

visits in places
executed out of by magistrate and examine on nt from their erson convicted,
for the same.
cting those in gainst as for a in force longer
the Exchange obtain penalties
the case of the ng in their pre-labels or covers
The Magistrates
on the objection ormation of the
of information,
The Attorney
on.
d lightning on g, accompanied and distinct, but in awful spleneared a sheet of d town suffered ty, a horse was A Gardener,
Cork, was killed
ough the county poor box of the ported 200 paunds.
to have received
D'Donnell, C. B. y and City Farmedal value £2 is thank us for the t to his Majesty,
the Royal Infir-
of the mild and ng the numerous t, but intends, we ort time.
st impression.)
yesterday in the
at Newbridge for panies, under the nday: the second

Pheoba, eldest daughter of James Johnston, Esq. of Middletoun.
At St. Mary's church, London, Lieut. Thos. Fairclough, half-pay 90th Regiment, to Miss Mary Rice. The bridegroom is in his 30th year, and the bride but 75.
At St. Luke's church, Chelsea, Philip Hughes, Esq. of the Treasury, to Emily, third daughter of Richard Hurley, Esq. of Whitelands House, Chelsea, and Conduit-street, Hanover-square.
At the Parish church of Measham, the Rev. William T. Sandys, M.A. Vicar of St. Mary's, Beverley, and Domestic Chaplain to the Right Hon. Lord Belhaven, to Catherine Elizabeth, only daughter of the late William Wootton Abney, Esq. Royal Horse Guards Blue, and sister of Wm. Wootton Abney, Esq. of Measham Hall, Derbyshire.
At the Friends' Meeting House, Darlington, Rolles Driver, of Southampton, to Sarah Smith, of the former place.
At Cobourgh, North America, Captain William Handley, late 11th Light Dragoons, to Helen, daughter of Robert P. Boucher, Esq.
DEATHS.
At Portobello, near Edinburgh, Captain Francis Hutchings Ansell, late 74th Regiment, father of Captain Augustus F. Ansell, and Lieut.
E. C. Ansell, both of the 7th Regiment.
The Rev. Michael Ryan, P.P. of Booterstown, Dublin.
Yesterday, Mrs. Curran, wife of Mr. Thomas Curran, coach-proprietor, Brunswick-street.
At Silvermines, county Tipperary, Mary, widow of the late Mr. Peter Browne.
At Scariff, Thomas, son of the late Mr. David Molony, of Conlcagh.
Michael, son of Richard Ronayne, Esq. of Evergreen-Lodge, Cork.
In New-street, Waterford, Richard James Kearney, Esq.
At Carlow, Mr. Edward Bolger.
In Castlebar, Mr. Joynt Smith,—and Mr. William Christie.
At Glenegary Lodge, Dalkey, aged 18, Frances Maria Johnson, only child of the late T. Johnson, Esq. of Ballymacash, co. Antrim.
In the 15th year of her age, Charlotte, the eldest daughter of the Rev. William Rielly, Wesleyan Minister.
At Tivoli Cottage, Kingstown, George Jackson, Esq. one of the Solicitors of the Corporation of Dublin.
At Wexford, William Gunning Baird, Esq. Manager of the Wexford Branch of the Provincial Bank of Ireland.
At Kyle-house, Queen's County, in the 91st year of his age, Richard Steele, Esq.
At Ballinglee Abbey, Wexford, James Ramsey Birnie, Esq.
At the Deanery, the Rev. William Blackstone Rennell, son of the Dean of Winchester, and Fellow of King's College, Cambridge.
By the upsetting of a boat at Blackfriars-bridge, George, third son of William Langmore, M.D. of Finsbury-square.
At Chelsea, Gilbert Stuart Newton, Esq. B.A. late of Boston, in the United States of America.
At Brighton, Louisa Anne Agnew, daughter of the late Major-General Agnew, of the Madras Army.
At Manor House, Deptford, Kent, Captain Hillman, of the Hon.
East India Company's Service.
At Jura House, Archibald Campbell, Esq. of Jura, in his 91st year.
At Madeley Manor, Staffordshire, in her 18th year, Eglantine, second daughter of the late Sir Philip Grey Egerton, Bart. of Oulton-park, Cheshire At Everton, near Liverpool, in his 22d year, Richard Daniel, third son of Thomas F. Dyson, Esq.
Maria, wife of Major-General Sir Alexander Keith, K.C.B. of Freefield and Glenkennie, Aberdeenshire, and daughter of R. W. D.
Thorp, M.D. of Leeds, Yorkshire.
At Weymouth, Major-General Cole.
At Moira, in the 25th year of his age, Adam Hewitt, Esq. M.D.
At Cheltenham, Richard Harrisson, Esq. Remembrancer of the First Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy.
At sea, on passage to Bombay, Lieutenant Bridgman.
At Bombay, Provost Serjeant James King.—and Jane, the Lady of W. Keys Fogerty, Esq. Surgeon.
At Kaira, Bombay Presidency, Mary Emily, only daughter of James S. Unwin, Esq. Artillery.
At Halifax, Lieut. James Cragg, R.N. aged 47 years.

by letter, post-12 PATENT Pe Pens. Th
confers on the agreeable softn unconstrained
and enables it
ease and expedi
2s. 6d. Perry tured expressly made from Qu
The usual In
from their cor
Perryian Ink
and has a flo Pens, and will Writing perf
a deep raven b or under any c Perryian Ink
of Ink, at 1s.
Sold by all S
the Manufacto
Bottle, and Pa
& Co."
Sold by app
Book and Stat

13
Under the Pat
THE BOT
Flowerin
Floral Registe
1s. 6d. large Each numb TATIONS of Plants, suitab with minute
their history,
the botanist,
figures are pla
from nature.
The additio
without incre
it has so long useful publica natural histor any work on
No. 121, th
Each volume demand for e print, and a
"This, we Gazette,) is c
tions of Bota

