DEATHS.

At Newstead, near Sydney, on the 31st of May, in his 60th year, James Murray, Esq. late Paymaster of the 48th Regiment, and formerly of this City, sincerely and most deservedly lamented by his family, friends, and acquaintances, to whom he was endeared by his kind, amiable, and highly honourable deportment through life. Mr. Murray served during the Peninsular war as Paymaster of the Coldstream Guards; he was appointed to the 48th in 1815, and accompanied that corps to New South Wales in 1817, and subsequently to India, where he suffered so much from the climate that he retired from the Army in 1826, and settled with his family in New South Wales, where his death has caused a vacuum in society which will be long felt and deplored.

Mr. David Spowart, of the Caledonia Iron Foundry, a most industrious and intelligent artificer, whose death is a severe calamity to his amiable wife and numerous family. Mr. Spowart was a native of North Britain.

In Mary-street, Mr. Donat Kennedy, glazier and painter, an honest, charitable man.

Mrs. Deborah Sale, wife of R. M. Sale, of Dublin, Esq. Suddenly, Mr. Robert Newsome, many years Manager of the Meath-street Savings Bank and its several branches.

At Knockgraffon, Tipperary, Mr. Daniel Heffernan, at the age of 84. The Rev. Mr. Walsh, Roman Catholic Curate of Ennis.

Tuesday, at Rouen Lodge, county Tipperary, of measles, sincerely and deservedly lamented, Margaret, wife of Thomas Smithwick Manning, Esq.

The Rev. Robert Anglen, of St. Michael and John's Chapel, Dublin, aged 32.

Suddenly, Mr. James Carroll, of Castlebar.

Mrs. Powning, wife of Mr. Ambrose Powning, of Castlebar. In Belfast, Jane, wife of S. M'Dowel Elliott, Esq. solicitor.

At Cookstown, county Tyrone, John Young, Esq. Surgeon in the Royal Navy.

In Hanover-square, St. George's, Lieutenant the Hon. John Forbes, of the 79th Regiment, son of General Lord Forbes.

John Thomas Thorp, Esq. Alderman for Aldgate Ward, and Governor of the Hon. the Irish Society of London.

At Hayle Cottage, Maidstone, in his 78th year, Theophilus Jones, Esq. Admiral of the White.

At Streatham, Charlotte, third daughter of the late Matthew Holland, Esq. of Sackville-street, Piccadilly.

At Chawton, Hants, Captain Benjamin Clement, R.N.

At Edinburgh, George Robertson Scott, Esq. of Benholm.
