

At Cheltenham, Lady Sussex Lennox, of a still-born child.
 At Peterborough, Upper Canada, the Lady of Stafford F. Kirkpatrick, Esq. of a daughter.

DEATHS.

At the New Barracks, after a short illness, Mr. Crozier, Master of the Band of the 94th Regiment.
 At the House of Industry, Mrs. Rose Atkinson, many years the humane and attentive Housekeeper of that Institution.
 At the advanced age of 98 years, Charles O'Brien, Esq. formerly of Woodtown, county Dublin, for many years an eminent merchant in Dublin, and grand nephew to the late Earl of Marchmont.
 In the Lower Castle-yard, Dublin, the Hon. William John Gore, Master of the Horse.
 In Cumberland-street, Dublin, Isabella, second daughter of Captain Francis Dundas, half-pay, 81st Regiment.
 In Dublin, after a tedious illness, Abraham Edward Orpen, Esq. M.D. of Cork. He was an eminent Physician of extensive practice.
 At Seville-place, Dublin, Rachael, relict of the late John M'Collum, Esq. Inspector-General of Excise.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Doherty, of Buckingham-street, relict of Owen Doherty, Esq.
 At Kingstown, Rachael Emily, eldest daughter of George Connor, jun. Esq. of Dawson-street.
 At Aldworth, Cork, at the advanced age of 83, Richard Bolster, Esq.
 At Warren's-place, Cork, in her 48th year, after a short illness, Anne, relict of the late Rev. Fenn Godwin, and daughter of the late Solomon Moses Newsom.
 At Bandon, Elizabeth, wife of the Rev. John Browne.
 James, eldest son of Paul Dane, of Mohill, county Leitrim, Esq.
 At Elm Hall, Parsonstown, after a few days' illness, aged 80 years, Peter Burke, Esq. a Magistrate for the county Tipperary and King's County, and one of the last of the Irish Volunteers of 1782.
 In Bruff, Mr. Fogarty.
 At Castletownsend, in his 70th year, Joseph Wall, Esq. Lieutenant George Lane, late of the 1st Royals, and many years Barrackmaster of Clonmel.
 Mrs. Sophia Smith, widow of the late Captain Severn Smith, and daughter of the late George Eskeldson, Esq. Danish Consul.
 In King's-street, St. James's, Sir Thomas Harvie Farquhar, Bart. At his residence, near Chelsea, on the 10th inst. in his 84th year, Lieut.-Colonel Hall, late commanding the Devon and Cornwall Fencibles,—a Gentleman whose virtues in every department in life endeared him to an extended circle of acquaintances. He served at Gibraltar during the whole of the memorable siege, and is outlived by no more than seven Officers of all who were then garrisoned there. Colonel Hall lost one son in the service, a Lieut. in the Royal Welsh Fusileers, killed at the battle of Albuera in 1811, and another, as Midshipman in the Navy, drowned at sea. Three daughters and four sons are left to mourn the loss of the veteran officer; one son, Lieut. William Hall, is Assist.-Editor of the United Service Journal, and another, Mr. S. Carter Hall, is Editor of the New Monthly Magazine.
 In Portland-place, at the residence of Dowager Lady Cooper, Sir William Henry Cooper, Bart. of Chilton Lodge, Berkshire.
 In Micklegate, aged 83, George Peacock, Esq. for 28 years an Alderman of York, and having twice served the office of Lord Mayor of that city.
 In William-street, Spa-fields, Mrs. Winifred Roberts.
 At Bangor, North Wales, aged 73, Catherine, relict of the late Thomas Pope, Esq. of Cork, and mother of the celebrated controversialist, Rev. Mr. Pope.
 At Hampton Wick, aged 29 years, Charlotte Amy, the wife of A. Langford, Esq.
 At the house of her daughter, Mrs. Kirby, in Grove-street, London, Mrs. Reece, in her 90th year.
 In London, aged 90, Mrs. Copley, mother of Lord Lyndhurst.
 Rev. Sir William Henry Cooper, Bart. of Chilton Lodge, in the county of Berks.
 At Leicester, on the close of his 80th year, John Moore, Esq.
 At Cheshunt, Herts, Captain Westly, late 84th Regiment.
 At Haverfordwest, Rev. William Evans, late Minister of the Independent Chapel at Pill.
 In Abercromby-square, Liverpool, Samuel Thompson, Esq. banker.
 At Great Gains, Upminster, Essex, aged 90, Mrs. Clayton.
 In Montreal, Elizabeth Gould, widow of the late Hon. George Henry Monk, one of the Justices of his Majesty's Court of King's Bench for Nova Scotia.
 Drowned, on board the Camilla, supposed to have foundered in the bay of Bengal, John Archibald Campbell, second son of Captain D. Campbell, R.N. St. Andrews.
 At Pondicherry, after very short illness, W. Black, Esq. aged 46.
 At Jersey, Emmeline, the wife of Capt. Stewart, late of the 9th Foot.
 At Brussels, Charles Cockayne Frith, Esq. Lieut.-Colonel Faithfull, 14th Bengal Native Infantry.
 At Bombay, Captain Falconer, Royal Artillery.
 At Quilon, in his 78th year, Col. Michael Daly, formerly commanding the Carnatic Brigade, in the service of the Rajah of Travancore, of every description; FRUIT TREES to EVERGREENS, SHRUBS, &c. &c. which at considerably Reduced prices.

 Thorn Quick, Asparagus, and Sea flower, and Cabbage plants &c. &c.

22 EDUCATION
 FERMOY SCHOOL
 DR. FAHIE, EX-SCHOOL PRINCIPAL.

BUSINESS will be resumed on immediate attendance of the Pupils. From situation, extent of Play-ground, well-aired Dormitories, this Establishment advantages, while Dr. FAHIE, ever for the forts and health of his Pupils, and for them every possible means of recreation, inclement weather, keeps his Gymnasium under the superintendence of MONSIEUR FAHIE in perfect order. As a mental recreation Studies, he has opened a Reading-room to the use of the Boarders, and approved English Works. The school is filled by the most competent and experienced teachers, that importance attached to the culture of Languages, which the rapidly increasing demands between the several Countries of Europe.

There are half-yearly Examinations of Scriptures, on set portions of which of Fermoy lectures and examines every Cards of Terms, &c. &c. may be had of Mr. RIDING'S, Bookseller, 34 Patrick-street. The French Language is taught by a Paris resident in the Establishment.

23 Hilary Session

County of the City of Limerick FINES IMPOSED AT THE
 Giles Bernard, of the City of Limerick, for not appearing as a petitioner, Thomas Benn, of said City, Gent. Edward Blake, cooper, ditto, Martin Honan, Esq. for not appearing as Juror, William Todd, ditto, Henry Owens, ditto, J. Jones, do, William Wilson, do, W. F. Russell, do, John Hackett, recognizance for not appearing to abide his trial, Patrick Purcell, for not bringing in Hackett, William Earls, for like, Thomas Purcell, of Mungret, for not appearing to take his trial, Andrew M'Donagh, for not bringing in Thomas Purcell, Daniel Kiely, for like,

EDWARD FAHIE
 Limerick, January 20.

Cork, a most pass sen-rs. The stealing k of the d before 68 were months
 Portar-Damer, wo Police and drinkf some of be torn belly."—
 e ground, fellow to matching a morning,
 the road.
 ably hurt,
 approved Chapel to n awarded is evening.
 knows sions, per illings and id Sessions received for , seized by st Sunday.
 Petty Sesprisonment
 . Gubbins, bally Petty o pay each two months sq. Thomas remiah Cal-
 John Hurly,
 ty Sessions,
 2s. 6d. or 209
 91
 99
 99
 88
 59
 Last Price
 £46 0
 113 0
 21 10
 4 5
 31 0
 0 0
 26 0