

from the City Gaol to Cork,
Jane Daly, stealing a hat
Mary O'Brien, ditto a cloak ditto candlesticks from Edford-row; Anne Murphy,
M'Enery, stealing spoons
Thomas Hogan, stealing off and Pat. Lahiff, stealing a t, (for life); Dan. Hourigan,
n, (for life); Jas. Naughten, trick-street; Pat Donovan, Wallace; John Morony, ditto clothes; Pat. Collins, ditto received an order from the ne sentence of transportation

Thomas and Patrick Lahiff,
the above return, to nine lt of a desperate riot at the row, to prevent which he Police from the adjoining to attend, in order to main-

the public peace.

respectable widow residing at
in a pool of water on the Tuesday, into which he was go mail coach. Four ladies om are daughters of Mr.
ctor, were in a pitiable plight pense. The horses shied at ses of snow. Mr. Corcoran, itched off.

received last week, while paired in a forge in Roscrea,
the head, by which his skull

mob, of about 200 persons,
horns and shouting "down ot into a field opposite the am Coddington, at the glebe
here they continued shouting blowing horns.

a tithe process were followed Dunhill, and compelled to eat lodged in Clonmel gaol on ion, on suspicion of robbery;

this country from Newfound-

£20 to the fund for discovery
Captain M'Namara's premises

ell off his horse into the river Donegal, where he perished.
ons were committed to the n.

o' is to be enlarged, and the offices for public business.

ls were received this week as Factory opened in this City
gow.

n the county Wicklow, where es, and the resident gentry
vative member to Parliament

a Pleas, Saturday last, Mr. tributor at Belfast, brought Captain Mason, Keeper of the lin, who had enlarged John nd charged with embezzling
ent. Verdict for O'Connor,

ayne has summoned a general
the Cork Fever Hospital for

At Fethard, the Lady of the Rev. Robert Ferris, Presbyterian Minister, of a daughter.
At Carrick-on-Shannon, the Lady of George Wynne, Esq. Royal Engineers, of a son.
In Cork-street, Burlington-gardens, the Lady of Miles Morley, Esq.
of a daughter.
At Brighton, the Lady of Lieut.-Colonel Grey, of a daughter.
At Woolwich, the Lady of Captain Burnaby, of the Royal Artillery,
of a daughter.
At Southend, near Darlington, the Lady of Joseph Pease, Esq.
M.P. of a son.
At Oulton Park, Cheshire, Lady Grey Egerton, of a daughter.
At Stonehouse Devon, the Lady of S. R. Wesley, Esq. R.M. of a son.
In Brook House, Lewisham, the Lady of S. T. Allen, Esq. of a son.
At Barbadoes, the Lady of his Excellency Major General Sir L.
Smith, of a daughter.

DEATHS.

At Ballyglass, near this City, Thomas M'Adam, Esq. second son of the late Thomas M'Adam, of Spring-hill, Esq.—a young gentleman much regretted.
On Sunday, in Glentworth-street, Henry, fifth son of Edward Lloyd, Esq. aged three and a half years. He endured a protracted illness with the most patient resignation.
At Baker-place, Robert Baker, Esq. an old and very respectable citizen of Limerick, esteemed for his firmness of character, and integrity on all occasions.
At Baker-place, Eliza, daughter of Richard Baker, Esq. of this City.
At his seat, Chute Hall, near Tralee, Richard Chute, Esq. in the 73d year of his age, after being for some years afflicted paralysis.—
Mr. Chute was son-in-law of the late Rev. Dr. Maunsell, of this City.
In Ann-street, Mr. John S. Rahilly, at the advanced aged of 92.
Mrs. M'Dona, of Kildare-street, Dublin, in her 62d year.
At Vittoria, Mr. Robert Franks, volunteer attached to the 10th or Munster Light Infantry, son of R. Franks, Esq. of O'Brien's Bridge.
At Summer-hill, Mary, relict of the late Thos. James, Esq. of Dublin.
In Harrington-street, John Ewer, only child of the Rev. Wm. Benn.
In his 81st year, at his residence, on the Long Quay, Kinsale, the Rev. Richard Webb, for 47 years Rector of the parish of Ringrone.
At Woodfort, county Meath, Martha, wife of Joseph Armstrong, Esq.
At her father's house, Ballysex, county Kildare, in the 29th year of her age, Susannah Brooks, wife of Colour-Sergeant Robert Brooks, of the Depot 2d battalion 60th Rifles. She was the mother of six children, two of which she has left with an affectionate husband to deplore her loss. She was a kind, loving wife and mother. This is the second of her family who died in the 60th Rifles, both of whom were deservedly regretted in the Regiment.
At Sunday's-Well, Cork, Mrs. Stephens.
At Mallow, of apoplexy, at the residence of her grandson, Dr.
Orpen, Mrs. Hungerford, widow of the late Thomas Hungerford, of the Island, Esq.
In her 78th year, Anastasia, the wife of Mr. Charles Coghlan, Cork.
In Hanover-street, Cork, Mary, wife of Mr. James Field.
At an advanced age, at the house of her son, Edward Hobson, Esq.
Mary, relict of Meade Hobson, Esq. late of Newtown Lodge, Waterford.
At Bundoran, Donegal, Mr. James Kerrigan, innkeeper.
At Eyre-square, Galway, Clare, wife of Arthur Ireland, Esq.
Elenor, daughter of Mr. Theobald Burke, of Tuam.
At Clonturkel, near Swanlinbar, Mrs. Moffet, wife of Andrew Moffet, Esq.
In Newry, T. B. Swanzy, Esq. a respectable merchant of that town.
Henry Irwin Stuart, Esq. of Gracehill, Treasurer of the county Antrim.
In Grosvenor-place, London, the Hon. Mrs. Cox, eldest daughter of the Dowager Lady Rivers.
In Great Cumberland-place, London, aged 71, Catharine, wife of W. H. Floyer, Esq. of Hints, Staffordshire.
The Right Hon. and Rev. Lord Frederick Townshend, Rector of Stiffkey and Morston, son of George, first Marquis Townshend and Charlotte Baroness Ferraris, of Chartley.
In London, the celebrated Chancery lawyer, John Bell, Esq.
In Waterloo-place, Walter Cosser, Esq. Secretary to the Palladium Assurance Society.
In Dover-place, New Kent-road, Thomas Richards, Esq. aged 95.
At Cheltenham, in the 85th year of his age, Thomas Stoughton, Esq. of Ballhorgan, county Kerry. In early life Mr. Stoughton was admitted a barrister, but never practiced professionally. He subsequently married a widow of large fortune at Pontipool, in Mon-mouthshire, where he resided for some years and executed the office of High Sheriff for that county. His eldest son, Anthony Stoughton, Esq. of Gloucester-place, Portman-square, succeeds to his fortune and estates.
At the residence of his son-in-law, T. T. White, Esq. of College Hill Court, Shrewsbury, in her 79th year, Mrs. Griffin, relict of the late Captain Griffin, of Balbriggan, county Dublin.
At the Wilderness, Hampton, William Pulley, Esq. of Queen-square, Bloomsbury.
In her 41st year, Hannah, the wife of Mr. W. G. Jackson, of Wells Cottage, Camberwell.
At Cheltenham, John, son of Lewis O'Donel, Esq. Rossland, Mayo.
At Tenby, aged 35, Elizabeth, wife of W. B. Reade, Esq.
At Chepstow, Mary, widow of the late Lieutenant-General Burr.
At Sherfold Park, Sussex, John By, Esq. Lieutenant-Colonel of the Royal Engineers.
Sir James Colquhoun, of Luss.
At Rome, the Rev. Charles Burlton, Fellow of New College, Oxford.
At Lisbon, United States of America, the Rev. William Moore, formerly of Newtownards, county Down.
At Toronto, Upper Canada, Charlotte, wife of the Hon. John Henry Dunn, Receiver-General for that Province.
On her passage to India, Emily, the wife of G. L. Jacob, Esq. of the Bombay Army.

may judge from the known principles of Teachers, into whose hands the Legislative tually transferred.

3—That bereft as our Protestant Institution the support to which, by the very essence of tion they were pre-eminently entitled—we fe called upon to endeavour to supply its place assisting the seminaries already established un
also, if duly supported, by maintaining in ea Diocese a School, where every child may "S Scriptures, which are able to make wise unto faith which is in Christ Jesus."

4—That we, therefore, now form ourselves to be called "The Limerick Diocesan Educa tion," of which the leading principle is School connected with it—the Bible (unmut in daily use, and portions of it committed to 5—That in furtherance of this, our pri

Committee be annually elected to admini entrusted to the Association, to direct the sub-committees, and to form such rules and from time to time shall appear most advisab report of their proceedings be laid before th
annual meeting next following.

6—That a Sub-Committee be annually el minutely, in conjunction with the Parochial C school connected with this Association and to its stated condition at least four times in ea Committee.

7—That a Sub-Committee of Examiners elected to conduct, with the Parochial Clergy examination of the Children in each school, districts as shall appear most expedient to Committee; and that small premiums of given to the best answerers, as well as to the Children of each School.

8—That the Standing Committee be emp
one or more of its members to the assista
Committees whenever circumstances require.

9—That the following Noblemen and requested to accept the offices to which t annexed—who shall be ex-officio members of

PATRON—The Honourable and Right
Bishop of Limerick.

PRESIDENTS—The Right Honourable the rick, the Earl of Clare, the Earl of Dunraven Viscount Guillamore, Viscount Sandwich,
Lord Massy, Lord Clarina, the Count De S
De Vere, Bart.; the Mayor of Limerick, O
Esq.; Sergeant Gould, and Richard Ellis, I

GUARDIANS—The Dean of Limerick, the Limerick, Archdeacon Warburton, Archd
Honourable John Massy, Alderman Mah
Watson, Col. O'Donnell, Lord Adare, Willi
M.P.; John Waller, Esq.; Col. Dickson, P
Esq.; John Croker, Esq.; Henry O'Grady
man Piercy, the High Sheriff, Gen. Sir J
Monsell, Esq.; Mathew Barrington, Esq.; E
Esq.; James Freke, Esq.; and Major Eccl

COMMITTEE—Revs. Dr. Willis, R. Dicks
John Duddell, John Jebb, Wm. Maunsell, J
Thos. Locke, Robert Knox, Edw. Herbert, T
jun. Godfrey Massy, W. Waller, W. Balsou
Dr. Townley, Mr. Nelson; Darby O'Grady,
Wm. Monsell, Thos. O'Grady, Croker Bar
Muunsell, D. Barrington, Esqrs. Capt. G. F
Sayers, Capt. Rose, Wm. Green, Richard James Sayers, M.D. F. W. Walshe, Esqrs.

SUB-COMMITTEES OF INSPECTION—Re
(Kilmallock,) John Locke, Annesley Gore, S Maunsell, James Bennett.

EXAMINERS—Revs. J. Gabbett, (Cahirna
Dawson Massy, W. W. Hoare, W. Adamson

TREASURER—Robert George Maunsell, E
SECRETARYS—The Revs. Samuel Jones,
J. H. Bouchier.