

these outrages lick Police, was rsh of the Shanelf in, the evenellent character, boured under a nd in this mood
, in which he mas Whetstone,
on his body.—
mself in a state
lliam Hennessy, with fractured
the Rev. Irwine in the streets of have been taken ttacked the Rev.
as the father of 15 years of age, years by a daily ott's table, (not edicine, &c.; in t to murder the ed to his dying
atitude!
m John Peirce,
t. The thief or hich means they k, got in on the have filled and from Newcastle, farmer, residing chagrin of other ot to the fortune
ted Irish teacher,
ed in the River
will for a relan Mr. Leahy sent er, when they ar-ood rushed down
he stream, fortustirrup, by which e, that the unforthe same name, hich they suffered r victims were of n one day before the one day, on etrated, although unty, without the
to each other.
at the City Cork

At Winton-le-weal, Thomas Dewart Brown, Esq. of Barrow House, Durham, to Isabella, daughter of Sir Wm. Chaytor, Bart.
The Rev. C. H. Craufurd, eldest son of the late Major-General Robert Craufurd, to Eliza, eldest daughter of Richard Hickford, of Old Swinford, Worcestershire, Esq.
At Ditton Park, by the Hon. and Rev. R. B. Stopford, George William Hope, Esq. eldest son of Gen. the Hon. Sir Alexander Hope, to Caroline Georgiana Montagu, youngest daughter of the Right Hon. Lord Montagu.
At Sezincote-hall, Gloucestershire, Viscount Deerhurst, son and heir of the Earl of Courtenay, to Miss Cockerell, daughter of Sir Charles Cockerell.
Edward Every Miller, Esq. Madras Light Cavalry, to Frances Grace Hay Murray MacGregor, daughter of the late Major-General and of the Lady Charlotte Murray MacGregor.
At Plock, in Poland, William H. Mayer, 14th Chasseurs, to Eliza, daughter of William Lacy, Esq. of Dantzic.
DEATHS.
In Killarney, of fever caught in the discharge of his professional duties, the Rev. Edmond Fitzmaurice, Priest of that parish.
Thomas Ormsby, Esq. of Ballinamore House, county Mayo.
Miss Sarah Burke, of the Dominican Nunery, Cross-street, Galway, aged 90 years, nearly 70 of which she spent a regular sister of that Convent.
In Dublin, John Waring, Esq. son of the late Rev. Lucas Waring, Rector of Kilkeel, county Down.
In Dublin, Robert, youngest son of the late Robert Blake, Esq.
and nephew to Major Henry Blake, of Fisher-hill, Mayo.
At Kilrush, Mrs. Keane, wife of Mr. John Keane, of that town.
At Lambeg, near Lisburn, aged 70 years, John Savage, Esq. late of Rathkeale.
At Glanmire, Cork, Claudius Anthony Lewis Lefebvre, Esq.
In Cork, Mr. Richard Maskall.
At Kurnaul, the Rev. Father Anthony, of Cork, Apostolic Missionary.
Robert Flood, of Farmley, county Kilkenny, Esq.
Miss Margaret Allen, daughter of the late Rev. David Allen, of Barnhill, near Kilmacrenan, county Donegal.
In Caher, the widow M. Lonergan.
At Rathronan-house, county Tipperary, the seat of his son, Major General Sir Hugh Gough, Lieut.-Colonel George Gough, Limerick City Militia, respected and beloved during a long and honourable career through life. As a gentleman and a soldier few could surpass Lieut.-Colonel Gough in those enviable qualifications which dignify the character of both, and secure the esteem and admiration of his countrymen.
Of a long and painful illness occasioned by over fatigue in Trinidad and on his passage home, Captain James Mahony, of the brig Effort, youngest son of the late Captain Jeremiah Mahony, of Lavitte's Quay, Cork.
After accouchement, Margareta, wife of John Crean, Esq. Surgeon to the Wexford Infirmary, and daughter of Benjamin Vicary, Esq.
Richard, youngest son of Mr. Thomas Kirby, of Cove.
In Glanmire, Cork, Marcella, relict of the late James Morgan, of Lakeville, Esq.
In Cork, Mr. Thomas Purcell, classical teacher.
At Greenhills, the residence of St. George Smith, Esq. Harriette Elford, second daughter of the Rev. John Smythe, Rector of Dromisten, Diocese of Armagh.
At Ardee, suddenly, Lieut. Stoker, of the Revenue Police.
In Granby-row, Dublin, Charles Clarke Hughes, M.D. Assistant-Surgeon/h.p. 58th Regiment.
Elizabeth, wife of Henry Ensor, of Dollymount.
At Ahascragh Glebe, William Robert Adair, second son of the Rev. Henry Hunt.
At St. Mark's, county Westmeath, John T. Potts, Esq. formerly of the 14th Light Dragoons, and eldest son of the late William Potts, of Coreen, county Roscommon, Esq.
Mrs. Quigly, relict of Mr. Thomas Quigly, optician, of Dublin.
In Newry, aged 56 years, William Shelton, Esq. late Surveyor of Customs at that port.
Mrs. Whitlock, sister of Mr. Charles Kemble.
In Edinburgh, Captain David Carnegie, late of the 41th Regiment.
At Paris, Admiral Sir Richard Graves.

To Dairy Men.

TO be Let, for the Season, on the demesne of Croom, fifty

Jubi

THE Borrower
that DANIEL Runner to the M'Dermott, disc

Apot
WANTED at besides attending a large Application to
H. POWELL, I

The Co
WILL stand
to Gentle Groom. For his years 1822 to 182

JOSE
AUCTIONEER,

70, GEE
HAS for Sale
will be Sol
A light
Inside J
Car. One supe
stone with any ho four miles over stone 6lb, equal
A Fashionable
A further supp
Wednesday.

The Auction o
at Rossbrien, (Th
Monday, the 21st
There will be a House Linen, Bo
street, in the cov
of a Gentleman
and does not wis

TO BE L
For s LOT 1—The MOGULL
of which the Te
the Dwelling.
reception of a re
neatly finished w and choice Dairy
very good Garde