DEATHS.

On Wednesday, at his house, Stephen's-Green, Dublin, to the deep regret of his family and friends, Edward O'Grady, Esq.
barrister-at-law, brother of Viscount Guillamore
In Cork, of fever, Captain Henry Stuart, late of the 69th Regiment, second son of the late Thomas Stuart, Esq. of Lifford, near this City.
Captain Stuart was an Officer of experience, and possessed talent of every quality calculated to render him an object of respect and esteem both amongst his brother Officers and private friends. The greater part of his military career was served in the East Indies, and his conduct as a soldier was always marked by promptness, decision, and courage. A few short months since he left the Army to commence a new life in his native land,—and though bright and happy prospects seemed to await him, yet an Allwise Providence willed otherwise. An attached husband and a fond parent, his young Family will deeply lament his early fate, which ought to keep alive in our minds the awful sentence, that "in the midst of life we are in death."
After a protracted, and latterly very painful, illness, Lucy, fourth daughter of the late James Molony, Esq. of Kiltanon, county Clare, in the 48th year of her age.
At Warren's Place, Cork, Louisa, wife of James Wherland, Esq.

merly of Dublin, and niece of Edward Hodson, Esq. late of Rath-Yarnham, deceased.
At Butler's Bridge, county Cavan, Mrs. M'Donald.
In Mary-street, Dublin, Mrs. Maryanne Doyle.
At Westport, Mr. John Regan.
In Tralee, rather suddenly, Mrs. Jameson, relict of Jameson, Esq.
of Cork, and daughter of the late Richard Chute, of Roxborough, Esq.
At Rathnally, county Meath, Sir John Gibney, M.D.
Of consumption, Robert Acton, Esq. M.D. only son of Joseph Acton, Esq. and nephew of Doctor Acton, of Castlebar.
At Rathowen, the Rev. James Martin, P.P. of Russa and Rathes-peck, in the 75th year of his age.
At Rome, in the prime of life, William Roche, Esq. late of Aghada House, county Cork.
In Belfast, Mrs. Montgomery, relict of John Montgomery, of Locust Lodge, Esq.
In Camden-street, Dublin, Mr. Thomas Cooney, printer.
Henry Gower, Esq. solicitor.
At Rathgar, Clarissa, daughter of William Brassington, Esq.
Alexander Berry, Esq. of Rockfield, Cavan.
At his house in Nottingham-street, St. Marylebone, Francis Godman Capell, Esq. aged 70.
At Old Dorset-place, Clapham-road, Mrs. Ann Parker, aged 66.
In Cary-street, Lincoln's-Inn, Mrs. Ann Vanderkiste, late of Vauxhall, aged 67.
At Brighton, Edward Sidgwick, Esq. of the Paragon, Blackheath.
At his seat in Wigtonshire, Colonel Cathcart, of Genoch, aged 60.
At Belper, Derbyshire, George Brettle, Esq. of Wood-street, Cheapside, and Brixton-hill, Surrey, in the 58th year of his age.
At Hadley, Middlesex, Elizabeth, relict of the late Major Neate, 57th Regiment.
At Brighton, Mr. John Christian Mencke, for forty years a distinguished member of King George IV.'s celebrated band.
Aged 39 years, the Rev. Thomas Fairclough, who was thirteen years Catholic Priest of St. Mary's Chapel, Edmund-street, Liverpool.
At Westpark, Florissant, Missouri, United States, John Hallagan, Esq. late of the firm of Chambers and Hallagan, stationers, of Dublin.
At Bellville, Upper Canada, the Rev. Thomas Campbell, a native of Ireland.
At Monaghan, Upper Canada, Mr. Michael Graham, formerly of Fermanagh, Ireland, aged 88.
At Eskdalemuir, on the 21st September, in the 69th year of his age, and the 44th of his ministry, the Rev. William Brown, D.D. minister of that parish, and author of "The Antiquities of the Jews."
