

Esq. to Flora, only daughter of Sir John...
donald, Clanranald.
At Malta, Captain George Bohun Martin, C.B. of H.M.'s ship
Caledonia, to Isabella Harriet, daughter of Rear Admiral Sir T. Briggs.

DEATHS.

At her sister's residence, in Hardwick-street, Cork, Peniel, the beloved wife of Nicholas Whiting, Esq. of Mountrivers, and niece to the late Alderman Michael Roberts Westropp, of Cork.

In Killarney, of typhus fever, Mrs. Grace Riordan, wife of Mr.
Thomas Riordan, of Dinagh Mills, near that town.

At Mallardstown, Kilkenny, Paul, son of Captain Helsham.

At Enniscorthy, Mrs. Eleanor Chartres, mother of the Rev. J.
W. Chartres.

In Cork, Isabella, relict of the Rev. John Gibbs, and sister of the late Field Marshal John Shadwell Connell, K.T.S.

At Castle-Ellen, county Galway, Walter Lambert, Esq.

Edward Martin, Esq. of Tullyra, county Galway, aged 87 years.

In Gort, Mrs. Slator, wife of Mr. James Slator, Steward to Lord Viscount Gort.

At his seat, Danesfort, near Rathkeale, Henry Browne, Esq.
one of the oldest Magistrates for this County,—a highly respectable and worthy gentleman.

Mrs. O'Sullivan, of Anne-street, upholsteress.

John Hone, jun. son of John Hone, Esq. of North Great George's-street, Dublin.

At Ivy Lodge, near Dublin, Miss Hincks, aged 68 years.

In Dublin, Mrs. Isabella Landers, daughter of the late Robert Marchbank, Esq.

At Pozzo, Artane, in the 23d year of his age, Bond Atkinson, Esq.
second son of the late Captain Atkinson, of the 20th Light Dragoons.

Judith, relict of John Mellisop, Esq. of Parsonstown, and sister of Daniel Moore, Esq. of Dublin.

In his 71st year, James Scott, Esq. of Cork.

Samuel Curry, Esq. son of the late Alderman Curry, of Derry,

At Tremont, county Down, Dorothy, relict of Captain Robert Johnson, of the Armagh Militia.

Charles Moorhead, of Ballimakenny, county Fermanagh, Esq. late of Aughless, county Tyrone.

Suddenly, in Harcourt-street, Dublin, George Ryan, Esq. of Derryleigh, Newport, county Tipperary, son of the late George Ryan, of this City, Esq.

In Leeson street, Dublin, aged 72, Charlotte, eldest daughter of the late John Hunt, Esq.

At Ardristan, Frances, relict of the late Oliver Moore, Esq. for many years Brigade Major of Yeomanry in the county Carlow.

At Oaklands, county Tyrone, Georgina, daughter of William S. Richardson, Esq.

In Teeran, county Kildare, Hugh Hyland, Esq.

In Clonmel, Mrs. Mahony, wife of Mrs. James Mahony, publican.

In London, Mrs. Newbury Dowel, relict of the late Captain Doyel, B.N. and first cousin to the late Lord Enniskillen.

In Piccadilly, Mrs. Colnaghi, widow of the late Mr. Paul Colnaghi.

In Liverpool, Mr. Patrick Fitzgerald, tailor, a native of Rathkeal.

At Wolverhampton, after a long and distressing illness, Francis John Giffard, Esq. second son of the late Thomas Gifford, Esq. of Chillington, Staffordshire, and of the Lady Charlotte Courtenay, his wife; and at Chillington, after a short illness, Captain Robert Giffard, of the 10th Hussars, youngest son of the late T. Giffard, Esq.
and the Lady Charlotte Courtenay, his wife, who has thus to deplore the death of two of her sons snatched away in the prime of life, in the narrow space of one week.

At Upper Holloway, W. H. Hargrave, Esq. aged 78.

At Blackheath, aged 71, Harriet, relict of the late W. S. Cooper, Esq.

At Crickhowell, aged 84, Colonel Williams.

At Whitby, aged 66, Edward Chapman, Esq. Deputy Lieutenant for the North Riding of Yorkshire.

At Scôle Lodge, Norfolk, John Aytoun, Esq. aged 77.

At Budleigh Salterton, Devonshire, Catherine, fourth daughter of the late Sir W. Roberts, Bart.

In his 78th year, Richard Watkins, Esq. St. Lawrence, near Chepstow, many years Deputy Lieutenant of the county of Monmouth.

At Dulwich, C. Kingsley, Esq. having survived his only child three days.

At Fordington, Dorchester, aged 78, Jas. Henry Arnold, Esq. LL.D.

In Hanger-lane, Tottenham, aged 85, Mrs. Elizabeth Townsend.

Suddenly, at Brussels, Thomas Walker, Esq. one of the presiding Magistrates of Lambeth-street Police Office.

At Falmouth, the wife of R. S. Courtis, Esq. late Mayor of that town.

gious instruction of the pupil ing and evening in the Ho each Sabbath Morning, and A

Terms, including ALL cha or Music,) Forty Guineas pe

A prospectus may be had a
No. 6, College-green, Dubl

Vacation ended on J

Munster Gen Endowment

Instituted and enrolled unde
c. 56, and 4 an

ANNUITIES to Widows
dowments for Children, small Annual Premium :—

Trustees—Wm. Monsell,
John O'Brien, Esq. J. J. J.

Monsell, Esq. G. H. Fitzger

Robert O'Brien, Esq. F. J.

W. J. Geary, Esq. M.D. J.

Esq. R. G. Maunsell, Esq. A

John W. Mahony, Esq.

David Fitzgerald, Esq. J.

Wm. Roche, Esq. M.P. Alde

Esq. M.P. Alderman Mah

Physician—W. Griffin, Esq.

vincial Bank of Ireland.

Secretary—John Griffin, Esq.

Annual Premiums :—Unc

do. £2 ; do. 35 do. £2 10

£3 10s. ; do. 50 do. £4 ; d

£5, and £1 Entrance Fee, to ing £50, for the Wife, Child at his decease.

The Entrance Fee which is after the first year. The W entitled to the Annuity, if 5 sums due have been paid by member dies before 5 years, completing the payments, t deducting the amount from become members, and nomi

other persons. Should a no to a second nomination—s

When the person nominat something additional must b ence of age, as laid down in The regulations provide f

management, and perfect sec

It is an understood principle money, or Capital, are not t penses of the Society, which the amount of entrance fee premiums or other sums wha

the Provincial Bank of Ir

Society,) each £100, as it

Government Securities. N

applied or paid away wit

Directors and Trustees.

For a few Weeks only