

na for Liverpool.
of this City, whose deaturday, has bequeathed blishments of this City,
-hill, Galway, is about to Miss Ffrench, daughter

ent Lord Kingsborough
s large estates in Cork, el Fitzmaurice Burke, of
of the Kingston property e, of Cork.

a Harbour Commissioner
Major Thomas Bodkin.
s to preside at the public on. Sir Robert Peel, Bart. will be able to avail himself ters gave a disfranchising ich was overruled by the rk, Mr. Mayne, Antrim, Mr. Hassard, acting as

sq. for Waterford.

, has had the assistance of ery of his rents. alk, is to be Collector of vacant by the resignation uted allowance.

collected at the charity
the Protestant Orphan

Society last week, selected establishment, which now e liberals of Roscommon, oxboro', Esq. their Secre-ver salver, with inscription cause.

state in which the widow Lee, who died last summer cease, a subscription was arishes of Monkstown and Lord Chancellor and the no less than £98.

d in the case of Chaytor andidates are liable to the of Derryquin, Esq. heads tal amount, £52.
e opened in Cork.

but a very insignificant ounty.

ke, Esq. Chief Remem-Irish Poor Law Inquiry
e after Christmas.

Session of Parliament for ungarvan, near the Cun-the door was fastened outside. Another person of the name of Lane, who assisted Guiry in the protection of Mr. Locke's men had a narrow escape, as a stack of straw in the rere of his house was also set fire to, but providentially he awoke and saw the light through the window before the flames reached the thatch of the house. Lane lives on the same townland, about 3 miles from Newcastle.

The Commercial Buildings Committee yesterday—Hughes Russell, Esq. Chairman—having considered the Requisition laid before them for expulsion of the Age Newspaper, adopted the following resolution:—"Resolved, That the subject of the above requisition being one of great importance, and the Committee wishing to pay every attention to the wishes of so numerous a body of respectable Proprietors and Subscribers, feel it due to them, and for the interest of the establishment, to postpone the further consideration thereof to the next monthly day of meeting."

The body of a young countryman, named Coghlan, from Tervoe vicinity, who fell out of a row-boat near the lower quays, the first of last month, was found yesterday morning.

Patrick Hickey, who died in the City Infirmary last Saturday morning, had fallen into the hold of a vessel at Shannon Quay, where he was working the day before, and the injury resulting from which was the immediate cause of his death, but purely accidental. The Mayor held an inquest on the body, and the Jury found accordingly.

Friday, the 11th instant. the Mayor and Magistrates will revise the general list of Jurors for the City, at the Tholsel.

The County Magistrates assembled at Rathkeale on Monday to revise the Jurors' list, and they meet at the County Court House this day for like purpose.

The Lord Lieutenant has offered £50 reward, for the men who attacked and beat the keepers of Counsellor Evans, at Lismakeery, in this County, and a similar reward for the party who fired shots at the residence of Mr. Evans, near Barrington's Bridge, in this County.

A few nights past the house of John Sweeny, at Fortmoy, Lower Ormond, was attacked by several men, who beat a woman named Quin, residing there and broke her arm.

The sons of Mr. Buckley, Woollen Manufacturer, Roscrea, on their way to Church a few days ago, were attacked at Summer-hill, by several persons who beat them, and Cavanagh, a principal man in their employ, with sticks and stones. Government offer thirty pounds for discovery of the assailants.

A poor woman, named Catherine Lawney, who, for many years, hawked fruit and other articles about Tralee, fell suddenly in the street, on Thursday last, and instantly expired.

A poor man named Sayers, perished, owing to the inclemency of the weather, on the night of Thursday last, at a place called Lack, eastward of Castlemain, Kerry.

At a meeting of the Shareholders in the Carrick-on-Suir branch of the new National Bank on Saturday, to protest against any change in the Manager's department, a letter was read from Mr. Murray, one of the head directors, stating that no change had taken place.

We are authorized to state, in reference to a paragraph which appeared in this Paper, stating a report that a young gentleman had been fired at, and an investigation into the which the Magistrates came to the deci-