The severe affliction which she experienced in the premature and melancholy fate of a beloved son, Philip Primrose, Esq. 73d Regiment, had undermined a naturally vigorous constitution, and she fell a speedy victim to fever. Mrs. Primrose was cousin to the Member for Dublin, and sister to Major-General Sir Maurice Charles O'Connell, K.C.H.
In West Watergate, Mr. Edward Fitzgibbon.
At Lower Fitzwilliam-street, Dublin, Juliet Studdert, aged 63 years, relict of the late Rev. R. Studdert, Rector of Ballyroan, Queen's Co.
In Warrington-place, Dublin, Martin Connolly, Esq. age 29, only surviving son of the late Martin Connolly, Esq. Lower Mount-street.
At Hamilton-row, Dublin, much regretted, Mrs. Catherine Collins, relict of the late Mr. Nicholas Collins, of Bolton-street, builder, and sister of the late Rev. Michael Bernard Corr, North Anne-street Chapel.
At Youghal, Captain John Manning Mailleue, late of the 99th Regt.
At Tullamore, Captain Rawson, 82d Regiment.
At the Archdeaconry-house, Adamstown, Wexford, Robert Clifford, eldest son of the Rev. John Alexander.
At Ross, county Meath, Mrs. Somerville.
At Berehaven, Maria Caroline, wife of E. Sharkey, Esq. M.D.
In the Monastery at Dungarvan, Mr. J. J. Dollard, a member of the Christian School Society.
At Cove, Pierce William, only son of W. Purcell, Esq. of Altamira. Mrs. Hornibrook, of North Chapel-street, Cork.
At Cove, Charles, youngest son of Charles Riall, of Heywood, county Tipperary, Esq.
Of scarletina, Mary, wife of the Rev. John Alcock, of Kilkenny.
At Cantry Lodge, Borris-in-Ossory, Peter Henry Shortt, Esq. aged 66.
At Moville, aged 60 years, W. O'Doherty, Esq. of Derry. . . .
