.
At Toher, Cork, P
At Newtown Cottag
Dowe, Esq.
In Sydney Avenue,
Rev. Doctor Strea
At his house Grattar
merchant of that city.
At Milltown, count
Mrs. Palmer, relict of
At Bandon, Franc
10th Veterans.
In Caledon, Mrs. Do
In Caledon, Mr. Orr
Tyrone Militia.
At Enniskillen, aged
At her father's house
In Liscannor, Andr
Belinda, wife of Mr.
In Maryborough, M
Of typhus fever, at Lalor, jun. son of the
At Derryloran Rect
Julia Helen, wife of th
At Castleblaney, Ma
of Ardtrea, Diocese o
College, Dublin.
At Oakland House,
At Lancaster-place,
In Green-street, Gro
Edward Robert, se
the Branch Bank of E
In London, David C
At Upper Gore, Ke
Hanover-square, in li
At Malvern, Louis
daughter of Colonel E
At Tunbridge Wells,
3d Foot Guards
At Stellenburgh, Tu
Colonel Christopher H
At Brighton, Dr. Ja
At Coteau-du-Lac, C schoolmaster, a na
Sergeant of 4th Drag
At Kingston, Jama
At Ablon, near Pa
At Montego Bay, J
Preacher.
At Secunderabad, C
India Company's 28th
Robert Disney, Prebe

PRICES

Bank Stock,
Irish Three p
Government
Government

14 COU
Margaret Abbott Plaintiff.
James Baker and
others,
Defendants.

27th day of June in
noon, at my Chan
by public Cant, to