

outside. It may could attempt to narrowness of its
 times with consi-
 which none of the
 have alluded to,
 e bay, lying broad,
 a, and which, once
 its dangerous and
 ruption.
 projects which in
 of the community,
 mar the otherwise
 for personal emolu-
 have four or five of the West, and amending harbours
 ways.
 erick sleep to their aking? When the
 and the establish-h of their splendid importance to the
 worthy of attention,
 be called for the
 on of the Shannon,
 to enter into sub-
 for a Rail-road, say
 The advantages of a k, with the interior
 erent, for in laying mountainous impedi-with Valentia; but a ffers encouragement
 ther with a saving
 ent saving of time
 he mails.
 HE R. W. Y. C. r last impression.)
 e 94th, in charge of
 ters from Tipperary,
 nt, at Cappaghwhite,
 cept that at Roscrea)
 Ford, at Killenaule.
 Ensign M'Kirby, at obtained extension of
 or Maclean continues
 t at Templemore.
 s, is now in prison at very little doubt but conspiracy.
 Carnatic to be spoken
 east; and in another
 at the Cape of Good
 his city, and family.
 be brought forward
 of the whole of the

Stewart, of Fincastle, Perthshire.
 -At St. George's church, Guelph Upper Canada, Frank Smith, Esq. of Canterbury, to Amy, fifth daughter of George Davis, Esq. of Allington Grove, late of Oxfordshire.
DEATHS.
 At Abington, on yesterday, Benjamm Keays, Esq. unfeignedly and sincerely regretted by his disconsolate widow and a numerous circle of sorrowing relatives and friends.
 In Killarney, in the prime of life, Richard M'Carthy, Esq. son of the late Lieut.-Colonel William M'Carthy, of the 96th Regiment.
 He was the last surviving child of a widowed mother, his gallant father having lost six children since he quitted the army.
 In Upper Fitzwilliam-street, Dublin, Edward Pearson Bryan, Esq.
 second son of the late William John Bryan, Esq. of Ballinapark, county Wicklow.
 At Bohergloss, near this City, Mr. Thomas Harte, at the advanced age of 102 years.
 At Kilrush, in his 53d year, Mr. John Spaight, many years an efficient member of the Revenue department.
 In Strand-street, Tralee, Mrs. Twiss, relict of Francis Twiss, Esq.
 late of Thornhill, near Milltown.
 At her residence, Old Merrion House, Dublin, Mrs. Eliza Manly.
 In Aungier-street, Dublin, at an advanced age, John Ardill, Esq.
 solicitor, father of Counsellor Ardill, and 51 years Clerk of the Peace for Westmeath.
 In George's-place, William, eldest son of W. H. Cuthbert, Esq. M.D.
 In Rutland-square, Dublin, John Pearson, Esq.
 At the North Strand, Mrs. Anne Higgins.
 In Mallow, aged 75 years, Mr. John Hare, many years a merchant of Cork.
 Mrs. Dee, relict of the late Mr. William Dee, of Clonmel.
 Miss Jane Attridge, aged 23, eldest daughter of Thomas Attridge, Esq. of Norton Cottage, Skibbereen.
 In Marlborough-square, Chelsea, Mr. William Potter.
 Mr. Thomas Heaphy, artist, aged about 60. His grand work was a historical picture, containing portraits of Wellington and his illustrious companions in arms.
 Mr. Thomas Taylor, the Platonist. He was born in 1758, and educated at St. Paul's School; he was a man of immense erudition, with very peculiar opinions.
 At St. Leonard's, Susan, wife of W. Davis, Esq. late Queen's Bays.
 At Milton Abbott, in his 85th year, the Rev. Dr. Jago, Vicar of that parish and Rattery, both in the county of Devon.
 At Bermondsey, in her 82d year, Cordelia, relict of the late Rev.
 John Townsend, of Jamaica-row Chapel, and founder of the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb.
 At Torquay, the Rev. Arthur George Palk, youngest son of the late Sir Lawrence Palk, Bart.
 At Brislington, near Bristol, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Major Davy, H.E.I.S.
 At Carnarvon, aged 61, G. Morris, Esq. late Dover-street, London.
 At Walton-hall, Lancashire, aged 68 years, Sir Henry Philip Hoghton, Bart.
 At Twickenham, Miss Letitia Matilda Hawkins, in her 76th year.
 She was daughter of Sir John Hawkins, and author of "Siegwart,"
 "The Countess," and "Gertrude," and other works of fiction.
 At Dowry-square, Hotwells, Bristol, in the morning of life, Jane, second daughter of the late Thomas Newman, of Hollyhill, co. Cork.
 Lady Kier Grant, Royal Crescent, Bath.
 At Wakefield, John Pemberton Heywood, Esq. in his 80th year.
 In Edinburgh, the Hon. Wm. Robertson, late one of the senators of the College of Justice.
 At Aberdeen, Captain John Clyne, late of the 1st Royals, aged 58.
 On his passage from Bombay to St. Helena, Colonel Anthony Morse, Quartermaster-General of the Army, Bombay. His remains were conveyed to St. Helena, and their interment attended by the Governor and Staff, with military honours due to his rank.
 At Keppochhill, Glasgow, Janet, eldest daughter of the late John Aird, Esq. of Kingstown.
 In New York, Patrick Byrne, in the 45th year of his age, a native of the county Louth, Ireland.
 At Mount Pleasant, near Quebec, James Frost, Esq. Town Major of Quebec, which situation he filled for thirteen years.
 In Cuba, in the prime of life, Mr. James Drummond, the botanist.
 In Jersey, W. Horton, Esq. Lieut. R.M. of Madeley, Shropshire, aged 42 years.

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—DEC. 4.

Bank Stock ..... 220 1/2

No.
 December 2, 23
 Of the Auct
 JOSEPH M
 Auction o
 TOYS, &c. adv
 Limerick, on M
 to THURSD
 TAKE PLACE;
 Horse
 The da
 24
 PERSONS
 will find t
 Further par
 Henry-Street
 Auctioneer, 70
 Auction
 The re
 25 ON TUE
 (THE ENTI
 OF Fat and
 Sheep,
 Jaunting Car,
 ments of most &c. &c.
 Purchasers
 at Sale.
 December
 H
 STAFF Men's Men's Wome
 Wome
 Boys'
 Nurse
 Girl's
 Incur
 The Estab
 human miser
 larity and cle
 extremely cr
 The small ment will Steward.