

...formularies (see Catechism) the former is pugnant to the plain words on occasion to many superstitious therefore should have been upon Transubstantiation. which he quoted with slow of the dogma, they were against it in three consecutive that the Roman Catholic of legitimate interpretation, confirmation of this, I cited a authorities, Popes, Cardinals, over brow will, methinks, employment during the Easter referred "to the discipline father;" &c. &c. in support with wearisome particularity, of his letter would be too all merely say, that if they as "the Church of England hood to quote, your readers of importance they should of more difficult ac- on. As to his confident asser- sible" objections against this, I must take the liberty of en- other boasts, both vain and since ever he has thrown down st us; for I fearlessly affirm, upon one of the main ob- ne, in each of my discourses llude more particularly to posing that the Apostles Eucharist, could have under- I proved our Lord to have chal sense. This objection w of my first sermon, which March the 9th, and which ay safely conclude, requires ter.

Goliath, I beg to subscribe ur, your very obedient and

MAS WESTROPP, Jun.

EDITOR.

extreme severity of the wea- s, of all classes and denomi- Church on last Wednesday. Discourse of the Rev. Thomas ice of the Mass." His text, the Epistle of Jude, verse 11, gone in the way of Cain." e with Gen. 4, 2-7,—Heb. oved that the sin of Cain sacrifice not of his appoint- that "going in the way of e; and this he proved the in "the Sacrifice of the m of the Council of Trent— s Catechism. The defence Doctor Dens, and Doctor possible strength, in the ted writers. Every text Old and New Testament ion—the erroneous inter- meaning established. We r. Westropp's discussion of is opposite quotations from ajetan, were decisive on this with his examination of the ne institution of the Lord's i 1, 11, and the Paschal fast alcriticism, sound reasoning, we have ever heard; and , as well as the promise, of Chair of Truth." Like his nsubstantiation, these ser- ed of one chain of links, al parts of his argument, he awful criminality of the

Robert Somerville, Esq. C.C.P. Bathing, in Aghavea church, Robert Somerville, Esq. C.C.P. Bathing, in Aghavea church, widow of the late J. Knott Argyle, Esq. co. Cork, to Maria Argyle, widow of the late J. Knott Argyle, Esq. John Unthank, Esq. of the Inner Temple, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late J. Scott, Esq. Lincoln's Inn, and John's street, Bedford-row. At St. James's church, Westminster, Charles Humby, of Pall-Mall, to Everetta, only daughter of Joseph Egg, Esq. of Piccadilly. At Leven, Yorkshire, J. Scott, Esq. 53d Regt. to Mary, daughter of the Rev. G. Sampson. At Corfu, Lieut. T. W. Hill, of the 10th Regiment, to Emily, second daughter of Captain Grantham, of the Royal Artillery. At Nagpore, Lieut. J. G. Neil, Adjutant Madras European Regt. to Isabella, eldest daughter of Captain and Mrs. Warde.

DEATHS.

On Good Friday, at Mitchelstown, on her way from Cork, to the sorrow of a fond and attached husband, Eliza, the wife of Parker Bennett, Esq. of Rower.

In Percy-place, Lower Mount-street, Dublin, of apoplexy, Edward Thomas Ellis, Esq. late 23d Royal Welch Fusileers, in which Regiment he served during the Peninsular war, and the battle of Waterloo. At the Blacksticks, Mr. Edmond Hennessy, a young man generally and deservedly regretted.

Mary Anne, wife of John Dodd, of Sackville-street, Dublin, Esq. In Eccles-street, Dublin, Anne, relict of Edward Magennis, Esq. In Holles-street, Dublin, Edward William, son of Ebenezer H. Hatchell, Esq.

At Fairview-avenue, Mrs. Bergin, relict of the late Wm. Bergin, Esq. of the Custom-House, Dublin.

At George's-quay, Cork, Richard Chinnery, Esq.

Mary Scott, eldest daughter of John Scott, of the Society of Friends. In Dublin, Mr. W. Fetherstone.

At Edenderry, King's County, Sarah, wife of Mr. Samuel Smith. In William-street, Cork, Mrs. Milliken, widow of R. A. Milliken, Esq. At the house of her son-in-law, Doctor Wilkinson, Newtown-avenue, Blackrock, at the advanced age of eighty, Sarah, relict of the late Richard Hobart, Esq. barrister at-law, late of Cheltenham. At the house of her brother in Watling-street, Mrs. Eliza Mackey, late of Roscrea.

Miss Mary Nixon, sister of the late Captain William Nixon, of the Fermanagh Militia.

At Tenny Park, county Kilkenny, Mrs. Jane Ryan, relict of the late Major-General Ryan, B.N.I.

At Castle Island, near Boyle, Mrs. Shaw, wife of the Rev. Matthew James Shaw, Domestic Chaplain to Lord Lorton.

In Dublin, sincerely regretted, Arthur Brereton, Esq. a Burgess of the Corporation of this City.

In Maryborough, Robert M'Lean, Esq.

At Thurles, Mr. James Shee.

In the thirty-sixth year of his age, John Rowland Ottiwell, Esq. barrister-at-law.

At New Forest, Rev. Henry Daniell, Rector of Portnashangan.

In Enniskillen, Miss Mary Nixon.

In Willoughby Place, near Enniskillen, Mrs. Loyd, mother-in-law to Mr. Arthur Thompson, of that town, Recorder.

In Dublin, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Thomas Tynan.

At his residence, North-street, Westminster, Edward Southwell Ruthven, Esq. M.P. for Dublin.

In Princes-street, Westminster, William Dobson, Esq. Lecturer on Comparative Anatomy at the Westminster School of Medicine.

At Manchester-street, London, Graham Myers, eldest son of the late Colonel Pogson, of Kesgrave House, Suffolk.

In Long-acre, London, Mr. Henry Lee, father of Miss Lee, of Drury-lane Theatre.

At Norwood, Charlotte, the wife of Richard E. Townsend, Esq. of Doctors' Commons.

Mr. Richard Carter, Coroner of Surrey.

Hassard Lecke, Esq. only son of the late Capt. H. Stacpoule, R.N. At Peckham, in his 66th year, Mr. William Thos. Bond, upwards of fifty years an inhabitant of Lombard-street, London.

At Bath, aged 48, R. T. J. Glyn, Esq. second son of Sir R. C. Glyn, Bart.

At Cheltenham, E. Lynch Harmsworth, Esq.

At Larkfield, near Chepstow, aged 87, Joseph Camplin, Esq. M.D.

At Inverighty, in Forfarshire, aged 81 years, Lieut.-Colonel John Lawrenson, formerly of the 18th Dragoons.

At Torrington, Devon, Charlotte Augusta, relict of the Rev. D. Yonge.

At Milton, Kent, Catherine, relict of R. Sharpe, Esq. of the Bank of England.

At his seat, Nurstead House, Hants, General Hugonin, aged 85, Colonel of the 4th or Queen's Own Light Dragoons, in which he had served 68 years.

At the residence of his son, Earl's Terrace, Kensington, in the 82d year of his age, the Rev. Richard Valpy, D.D. Rector of Stradishall, Suffolk, and late Master of Reading School.

At Glen-Stuart, Lady Douglas Johnstone, of Lockerby, relict of the late Sir William Douglas, of Kinmount, Bart. in her 93d year.

John Watson, Esq. Superintendent of Police for the City of Glasgow. At Chowringhee, Ens. H. Russell, 20th N.I. aged 25 years.

At Penang, J. Patullo, Esq. C.S.

MONTHLY MILITARY OBITUARY.

Lieut.-General—Sir R. Bolton, G.C.H. 7 Dr. Gds.

Lieut.-Colonel—Hon. S. D. Strangways, h.p. 76 F.

Major Robson, hp. 19 F.

Captains—Mackworth, 2d F; Daniell, 21 F; Connor, hp. 2 W.I. Regiment; Baron, late of Invalids.

Lieutenants—Watson, late 5 R. Vet. Bn. and Fort Major at Plymouth; Brown, late 7 R. Vet. Bn; Greenhaigh, hp. 71 F; Bowles, hp. 1 Prov. Bn. of Mil.

Ensigns—Frost (Town Maj.); Alexander, 5 R. Vet. Bn.

Quarter-Masters—Henderson, 11 Drag.; Cowan, hp. 2 Dragoons; Collingdon, hp. 15 Dr.

Veterinary Surgeon—Lawrence, hp. Staff Corps of Cav.

Medical Department—Surgeon Logan, M.D. 15 Dr. Gds; Surgeon Morton, hp. Roy. Art; Surgeon Francis, late 3 Roy. Vet. Battalion; Assistant-Surgeon Foote, hp. 67 F.

St. Patrick's Orphan Society,

Oil, Colour, Window-Glass, AND Dye-Stuff, Ware-House,

NO. 22, WILLIAM-STREET, LIME

W. & S. ENGLISH

HAVE FOR SALE

Boiled or Drying Oil,
Raw Linseed Oil,
Spirits of Turpentine,
Genuine London White Lead,
Fine Yellow Ochre,
Greens for Oil and Water,
Varnishes,
Lamp Oil,
Refined Spermaciti Oil,
Refined Rape Oil,

Painters' Brushes—
Hair and Ivory Grain
Budger Tools,
Window-Glass, & C
cut to measure,
Plaster of Paris,
Roman Cement.
Cocoa Nut Oil,
Beeswax Seal Oil.

ALSO,
W. & S. E. are supplied with

Russian Tallow,
Rape Oil for Wool,
Olive, do. do.
Train Oil and } for Tanners.
Shumac,
Logwood, Ground & Chip,
Redwood,
Fustic,
Indigo,

Vitriol,
Copperas,
Castor Oil,
Epsom and Glauber S
Saltpetre,
Tar, Pitch, Rosin, W
and other articles co
with the dry saltin

Country Dealers and Retailers will be supplied lowest wholesale Terms.

Limerick, Ap

STEAM PACKETS

SAIL FOR THE UNDERMENTIONED PORTS
FROM THE GENERAL STEAM PACKET OFFICE

11, EDEN-QUAY, DUBLIN.

The intended times of departure in April, 1836, are as follows:
FROM Custom-House Quay, for Bristol, the Osprey, Captain Bailey; the Express, Captain Chapman
Tuesday and Friday.

Friday.....	1st April,	at 7½ o'clock,	Morning
Tuesday.....	5th	at 9½ o'clock,	Morning
Friday.....	8th	at 1½ o'clock,	Afternoon
Tuesday.....	12th	at 5 o'clock,	Afternoon
Friday.....	15th	at 7½ o'clock,	Morning
Tuesday.....	19th	at 9 o'clock,	Morning
Saturday..	22d	at 12 o'clock,	Noon
Tuesday....	26th	at 4 o'clock,	Afternoon
Friday.....	29th	at 6½ o'clock,	Morning

The Osprey and Express leave Bristol for Dublin
Tuesday and Saturday.

For Cork, the Innisfail, Captain Roche, every Friday

Friday.....	1st April,	at 8½ o'clock,	Morning
Friday.....	8th	at 2½ o'clock,	Afternoon
Friday.....	15th	at 8½ o'clock,	Morning
Friday.....	22d	at 1 o'clock,	Afternoon
Friday.....	29th	at 7½ o'clock,	Morning

The Innisfail leaves Cork for Dublin every Tuesday

For Greenock and Glasgow, the Jupiter, Captain every Saturday.

Saturday....	2d April,	at 8½ o'clock,	Morning
Saturday....	9th	at 2½ o'clock,	Afternoon
Saturday....	16th	at 8½ o'clock,	Morning
Saturday....	23rd	at 1 o'clock,	Afternoon
Saturday....	30th	at 7½ o'clock,	Morning

The Jupiter leaves Glasgow every Tuesday, and Greenock every Wednesday, for Dublin.

From Kingstown Pier, for Liverpool, every evening quarter past 5 o'clock, the Post-Office Packets, Etna, Dolphin, and Thetis.

A Coach leaves the Office, No. 11, Eden-quay, to Passengers to the Packet, at a quarter past 4 o'clock.

Carriages, Horses, and Goods intended for Ship should be at the Packet an hour before the time of sailing.

General Steam Packet Office, 11, Eden-quay, Dublin.

Any Goods or Parcels addressed to JOSEPH R. PEARSON
Office, will be forwarded to wherever directed, by Packets, or other eligible conveyance with despatch.

Apr

FOR BORDEAUX.