

as landed at General of the tour in Ger-and a party of
at all the troops to the Government to the Queen of smouth from rs from Cork.
, Engineers ;
1st Lancers ;
missariat ; all
ght Dragoons, steamer from he wrote to nouncing his ve time to give urday evening, time. It was before Sunday
r several hours ate information e vessel being out giving any time after. I the movement
ll be better able I can possibly h by the officers ame to any one his officers be-he voyage, and ould not have
; he has caused
. I have been Convent is the n in a most

The next General Quarter Sessions for this County commence at Rathkeale on Monday, 28th December, and at Limerick, on Tuesday, 5th January. Crown business on the 4th day in each division.

The Waterford Mailcoach, due at seven o'clock yesterday morning, did not arrive here, but the guard and mail drove up to the Post office in a chaise at ten o'clock. The delay was occasioned by the boisterous weather, and restive horses, who upset the vehicle on the previous night, and hurt the driver, but not seriously.

The Mayor, yesterday, held an inquest at the County Infirmery upon the body of Michael Heffernan, toll-collector at Blackboy turnpike, who died of injuries he received at that station from a person of the name of David Sexton, who has absconded. Verdict accordingly.

Friday evening, two brothers, shoemakers, named Ryan, residing in a cellar in Church-street, Ennis, had a dispute, when the younger blew out the candle and seizing a knife, inflicted two severe wounds upon his brother. The perpetrator made his escape immediately. The brother is in the Infirmery.

The Lord Lieutenant has offered £50 reward for the murderers of Thomas Ryan, servant to Mrs. Synan, of Fedamore, in this County—and £100 for the murderers of Timothy Coffey, a labourer of John M'Namara, at Manister, in this County—which outrages were announced in our columns of Saturday the 14th instant.

Government offer a reward of £60 for the armed party that attacked the Rev. Mr. Banner of Bansha, Tipperary, and severely assaulted that Clergyman.

The Magistrates of Kerry assemble at Tralee on Monday next, to appoint 22 additional Police Constables for the barony of Corkaguiny, in that County.

John Leary, for the murder of Cornelius Sullivan, three years past, has been fully committed to Cork gaol, having been discovered by the Police of Macroom.

In a carman's stage, kept by a person of the name of Thomas Donoughue, Anne-street, Cork, a carrier was was last week robbed of near £100 in letter parcels, and and another carman of six guineas, which were all given in care to the proprietor's wife at night, but Donoughue took care to abscond with the booty before morning.

Saturday morning an old house at the back gate of