

ost eligible plan and estimate to rebuild the he Shannon at Portumna, £100 premium is Commissioners.

vent Debtors' Court, Dublin, last week, John nglesea-street, bookseller, was remanded for
 ; and Benjamin Darby, of the Royal Arcade,
 o months.

ur has engaged Master Bourke for three nights
 rford theatre. Mrs. Waylett has abruptly engagement with Mr. Seymour at Waterford, rounds, and refused to perform the night she d.

ompany of Comedians opened at the Cork
 onday night, with the Tartuffe of Moliere.

y, son of the late Rector of Wexford, was violence from his horse in that town last Satur-and the animal then galloped off with such corner house of a street as to cause instant lock. Mr. Hickey is convalescent.

ht the Newry Mail Car was again attacked an, when the Guard fired and wounded two of after having being first struck with bludgeons.

meeting of the Limerick Horticultural Society
 the Linen-Hall, on New Year's Day.

e, Mayor of Kilkenny, has been allowed to old clothing and bed covering of the Consta-amongst the poor of that city.

ng letter relative to Monts de Piete appears in ressed to the members for Cork city.

ectures at the Limerick Institution will comow evening, and continue during the season.

of the House of Industry were all provided on y with bread and new milk for breakfast, and and soup for dinner. It must be gratifying to persons who were the means of supplying er to many whom Providence has reduced to um, to learn that they were so bountifully
 and it was truly delightful to hear the poor Heaven prayers, and thankfulness to a bene-for their liberality on the occasion. A balance
 g remained, it is expected that a few more will enable the Steward to provide for the w Year's Day. In addition to the generous owledged in our last were—from Miss Bluett, ell, £1; E. Parker, Esq. 5s.; Geo. Furnell, erce porter, J. B. Boyd, Esq.; Ditto, Roy & s of bread, James Hogan, Esq. Towards the dinner intended for New Year's Day, the received from Alderman D. F. G. Mahony, £1, ct, Cahirnarry, 10s.

N. Hoare acknowledges to have received for the Blind Asylum, a side of mutton, for their ner, from three little girls of a family attend-n Chapel.

s of Mrs. Craven's charity have paid through derman D. F. G. Mahony, all the Widows on ent, their annuities to 25th instant; and have e Ministers of St. Mary, St. Munchin, and St.
 n Pounds, for general distribution to the poor

ahony has received from T. O'Brien, Esq.
 he generous donation of Ten Pounds for the Craven's charity.

Hon. Richard FitzGibbon has transmitted to Stephen Dickson, Esq. for the undernamed ouse of Industry, £5; Lying-in Hospital,
 , £5; Fever Hospital, £4; Magdalen Asylum, hools, £3; Convent Schools, £3; Protestant l, £2.

Rev. Dr. Ryan thankfully acknowledges the rom the Hon. Col. Fitzgibbon for the benefit n Asylum. Dr. Ryan has also received £1 Dickson, Esq., for the poor of St. John's pas been distributed as directed.

s of the United Schools thankfully acknow-ipt of £3 per Stephen Dickson, Esq. the Hon. Colonel Fitzgibbon, M. P. in aid of the er of the House of Industry acknowledges

 P. Maunsell, Esq. M.P. Thorpe Malsor, £1
 tion.

of the House of Industry acknowledges hav-2 from the Mayor, being fines inflicted on ners, for obstructing the public passage on the hich has been long matter of very just and int.

efers such inhabitants of Arthur's-quay and as have complained to him of the filthy state assage in those parts of the city, to the Com-
 t. Michael's parish, whose province it is to f a respectable boarding school at Adare are a-year.—See advertisement.

At St. Paul's chapel, Aberdeen, James Duncan Esq. H.E.I.C.
 Bengal Medical Service, to Jane, youngest daughter of the late Captain W.H. Martyn, of his Majesty's 11th Foot.

DEATHS.

In Fitzwilliam-place, Dublin, Miss Geraldine O'Grady, youngest daughter of De Courcy O'Grady, of Kilballyowen, county Limerick.

On Monday, at her grandson's residence, Hurdlestown, county
 Clare, aged 88 years, Susanna, widow of the late Stumble Phillips, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, Mount Phillips, Tipperary.

Suddenly, Mulloy MacDermott, Esq. of Tubberpatrick, Roscommon, in which county he recently proved himself an ardent and successful advocate of the Agricultural Bank.

At Gortnasheelah, Elizabeth Oswald, youngest daughter of Rev.
 J. B. M'Crea.

In Bedford-row, Andrew Creagh, Esq. sincerely regretted by his friends, to whom his many agreeable and social qualities had much endeared him.

At Bruere Cottage, in this County, Patrick O'Shaughnessy, Esq.
 aged 70 years.

In Catherine-street, Mrs. MacInerney.
 On the 28th inst. at White-Hill, in this county, Phebe, second daughter of the late Frederick Price, Esq. one of the Burgesses of this City.

At Ballyseedy, aged 12 years, Penelope Agnes, ninth daughter of Thomas Gibbon Fitzgibbon.

In London, James Ryan, Esq. son of the late James Ryan of Patrick-street, in this city. Esq.

After a short illness, at his brother's house, Dame-street, Dublin, William Henry Lanauze, in his 21st year.

At the house of her son, in Great Britain-street, Dublin, Mrs.
 Juliana Ryan, relict of the late Samuel Ryan, Esq. of Dublin.

In Denzille-street, in her 90th year, Mary, relict of the late John Gibson, Esq. of Clondalkin, county Dublin.

At the house of her son, Joseph Conroy, Esq. Banagher, Mrs.
 Elizabeth Conroy, aged 70 years, relict of the late John Conroy, Esq.
 of Grafton-street, Dublin.

At her residence, Monkstown, Mrs. Ann Woffington, relict of the late Mr. Robert Woffington, of William-street, Dublin.

John Townsend Sinnett, Esq. of Drumcondra.
 In High-street, Ennis, Margaret, widow of Mr. J. Reddan, grocer.

At Cannanstown, after a few hours' illness, Catherine, daughter of William W. Sadlier, Esq.

Of consumption, at Percy-place, aged 19 years, Anna Maria, third daughter of the late Rev. Irvine Whitty, of Golden, county Tipperary.

At Ballyvarra, Miss Canter.
 In Kinsale, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Rye, at the advanced age of 91 years, Elizabeth Thornhill, relict of the late Major James Badham Thornhill, of Thornhill Lawn, county Cork.

In Blackpool, Cork, Mr. David White, Officer of Excise.
 Suddenly, on the Baudon coach, the daughter of the late Lieut.
 Beecher, 11th Royal Veteran Battalion.

At Carysfort Avenue, Blackrock, Joseph Boyd, Esq. eldest son of the late Captain Boyd, of Wexford Regiment of Militia.

At his father's residence, Ballinacurra, county Cork, David, second son of Robert Barry, Esq. aged 20 years.

In Lady-lane, Waterford, Sophia Henrietta, only child of the late Surgeon H. Mackesy, Royal Newfoundland Regiment.

At Castletown, Henry Longworth, Esq.
 At Truro, Edward Budd, Esq. formerly of Waterford.

Georgina, fourth daughter of Thomas Henry Watson, Esq. of Lumclone, county Carlow.

Suddenly, in Waterford, Mr. John Keenan, Manager of the Kilkenny Bank.

At Wexford, Edward Sutton, Esq.
 At Enniskillen, Mary Ann, daughter of the late Captain Brown, 16th Regiment.

At Ballymore, Roscommon, the Rev. James Elwood, Rector
 of Gurteen.

Elizabeth, widow of the late John Ferrall, Esq. of Sligo.
 In London, Lady Whalley, wife of Sir S. B. Whalley, M.P.

In her 78th year, the Hon. Sophia Ward, sister of the late Viscount Bangor.

In Kensington-square, Lady Douglas, widow of the late Major-General Sir William Douglas, of Timpendean, Roxburgshire, leaving eight children.

In Portman-street, Charlotte Sophia Lady Sheffield, widow of the late Sir J. Sheffield, Bart. of Normanby, Lincolnshire.

In the Strand, aged 52, John Hodson, Esq. of the Audit Office, Somerset-place.

In Dalby-terrace, City-road, Edmund Fry, M.D. late of Type-street, Finsbury, aged 79 years.

In Northumberland-buildings, aged 95, Elizabeth, relict of the late Mr. Alderman Horton, of Bath.

In her 55th year, Susanna, relict of the late Captain Henry Leigh, East-place, Lambeth.

At Harrowgate, the Rev. Arthur Guinness.
 At brother's house, Salisbury, Christopher Clarke, Esq. late a Captain in the Royal Artillery.

At Frampton, Dorset, of dropsy in the chest, Lieut.-General Sir
 Colquhoun Grant, 15th Hussars, aged 73 years.

The Rev. William Newman, D.D. 42 years Pastor of the Baptist Church, at Old Ford, Bow.

At Woolwich, at the house of her son-in-law, Colonel Sir John May, K.C.B. Elizabeth, relict of Robert Broff, Esq. late of Pennington House, Hants.

Aged 69, S. Bennett, Esq. Alderman of Chester.
 In Southampton, Mrs. Audley, widow of the late Thomas Audley,
 Esq. of Bath, in her 87th year.

At Bath, Mrs. Katherine Whately, second daughter of Joseph Whately, D.D. late of Nonsuch Park, Surrey, and sister of the Archbishop of Dublin.

At Worcester, Captain N. Collyer, formerly Paymaster of the 16th Light Dragoons.

At Clumber, Mrs. Kerrod, housekeeper to the Duke of Newcastle.
 At Fitchfield, Miss Ryan.

In Glasgow Barracks, Brevet Major Edward Hill, Captain 68th
 Regiment, leaving a wife and five children.

At Edinburgh, Thomas Blackwood, Esq.
 At Glasgow, William Vary, Esq. Clerk of the Peace for Lanarkshire.

At Nice, Lady Colville, relict of the late Sir C. Colville, of Duffield Hall, Derby.

At Dane's-court-lodge, Thanet, Mrs. Christian Langley, aged 75.
 In the Isle of Wight, of typhus fever, Eliza, second daughter of the late Thomas Longworth Dames, Esq. of Green Hill, King's Co.

In the Persian Gulf, Commodore E. Moore.
 At the Palace at Corfu, Mary Harcourt, third daughter of his Excellency Sir Howard Douglas, Bart. Lord High Commissioner of the Ionian Islands.

At Antigua, of fever, George A. Gore, Esq. Collector of Customs, and late Comptroller at Quebec.
 At his residence in the School of Medicine, Paris, (of which establishment he was the Librarian), Doctor Patrick MacMahon, in his 63d year. Doctor MacMahon was a native of Ireland, but arrived in Paris for the benefit of education while still a child, and (except to make the two first campaigns of the Republic with the Army of the Rhine) remained in the French capital until the day of his demise.
 At Honduras, Lieut. Grigg, R.N. special magistrate.
 At Cincinnati, Ohio, Aaron Jessop, formerly of Dublin, one of the Society of Friends,