In Holland, G. Ackermann, Esq. of the Strand, to Jeannette, daughter of J. Haefkins, Esq. Chief Magistrate of Leerdam.

At the house of the British Minister at Berne the Rev. Charles Lushington, son of Sir Henry Lushington, Bart. to Susan Rose, daughter of Captain James Tweedale, late of the Hon. East India Company's Service.

DEATHS.

In Upper Cecil-street, Catherine, widow of the late Richard Peacocke, of Dooneen, Esq. near Patrick's-Well.

In Upper Cecil-street, after an illness of some weeks, borne with singular patience and resignation to the Divine will, Eliza, widow of the late Captain James Ewart, 93d Highlanders,—a lady possessed of all those feminine accomplishments, both of mind and manners, which secured to the last moment of a well spent life the affection and esteem of those who knew but to appreciate her in the endearing relations of social and domestic life, whether as mother, wife, or friend. To a young and interesting family the loss of such a parent is irreparable.

At Kildorrery, Mrs. Washington, wife of Mr. George Washington, Preacher in the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Connexion.

On Wednesday, at his brother's house, at Corofin, Henry Allen,
Esq. of Trinity College, aged 19, sincerely and deservedly regretted.
He departed this life rejoicing in the hope of the glory of God, and in the full assurance of faith in a crucified Redeemer.

At Bellvue, Upper Rathmines, Michael Ryan, Esq.

At his residence, Mount Heaton Lodge, near Roscrea, Captain James Read, late of the 17th Lancers.

In Oriel-street, Dublin, Mr. Edward Coyne, aged 58 years.

In Tralee, Mrs. J. M'Moran, daughter of the late Dr. Thomas Reeves, Apothecary to the Forces, cousin to the late General Sir Robert Travers, and grand-daughter of Lord John Russell, formerly Governor of Minorca.

Of a rapid decline, at Monkstown Glebe, county Cork, the residence of her brother, Vicar of that parish, Jemima Hill Hollingsworth, aged 19, youngest daughter of Samuel Hollingsworth, Esq.
formerly of Ince Hall, Lancashire.

In Cove-street, Cork, Mary, wife of Mr. John Daly, sculptor.

In Dingle, suddenly of apoplexy, Mr. Edward Rice, brother-in-law of Mr. Forhan, who was hurried to the tomb by a similarly fatal seizure last week.

Aged 90, at Carrickmaquigley, Amelia, youngest and only daughter of the late Edward Carey, Esq. of Castle Carey, county Donegal.

Walter Vandeleur, Esq. formerly Supervisor of Excise, Londonderry.

Mary, wife of Charles Sharman, Esq. of Derrylusk, co. Monaghan.

At the early age of 18 years, after a long and painful illness, George, third son of Dobbyn Casey, Esq. of Fort Lodge, near this City. The death bed of this young man exhibited a truly edifying picture of the blessings of religion: feeling an assurance that his affliction was but a call to make ready to meet his God, he suffered without a murmur.

At Newport, Waterford, the seat of Sir John Newport, Bart.
William Newport, Esq. son of the late William Newport, of Belmont, Esq. and nephew of the Barbnet.

Francis Goodwin, Esq. of King-street, Portman-square, London.

At Woodside, near Liverpool, Henry Connor, Esq. of Dublin.

At Gurteen, Dundrum, Mr. John Alexander Larymore.

In Bedford New-road, Clapham, Mrs. Mary Airey Prime.

In the 93d year of his age, at his residence, Brixton-hill, Surrey, Sir William Blizard, Knight, F.R.S. and F.A.S. a Member of the Court of Examiners of the Royal College of Surgeons of London, &c.

At Ray Lodge, near Maidenhead, Berks, Isaac Pocock, Esq. a Deputy Lieutenant, and Justice of the Peace for Berkshire, aged 54.

At Bridgford Hill, Notts, aged 81, the Rev. T. Beaumont, Magistrate for that county.

At Hammersmith, John Goff, Esq. in his 59th year.

At Garreglywd, Holyhead, aged 85 years, John Jones, Esq. formerly Commander of one of his Majesty's packets on the Falmouth and Holyhead stations, and probably the last surviving officer who was present at the memorable siege of the Havannah in 1763.
