

But it was reserved of demolition." The
the Pope's Emissary to oused the spirit of men . Foremost sprung the which was threatening to the very name of Chris-The preacher then ad-formation—and shewed owe its reformation to elf, and that, with such tion, as to have restored discipline of Scripture, ed them in her articles, e the solemnities of her assuming state with mild exposed the artifices by e from humanity, comrward in the worst light e purposing of prevent-the mental liberty which atures, and warned R.C. ause all Catholic writers erefore her Communion dangerous as well as the s that which bears the is is the master-piece of his heartfelt hope and ngland reformed herself in Ireland would reform eg to be Catholic, but by sh R. C. could never be mselves from that really R.'s by embracing in-ngland, by returning to r. He concluded with he language of Isaiah 60, heard in thy land, wasters, but thou shalt call raise." The style and as peculiarly suited to e meek composure—the his arguments admirably f England Reformation.
y with which he exposed bterfuges, by which the ded by the advocates of d him, to be the Minister ff. The specimen of an r, in the pattern of a devoutly preserved in a ed his discourse, and sup-who feel for their poor nity College, and Dr.
orrib, has addressed the their preference, says an, expended £20,000
ntesting the supremacy

In Barbadoes, William Fitzherbert, Esq. eldest son of Sir Henry Fitzherbert, Bart. to Annie, second daughter of the Hon. Sir Reynold Alleyne, Bart. of Alleyne Dale Hall, in that island.

DEATHS.

On Thursday, at his residence, Geraldine Cottage, near this City, to the inexpressible grief of his family and an extensive circle of connexions, William Fitzgerald, Esq. after a lingering illness which he endured with true piety and Christian fortitude. His career through life has been remarkable for strict integrity, disinterested friendship, and genuine hospitality:—and in consigning his venerable remains to the grave, it must prove a source of consolation to his afflicted family, to know how deeply his fellow-citizens participate in the loss of so estimable member of society. The funeral proceeds at 12 o'clock on Sunday for interment in the family vault at Kilquane.

In Upper Denmark-street, Edward Morgan, Esq. late Chief Constable of Police, having been for the last few years on the superannuated list. He was a sincere, warm-hearted man.

In Ellen-street, Mr. John Smith, late a Color-Sergeant in the 32d Regiment, in which he served 22 years, 7 on the continent and Peninsula, 10 years in North America. He was present at Waterloo, in which glorious affair the 32d Regiment distinguished itself. He has left a wife and four children to lament his death. He was a tender husband, an affectionate parent, and a sincere friend.

After a lingering illness, borne with the most Christian resignation, at Abington Glebe, the residence of her brother-in-law, the Dean of Emly, deeply lamented by her family and friends, Mrs. Jane Fergusson, widow of the late John Fergusson, Esq. of Mulberry-hill, and daughter of the late Dr. Dobbyn, formerly F.T.C.D. Rector of St. Mary's, Dublin, and Vicar of Finglas.

Georgina, youngest daughter of Ralph Evans, Esq. Courtbrack, At Parsonstown, Robert Lloyd, Esq. of Ballyuennan, county Tipperary, sincerely regretted by a large family.

At his house Upper Rutland street, Dublin, of a few days' illness, William O'Beirne, Esq. solicitor, son of the Rev. Dr. O'Beirne, Portora, Enniskillen.

At Blackall-street, Robert, fifth son of Robert Holmes, Esq. Collector of Excise, Sligo, in the 17th year of his age.

At St. Leonard's, at Sir Byam Martin's, the Hon. Ann J. Martin, the wife of Captain William Fanshawe Martin, of the Royal Navy, and second daughter of Lord Wynford

On Easter Sunday, at her apartments, Dame-street, Dublin, Miss Mary Regan, in the 48th year of her age.

In Dublin, Margaret, wife of Surgeon Pemberton.

Mr. Martin Merry, of Bride-street, Dublin, pewterer and brazier.

At Stradone House, county Cavan, Major Burrowes.

Frederick Trench, Esq. of Haywood, Queen's County.

In Badon, Miss Penelope Biggs, only daughter of the late William Biggs, Esq.

At Fermoy, Mr. William Smyth.

At Clonrohid Glebe House, Anna Jane, wife of the Rev. Robert Kirchoffer.

At Ballinakill, Queen's County, at the advanced age of 91 years, Mr. Michael Watters.

Sophia, youngest daughter of C. H. Bagot, Esq. of Ennis.

Charles, youngest son of Martin D'Arcy, Esq. Houndswood, county Mayo.

At Lissadrone, county Mayo, Jane Elizabeth, relict of the late Robert Pugh, Esq.

At Willsbrook, near Ballinamore, county Leitrim, Launcelot Peyton Slacke, Esq. eldest son of William Slacke, Esq.

In Youghal, in the prime of life, Sarah, wife of the Rev. George Tierney Roche, and youngest daughter of the late Richard Sparrow, Esq. of Oakland. She has left six young children to deplore her irreparable loss.

In Upper Charlotte-street, Fitzroy-square, London, Mrs. Philippe Steele, aged 79 years.

At Brompton, William Lynch, Esq. barrister-at-law.

At his house, Kennington-common, Dr. Walshman, in the 86th year of his age.

At Woolwich Common, Charles Coffin, son of J. M. Savage, Esq. Royal Horse Artillery.

At Brighton, Susan, eldest daughter of Mr Sergeant Goulburn, M.P.

At Tobago, Richard Newton Bennett, Esq. Chief Justice of that island.

In Paris, Patrick Lattin, of Morrinstown Lattin, county Kildare, Esq.

Lieutenant Frederick L. Goodwin, of the Bengal Horse Artillery, son of Joseph Goodwin, Esq. of Hull.

In command of the Depot at Briviesca, Major G. H. Edwards, of the 3d Regt. British Legion of Spain, late of his Majesty's 80th Foot.

General Lord Cathcart, Colonel 2nd Life Guards.

following

The ab-
tent agen-
Samples
April.—

Cork.
Thos

57.
B. M.
of PAPER
most fast
Ware-ro
Dominic
offered fo
To the
with thei who have positivel
buy in L patterns
by an ins
Retailer
try his es
they can ready mo
B. M. a splendi
this Seas
they can grainer, in the f
engages t first style
those wh
His P newest a from 2-4
can be pr
before th ingredien
He is a house use
Papea Ma
Peruvian
other thin