

...manned or
...for the avowed
...his, upon being
...Phillips during
...opposed to the
...England. Mr. S.
...to make another
...till (as the supe-
...was self-evident)
...against time, in
...part is I think
...at in equal boats,
...age afforded him
...ps has written to
...matters, to ascer-
...e whether such a
...a skiffing match,
...nt in paying his
...ould advise such
...their bets until
...known. I beg
...enned neither in
...ar less are they
...other, thinking,
...emanly rivalry in
...omoted amongst
...lling of cordiality
...and with many
...valuable columns,
...obedient servant,
FAIR PLAY.
...as well attended,
...ttle, especially
...and pigs were in
...edges "the sol-
...parish, from a
...nt—also, for the
...l. 3l.; a friend,
...l.; Mr. John
...S. 7s. 6d.—and
...d of fresh straw.
...t impression.)
...ch, on the 27th
...Charles Dalbiac,
...ne before him.
...of Royal Horse
...heffield barracks,
...d.
...rtillery marched
...ol, where it will
...r Ireland.
...d from Liverpool
...Liverpool.

At Forge Lodge, Dumries-shire, Captain Bowiby, of the Royal Artillery, to Margaret Matilda, daughter of Pultney Mein, Esq.

In Berbice, Thomas Bassell Winter, Esq. to Catherine Johnson, only daughter of Thomas Coleman, Esq.

DEATHS.

On the 15th instant, to the inexpressible grief of her afflicted family, Arabella, second daughter of Benjamin Friend, Esq. of Rockboro', and grand daughter of Colonel Gough, of Ardsalla.

At the Glebe house, near Killorglan, Kerry, the Rev. Connoly O'Neil, for many years the venerable Rector of that parish.

At Lower Gloster-street, Dublin, Margaret, wife of Mr. Thomas Hanratty.

In Ennis, Miss Power, sister of the late William Power, Esq. of that place.

At Audley Place, Cork, aged 69 years, Anne, relict of the late John Skottowe, Esq. Commander in the Hon. the East India Company's Service.

The Rev. Gustavus H. M'Causland, Rector of Piltown, co. Kilkenny.

At Port-Stewart, Rosa, wife of Thomas Harpur, Esq., College-square, North, Belfast.

At Rathmines, near Dublin, of a short illness, William Evans, Esq. late of Henry-street, in this City, a very worthy and exemplary man. His death is sincerely regretted by his friends, but to an affectionate young family the loss is irreparable.

After a few hours' illness, at Claremount, Dundalk, the seat of his nephew, Thomas Fortescue, Esq. Samuel Meade Hobson, Esq. of Merrion-square, Dublin, Assistant Barrister for the county Tipperary. In private life, as a husband, a father, and a friend, he shone conspicuous; his public duties, as Chairman of a large and extensive County, he performed with strict impartiality.

At Cheltenham, Maurice King, Esq. of the Irish Bar, one of the late Commissioners of Corporation Inquiry on the Leinster circuit.

At Bray, Miss Frances Maria Dwyer, in her 52d year, fifth daughter of John Dwyer, Esq. of Marlfield, Cabintelly, county Dublin.

At Passage East, Waterford, aged 78, David Richardson, Esq. one of the oldest Lieutenants of the Royal Navy.

In Cadogan-place, London, Ann, widow of J. S. Charton, late of the Grenadier Guards, in her 86th year.

In Upper Harley-street, London, Jemima, the wife of Sir Joseph de Courcy Laffan, Bart.

Charlotte, wife of Mr. Biggar, Aldersgate-street, and sister of the late Admiral B. Douglas, aged 72.

At the Bank of England, having just completed his 75th year, Thomas Rippon, Esq. chief cashier.

Captain Charles Knatchbull, on half-pay of the 20th Light Dragoons, aged 46.

In Compton-terrace, Islington, John Warran, Esq. aged 78.

At Tadma-ton-house, King's-road, Chelsea, Captain Thomas M. Carter, late 101st Regiment.

At St. Mary's-place, Popler, Commander T. Favell, R.N.

At Bath, Mrs. Sydenham, widow of Major-General Sydenham, Commandant of the Madras Artillery, in her 85th year.

At North Cave, aged 88, Mrs. Ann Mook, of Thorpbassett, near Malton. She was a member of the Methodist Society 61 years.

At Baddow-hall, Essex, John M'Lachlan, Esq. for many years an active Magistrate of that county.

At Haslingden, in her 71st year, Mary, the widow of George Hargreave, Esq.

At Shrub's Hill, Thomas Moat, Esq. Vice-President of the British College of Health.

At Ilfracombe, Catherine, widow of the Rev. John Boget, and sister of the late Sir Samuel Romilly, aged 80.

In Cheltenham, Lieut.-General Prole, of the Hon. East India Company's Service.

John Clinch, Esq. Special Magistrate at St. Catherine's, Jamaica.

At Kingston, Jamaica, James, son of Bernard Cassidy, Esq. of Belfield, county Mayo.

At Clarendon, Jamaica, the Rev. J. Corbett, Wesleyan Missionary.

At St. Mary's, Jamaica, James Jackson, Esq. special Magistrate, and formerly Lieutenant and Adjutant 94th Regiment.

At Honduras, Elizabeth, wife of Major M'Pherson, 2d West India Regiment.

At Naples, Thomas James Mathias, Esq. in his 82d year.

At Interlaken, in Switzerland, (having been unfortunately drowned when bathing), Charles, second son of Major-General the Hon. P. Stuart, aged 18 years.

...extensive than e
...by his unremitte
...business carried
As this is th
the West of Ire
to take notice
superior to any
the Proprietor
much improved,
any kind of con
to work the M anything before
Oat bruizing M
Axles for all k
and highest finis
and Distillers.
Machines; Stra
every descriptio
any description
Metal, Brass, o engaged.

GRE

15

RE

HAS just lar from Lon
Congou TEAS, v
were purchased them to the Pub
lately charged,

Good Black T
Fine Congou.
Fine Black Le
Finest Black T
The Tea at 4
Tea," but that is generally pur

improve its qu
possibly have t his Concern.

Good Green T
Hyson.....
Fine Hyson.
Finest ditto..
The purchase
small profit of t Dealers and
tunity of purcha

His Stock of ranted of first-
cannot fail to g
He daily expe
a few late of