

...service,
from the Altar, the will incline their sources it was shewn doctrine which the carefully, or more of the doctrine of
to have existed have been used as an m, as it has been in churches. But that,
nt, and only efficient ess, as that, without e is careful to do so, ut as rendering the ent of Heaven; and oul of that heavenly nto the perfect day.
n and practice of the f the comfort which can find the awful
ead the dying words long been preparing fort for the dreadful
; and though I have
d feared him in my oid of offence to him xtreme to mark what nd therefore where I
, for I plead not my
my unrighteousness, pardon for penitent

last impression:—)
some persons while od of Hospital, under ssy, of Griston, Esq.
ce for protection, and m to the residence of having pressed on in ed, and wounded a who pursued them to rushed on the police, e of the unfortunate
the very residence of who implored his life on Guards, consisting ning from Portobello re they embarked for the 7th to Liverpool, ral of the Ordnance,
n of the late Fort-tion in the Ordnance
egt. joined the Depot detachment at Mill-for two hours yester-

e Officer, who libelled amentary committee, rim district, by order

C. Coles, Esq. of Peckham.
At St. Pancras church, William Henry Dickson, Esq. of Claphamcommon and Furnival's Inn, to Sophia Anne, youngest daughter of N. Wathen, Esq. of Euston-square.
At St. Pancras church, Frederick Waters Watts, Esq. of Union-terrace, Camden-town, to Jane Dora, second daughter of the late Rev. Benjamin Gibbon, Vicar of Penally, Pembrokeshire.
At St. Mary's church, Marylebone, the Rev. Thomas Wyld, of North Wraxhall, Wilts, to Maria, daughter of the late J. Neeld, Esq. of Gloucester-place, Portman-square.
At Edinburgh, John Greene, jun. eldest son of John Greene, Esq. of Millbrook, county Kildare, to Anne, eldest daughter of Thomas Morgan, Esq. of Upper Temple-street, Dublin.
At Bath, the Rev. William Littlehales, third son of Rear-Admiral Littlehales, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Captain W. H.
Cleather, of the 1st Ceylon Regiment, many years Deputy Judge Advocate in that island.
At Ingham, Norfolk, John Whaites, Esq. to Caroline, youngest daughter of Lord Wodehouse.

DEATHS.

At Oaklands, on Tuesday, at the advanced age of 94, Mrs.
Hickman, relict of John Hickman, Esq. of Caherbane, co. Clare.
At the house of her nephew, James Raymond, Esq. Dromin, Derry, aged 77 years, Mrs. Catherine Morris, daughter of Daniel Morris, Esq. barrister-at-law, formerly of Ballengown, near Tralee.
In her 13th year, Letitia, eldest daughter of Colonel Wahab, of Upper Temple-street, Dublin.
In Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Elizabeth, last surviving daughter of the late Colonel Wolfe, of Forcuagtils, county Kildare.
At his house in York-street, in the 86th year of his age, after a painful illness, Patrick Marsh, Esq. The principal part of his large property, amounting to nearly two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, devolves by will to Mr. Robert Fannin, of Harrington-street.
Mr. James Gorman, a very efficient and respected officer of the Henry-street division.
On the Mall, Tralee, Mary Anne, wife of Mr. John Casey, linen and woollen-draper.
At Athlone, the Rev. Michael Dwyer, P.P. of the union of Kilbegnet and Dunnamon, aged 35.
Matilda Jane, eldest daughter of Archibald Fisher, of Garvagh, Esq.
At Enniskillen, of typhus fever, the Rev. Andrew O'Beirne, D.D.
M.R.I.A. principal of the Royal School of that town.
In Galway, Mrs. Catherine Prendergast.
In Londonderry, Mrs. Haliday, aged 75.
On Wednesday, at Doone Glebe, in the bloom of youth, Charles, eldest son of the Rev. C. P. Coote, a young gentleman of the highest promise, whose premature fate has plunged his fond parents into the deepest affliction.
In William-street, of typhus fever, aged 25, Mr. John O'Donnell, leather-merchant, a young gentleman deservedly regretted.
At her son's house, Grand Parade, Cork, Bridget, relict of the late Michael M'Carthy, Esq. of Clooncagh, county Sligo.
At Castletownsend, of fever caught in the discharge of his duty, the Rev. John Buckley, aged 29, Roman Catholic Curate of that parish.
In Clonmel, the Rev. Terence Fitzpatrick.
At Faha, Barony of Bere, Cork, aged 79, Patrick O'Sullivan, Esq.
Denis Cuniffe, Esq. Gort.
At Marino House, Crescent, Bessy, third daughter of Thomas Ferris, Esq.
At his residence in the Clapham-road, William Hardy, Esq. many years a colonial broker in London.
At Hastings, Mrs. Augustus Fitzroy.
At Southall, Middlesex, aged 78 years, Vitruvius Lawes, Esq.
Sergeant-at-Law.
At Blackbrook, near St. Helens, Lancashire, the Rev. T. Hodgson, many years Roman Catholic Priest of that mission.
At Burton Constable, Holderness, Mary Honoria, only daughter of Brigadier-General Chichester, of the British Auxiliary Legion, in Spain.
At Southampton, Anne, widow of Colonel Phayre, of Wexford.
At Sulgrave vicarage, Anne, wife of the Rev. W. Harding, and her infant daughter.
In Bath, aged 71, Major-General Dixon, of the Royal Artillery.
In Plymouth, James Dickson, Esq. Surgeon R.N. and late of H.M.S. Thunderer.
At Vittoria, of fever, Lewis, youngest son of the late William Mackesy, Esq. of Waterford.
At Geneva, aged 73, Elenora, wife of the Rt. Hon. Wm. Wickham.

the River Deel, which for work, and the adva joining quay. The Mil work, capable, in the 10,000 to 12,000 ba considerably increased quantity of prime whea
venient CORN STOR
if wanted; a long term entire control of the w fit for the trade would tion may be had from cation to William Hew Esq. Rathkeale.

Want
A S LAND STEW
A steady, active ma
some of the first Situat has had the managemen most extensive Tillage
the green crop system branches; Dairy, Rea breed of Stock; also Waste Lands, &c. A
No. 8, George's-Street attended to.

Extensive
TO be Sold by Auc
the 18th day of Grove House, near Ro
consisting of Parlour, Chairs, a superb set o
Sofa ditto; Sideboard Stores, an excellent E
ter, a Barometer, fou and Palliasses; Dinn ware, Decanters, and
and evening Tea Sets stands, Dressing Tab modes; Terrestrial a fine toned Grand Pia Broadwood & Co.)
several kinds, Wardro
several Musical Instr Mirrors, several valu
Carpets and Rugs, Money Safe, (fire-pro
Kitchen and Dairy
Carriage, with back se fect order and almo perfect matches, acc ness, saddles and bri other articles too nu be Sold on the secon Milch and in-calf C which are of the high Terms—Cash, for 91 days, for any sum at 11 o'Clock. The

To be Sold, BY the Executor of the late Mrs. Honora Browne, the Testator's interest in part of the Lands of Ballinvreeny and Knocktoran some of the best land in the County of